61 Any such mental health professional shall comply with any workers' compensation guidelines for 62 approved medical providers, including guidelines on release of past or contemporaneous medical 63 records.

64 C. Whenever liability to pay compensation under this section is contested by the employer, the 65 employer shall file with the Commission, on or before the thirtieth day after the employer has received a 66 written notice of claim, a notice in accordance with a form prescribed by the chairman of the 67 Commission stating that the right to compensation is contested, the name of the claimant, the name of 68 the employer, the date of the alleged injury, and the specific grounds on which the right to 69 compensation is contested. The employer shall send a copy of the notice to the employee. If the 70 employer or the employer's attorney fails to file the notice contesting liability on or before the thirtieth
71 day after receiving the written notice of claim, the employer shall commence payment of compensation 72 for such injury on or before the thirtieth day after receiving the written notice of claim, but the 73 employer may contest the employee's right to receive compensation on any grounds or the extent of the 74 employee's disability within 180 days from the receipt of the written notice of claim and any benefits 75 paid during the 180 days shall be considered payments without prejudice, provided the employer shall 76 not be required to commence payment of compensation when the written notice of claim has not been 77 properly served or when the written notice of claim fails to include a warning that the employer (i) if 78 the employer has commenced payment for the alleged injury on or before the thirtieth day after 79 receiving a written notice of claim, shall be precluded from contesting liability unless a notice 80 contesting liability is filed within 180 days from the receipt of the written notice of claim and (ii) shall 81 be conclusively presumed to have accepted the compensability of the alleged injury unless the employer 82 either files a notice contesting liability on or before the thirtieth day after receiving a written notice of 83 claim or commences payment for the alleged injury on or before such thirtieth day. An employer shall 84 be entitled, if the employer prevails, to reimbursement from the claimant of any compensation paid by 85 the employer on and after the date the Commission receives written notice from the employer or the 86 employer's legal representative, in accordance with the form prescribed by the chairman of the 87 Commission, stating that the right to compensation is contested. Notwithstanding the provisions of this 88 subsection, an employer who fails to contest liability for an alleged injury on or before the thirtieth day
89 after receiving a written notice of claim and who fails to commence payment for the alleged injury on 90 or before such thirtieth day, shall be conclusively presumed to have accepted the compensability of the 91 alleged injury. If an employer has opted to post an address of where notice of a claim for compensation 92 by an employee shall be sent, the 30-day period set forth in this subsection shall begin on the date when 93 such employer receives written notice of a claim for compensation at such posted address.

94 D. Notwithstanding any provision of this title, workers' compensation benefits for any 95 law-enforcement officer or firefighter payable pursuant to this section shall (i) include any combination 96 of medical treatment prescribed by a board-certified psychiatrist or a licensed psychologist, temporary 97 total incapacity benefits under § 65.2-500 and temporary partial incapacity benefits under § 65.2-502
98 and (ii) be provided for a maximum of 52 weeks from the date of diagnosis. No medical treatment, 99 temporary total incapacity benefits under § 65.2-500 or temporary partial incapacity benefits under 100 § 65.2-502 shall be awarded beyond four years from the date of the qualifying event that formed the 101 basis for the claim for benefits under this section. The weekly benefits received by a law-enforcement 102 officer or a firefighter pursuant to § 65.2-500 or 65.2-502, when combined with other benefits including 103 contributory and noncontributory retirement benefits, Social Security benefits, benefits under a long-term 104 or short-term disability plan, but not including payments for medical care, shall not exceed the average 105 weekly wage paid to such law-enforcement officer or firefighter.

106 E. No employer of a law-enforcement officer or fire marshal with police powers as set forth in 107 §§ 27-34.2 and 27-34.2:1 shall discharge, discipline, discriminate against, or otherwise penalize a 108 law-enforcement officer or fire marshal solely for seeking or receiving mental health care services or 109 surrendering his firearm, ammunition, or electronic defense weapon used in the performance of the 110 official duties to the employer during the time he receives mental health care services. The provisions of 111 this subsection shall not be applicable to a law-enforcement officer or fire marshal who (i) seeks or 112 receives mental health care services to avoid disciplinary action by his employer or (ii) refuses to 113 submit himself to an examination as provided in this section. Prior to returning to a surrendered 114 firearm, ammunition, or electronic defense weapon used in the performance of the official duties, the 115 employer shall request the law-enforcement officer or fire marshal to submit to an examination by a 116 mental health professional. The examination shall be performed to determine whether the 117 law-enforcement officer or fire marshal is ready to report for official duty and shall be paid for by the 118 employer.

119 F. No later than September 1, 2020, the Department of Criminal Justice Services and the Department 120 of Fire Programs shall develop a model critical incident and peer support policy to support the mental 121 health care and wellness of law-enforcement officers and firefighters.

122 G. No later than January 1, 2021, each employer of law-enforcement officers or firefighters shall (i)
123 adopt and maintain a written policy that meets or exceeds the standards of the model critical incident
124 and peer support policy developed pursuant to subsection F, (ii) make peer support available to such 125 law-enforcement officers and firefighters, and (iii) refer a law-enforcement officer or firefighter seeking 126 mental health care services to a mental health professional.

127 H. Each police basic training program conducted or administered by the Department of State Police 128 or a municipal police department in the Commonwealth shall provide, in consultation with the 129 Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, resilience and self-care technique
130 training for any individual who begins basic training as a law-enforcement officer, on or after July 1, 131 2020.

132 I. In consultation with the Department of Behavioral Health and Developmental Services, the 133 Department of Fire Programs and any other state or municipal entity providing training to a firefighter 134 shall provide resilience and self-care technique training for any individual who begins initial training as 135 a firefighter on or after July 1, 2020.
