6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

7 1. That the Code of Virginia is amended by adding a section numbered 19.2-262.01 as follows:

8 § 19.2-262.01. Voir dire examination of persons called as jurors.

9 In any criminal case, the court and counsel for either party shall have the right to examine under
10 oath any person who is called as a juror therein and shall have the right to ask such person or juror
11 directly any relevant question to ascertain whether the juror can sit impartially in either the guilt or 12 sentencing phase of the case. Such questions may include whether the person or juror is related to 13 either party, has any interest in the cause, has expressed or formed any opinion, or is sensible of any
14 bias or prejudice therein. The court and counsel for either party may inform any such person or juror
15 as to the potential range of punishment to ascertain if the person or juror can sit impartially in the 16 sentencing phase of the case. The party objecting to any juror may introduce competent evidence in 17 support of the objection, and if it appears to the court that the juror does not stand indifferent in the 18 cause, another shall be drawn or called and placed in his stead for the trial of that case.

19 A juror, knowing anything relative to the fact in issue, shall disclose the same in open court.
