SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 18

AMENDMENT IN THE NATURE OF A SUBSTITUTE

(Proposed by the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections on February 4, 2020)

(Patrons Prior to Substitute—Senators Barker, Cosgrove [SJR 12], and Hanger [SJR 70])

Proposing an amendment to Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia and proposing an amendment to the Constitution of Virginia by adding in Article II a section numbered 6-A, relating to apportionment; Virginia Redistricting Commission.

WHEREAS, proposed amendments to the Constitution of Virginia, hereinafter set forth, were agreed to by a majority of the members elected to each of the two houses of the General Assembly at the regular session of 2019 and referred to this, the next regular session held after the 2019 general election of members of the House of Delegates, as required by the Constitution of Virginia; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the following amendments to the Constitution of Virginia be, and the same hereby are, proposed in conformity with the provisions of Section 1 of Article XII of the Constitution of Virginia, namely:

Amend Section 6 of Article II of the Constitution of Virginia and amend the Constitution of Virginia by adding in Article II a section numbered 6-A as follows:

ARTICLE II

FRANCHISE AND OFFICERS

Section 6. Apportionment.

Members of the House of Representatives of the United States and members of the Senate and of the House of Delegates of the General Assembly shall be elected from electoral districts established by the General Assembly pursuant to Section 6-A of this Constitution. Every electoral district shall be composed of contiguous and compact territory and shall be so constituted as to give, as nearly as is practicable, representation in proportion to the population of the district. Every electoral district shall be drawn in accordance with the requirements of federal and state laws that address racial and ethnic fairness, including the Equal Protection Clause of the Fourteenth Amendment to the Constitution of the United States and provisions of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, and judicial decisions interpreting such laws. Districts shall provide, where practicable, opportunities for racial and ethnic communities to elect candidates of their choice.

The General Assembly shall reapportion the Commonwealth shall be reapportioned into electoral districts in accordance with this section and Section 6-A in the year 2011 2021 and every ten years thereafter.

Any such decennial reapportionment law shall take effect immediately and not be subject to the limitations contained in Article IV, Section 13, of this Constitution.

The districts delineated in the decennial reapportionment law shall be implemented for the November general election for the United States House of Representatives, Senate, or House of Delegates, respectively, that is held immediately prior to the expiration of the term being served in the year that the reapportionment law is required to be enacted. A member in office at the time that a decennial redistricting law is enacted shall complete his term of office and shall continue to represent the district from which he was elected for the duration of such term of office so long as he does not move his residence from the district from which he was elected. Any vacancy occurring during such term shall be filled from the same district that elected the member whose vacancy is being filled.

Section 6-A. Virginia Redistricting Commission.

(a) In the year 2020 and every ten years thereafter, the Virginia Redistricting Commission (the Commission) shall be convened for the purpose of establishing districts for the United States House of Representatives and for the Senate and the House of Delegates of the General Assembly pursuant to Article II, Section 6 of this Constitution.

(b) The Commission shall consist of sixteen commissioners who shall be selected in accordance with the provisions of this subsection.

88 House of Delegates of the General Assembly no later than 45 days following the receipt of census data
89 and shall submit to the General Assembly plans for districts for the United States House of 90 Representatives no later than 60 days following the receipt of census data or by the first day of July of 91 that year, whichever occurs later.

92 (1) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the United States House of
93 Representatives, a plan shall receive affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members and 94 six of the eight citizen members.

95 (2) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the Senate, a plan shall receive
96 affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members, including at least three of the four
97 legislative members who are members of the Senate, and at least six of the eight citizen members.

98 (3) To be submitted as a proposed plan for districts for members of the House of Delegates, a plan
99 shall receive affirmative votes of at least six of the eight legislative members, including at least three of 100 the four legislative members who are members of the House of Delegates, and at least six of the eight
101 citizen members.

102 (e) Plans for districts for the Senate and the House of Delegates shall be embodied in and voted on 103 as a single bill. The vote on any bill embodying a plan for districts shall be taken in accordance with 104 the provisions of Article IV, Section 11 of this Constitution, except that no amendments shall be
105 permitted. Such bills shall not be subject to the provisions contained in Article V, Section 6 of this 106 Constitution.

107 (f) Within fifteen days of receipt of a plan for districts, the General Assembly shall take a vote on the
108 bill embodying that plan in accordance with the provisions of subsection (e). If the General Assembly
109 fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the Commission shall submit a new plan for districts to the 110 General Assembly within fourteen days of the General Assembly's failure to adopt the bill. The General
111 Assembly shall take a vote on the bill embodying such plan within seven days of receipt of the plan. If 112 the General Assembly fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the districts shall be established by the 113 Supreme Court of Virginia.

114 (g) If the Commission fails to submit a plan for districts by the deadline set forth in subsection (d),
115 the Commission shall have fourteen days following its initial failure to submit a plan to the General
116 Assembly. If the Commission fails to submit a plan for districts to the General Assembly by this
117 deadline, the districts shall be established by the Supreme Court of Virginia.

118 If the Commission submits a plan for districts within fourteen days following its initial failure to 119 submit a plan, the General Assembly shall take a vote on the bill embodying such plan within seven 120 days of its receipt. If the General Assembly fails to adopt such bill by this deadline, the districts shall be 121 established by the Supreme Court of Virginia.

122 (h) All meetings of the Commission shall be open to the public. Prior to proposing any redistricting
123 plans and prior to voting on redistricting plans, the Commission shall hold at least three public
124 hearings in different parts of the Commonwealth to receive and consider comments from the public.
125 (i) All records and documents of the Commission, or any individual or group performing delegated 126 functions of or advising the Commission, related to the Commission's work, including internal 127 communications and communications from outside parties, shall be considered public information.
