8. Fiscal Implications: The proposed legislation authorizes the Virginia Workers' Compensation Commission (VWC) to establish an Ombudsman program to provide neutral educational information and assistance to persons who are not represented by an attorney, including those persons who have claims pending or docketed before the VWC. The ombudsman shall be an attorney licensed by the Virginia State Bar, in active status, and in good standing. The ombudsman and any Ombudsman program personnel shall carry out their duties with impartiality and shall not serve as an advocate for any person or provide legal advice.

The estimated fiscal impact of the proposed legislation is $335,458 in fiscal year 2021 and $294,458 in fiscal year 2022 and subsequent fiscal years. The estimated cost of the Ombudsman program in fiscal year 2021 includes the salary and benefits for an ombudsman ($157,660) and an assistant ombudsman ($94,458), including $42,340 in ongoing nonpersonal costs to manage the program. The VWC is expected to incur one-time costs of $41,000 in fiscal year 2021 to pay for the program's nonpersonal expenses, including furniture, equipment, and office reconfigurations.
