HOUSE BILL NO. 397

Offered January 8, 2020

Prefiled January 2, 2020

A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-1300 of the Code of Virginia, relating to governing boards of public institutions of higher education; input from faculty senate.

Patron—Keam

Referred to Committee on Education

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 23.1-1300 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:§ 23.1-1300. Members of governing boards; removal; terms; nonvoting, advisory representatives; residency.

A. Members appointed by the Governor to the governing boards of public institutions of higher education shall serve for terms of four years. Vacancies occurring other than by expiration of a term shall be filled for the unexpired term. No member appointed by the Governor to such a governing board shall serve for more than two consecutive four-year terms; however, a member appointed by the Governor to serve an unexpired term is eligible to serve two consecutive four-year terms immediately succeeding such unexpired term. Except as otherwise provided in § 23.1-2601, all appointments are subject to confirmation by the General Assembly. Members appointed by the Governor to the governing board of a public institution of higher education shall continue to hold office until their successors have been appointed and qualified. Ex officio members shall serve a term coincident with their term of office.

B. No member appointed by the Governor to the governing board of a public institution of higher education who has served two consecutive four-year terms on such board is eligible to serve on the same board until at least four years have passed since the end of his second consecutive four-year term.

C. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection E or any other provision of law, the Governor may remove from office for malfeasance, misfeasance, incompetence, or gross neglect of duty any member of the board of any public institution of higher education and fill the vacancy resulting from the removal.

D. The Governor shall set forth in a written public statement his reasons for removing any member pursuant to subsection C at the time the removal occurs. The Governor is the sole judge of the sufficiency of the cause for removal as set forth in subsection C.

E. If any member of the governing board of a public institution of higher education fails to attend (i) the meetings of the board for one year without sufficient cause, as determined by a majority vote of the board, or (ii) the educational programs required by § 23.1-1304 in his first two years of membership without sufficient cause, as determined by a majority vote of the board, the remaining members of the board shall record such failure in the minutes at its next meeting and notify the Governor, and the office of such member shall be vacated. No member of the board of visitors of a baccalaureate public institution of higher education or the State Board for Community Colleges who fails to attend the educational programs required by § 23.1-1304 during his first four-year term is eligible for reappointment to such board.

F. The governing board of each public institution of higher education shall adopt in its bylaws policies (i) for removing members pursuant to subsection E and (ii) referencing the Governor's power to remove members described in subsection C.

G. The governing board of each public institution of higher education and each local community college board may appoint one or more nonvoting, advisory faculty representatives to its respective board. In the case of local community college boards and boards of visitors, such representatives shall be chosen from individuals elected by the faculty or the institution's faculty senate or its equivalent. In the case of the State Board, such representatives shall be chosen from individuals elected by the Chancellor's Faculty Advisory Committee. Such representatives shall be appointed to serve (i) at least one term of at least 12 months, which shall be coterminous with the institution's fiscal year or (ii) for such terms as may be mutually agreed to by the State Board and the Chancellor's Faculty Advisory Committee, or by the local community college board or the board of visitors, and the institution's faculty senate or its equivalent. Regardless of whether any such governing board makes any such appointment, each such board shall solicit the input of the institution's faculty senate or its equivalent (a) at least twice per academic year and (b) regarding the search for candidates for the position of chief executive officer of the institution.

H. The board of visitors of any baccalaureate public institution of higher education shall appoint one or more students as nonvoting, advisory representatives. Such representatives shall be appointed under

INTRODUCED

HB397

59 such circumstances and serve for such terms as the board of visitors of the institution shall prescribe.

60 I. Nothing in subsections G and H shall prohibit the governing board of any public institution of 61 higher education or any local community college board from excluding such nonvoting, advisory faculty
62 or student representatives from discussions of faculty grievances, faculty or staff disciplinary matters or 63 salaries, or any other matter.

64 J. The president or any one of the vice presidents of the board of visitors of Virginia Military
65 Institute, the chairman or the vice-chairman of the State Board, and the rector or vice-rector of the 66 governing board of each other public institution of higher education shall be a resident of the 67 Commonwealth.

68 K. No baccalaureate public institution of higher education shall employ an individual appointed by
69 the Governor to the board of visitors of such institution within two years of the expiration of his term.
70 Such prohibition shall not apply to the employment of an individual to serve as an institution president
71 or, in the case of Virginia Military Institute, the Superintendent.
