The use of words or symbols associated with a particular religion, national origin, sex, or race shall be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference under this chapter which shall not be overcome by a general disclaimer. However, reference alone to places of worship including, but not limited to, churches, synagogues, temples, or mosques in any such notice, statement or advertisement shall not be prima facie evidence of an illegal preference;

7. To induce or attempt to induce to sell or rent any dwelling by representations regarding the entry or prospective entry into the neighborhood of a person or persons of a particular race, color, religion, national origin, sex, elderliness, familial status, or handicap;

8. To refuse to sell or rent, or refuse to negotiate for the sale or rental of, or otherwise discriminate or make unavailable or deny a dwelling because of a handicap of (i) the buyer or renter, (ii) a person residing in or intending to reside in that dwelling after it is so sold, rented, or made available, or (iii) any person associated with the buyer or renter;

B. For the purposes of this section, discrimination includes: (i) a refusal to permit, at the expense of the handicapped person, reasonable modifications of existing premises occupied or to be occupied by any person if such modifications may be necessary to afford such person full enjoyment of the premises; except that, in the case of a rental, the landlord may, where it is reasonable to do so, condition permission for a modification on the renter's agreeing to restore the interior of the premises to the condition that existed before the modification, reasonable wear and tear excepted; (ii) a refusal to

69 bars; and there are usable kitchens and bathrooms such that an individual in a wheelchair can maneuver

88 or other land use ordinance; pattern or practice cases; or referral of conciliation agreement for 89 enforcement.

90 A. If the Board determines, after consultation with the Office of the Attorney General, that an 91 alleged discriminatory housing practice involves (i) the legality of any local zoning or land use
92 ordinance or (ii) activity proscribed in subsection C of § 36-96.3, instead of issuing a charge, the Board
93 shall immediately refer the matter to the Attorney General for civil action in the appropriate circuit court 94 for appropriate relief. A civil action under this subsection shall be commenced no later than the 95 expiration of ~~eighteen~~ 18 months after the date of the occurrence or the termination of the alleged 96 discriminatory housing practice.

97 B. Whenever the Attorney General has reasonable cause to believe that any person or group of 98 persons is engaged in a pattern or practice of resistance to the full enjoyment of any of the rights
99 granted by this chapter, or that any group of persons has been denied any of the rights granted by this 100 chapter and such denial raises an issue of general public importance, the Attorney General may 101 commence a civil action in the appropriate circuit court for appropriate relief.

102 C. In the event of a breach of a conciliation agreement by a respondent, the Board may authorize a 103 civil action by the Attorney General. The Attorney General may commence a civil action in any 104 appropriate circuit court for appropriate relief. A civil action under this subsection shall be commenced 105 no later than the expiration of ninety days after the referral of such alleged breach.

106 D. The Attorney General, on behalf of the Board, or other party at whose request a subpoena is 107 issued, under this chapter, may enforce such subpoena in appropriate proceedings in the appropriate 108 circuit court.

109 E. In a civil action under subsections A, B, and C, the court may:

110 1. Award such preventive relief, including a permanent or temporary injunction, restraining order, or 111 other order against the person responsible for a violation of this chapter as is necessary to assure the full 112 enjoyment of the rights granted by this chapter.

113 2. Assess a civil penalty against the respondent (i) in an amount not exceeding $50,000 for a first 114 violation; and (ii) in an amount not exceeding $100,000 for any subsequent violation.

115 3. Award the prevailing party reasonable ~~attorney's~~ attorney fees and costs. The Commonwealth shall 116 be liable for such fees and costs to the extent provided by the Code of Virginia.

117 The court or jury may award such other relief to the aggrieved person, as the court deems 118 appropriate, including compensatory damages, and punitive damages without limitation otherwise 119 imposed by state law.

120 F. Upon timely application, any person may intervene in a civil action commenced by the Attorney 121 General under subsection A, B, or C ~~which~~ that involves an alleged discriminatory housing practice with 122 respect to which such person is an aggrieved person or a party to a conciliation agreement. The court 123 may grant such appropriate relief to any such intervening party as is authorized to be granted to a 124 plaintiff in a civil action under § 36-96.18.
