4. Title: Law-enforcement officer; failure to intervene in an excessive use of force; penalties.

5. Summary: The proposed legislation requires that any law-enforcement officer who witnesses another law-enforcement officer engaging or attempting to engage in the use of excessive force against another person shall intervene, when such intervention is when such intervention is feasible, to end the excessive use or attempted excessive use of force, or to prevent the further excessive use of force. It also requires a law-enforcement officer to render aid, as circumstances objectively permit, to any person injured as the result of such excessive use of force.

The proposed legislation also requires any law-enforcement officer who intervenes, or who witnesses another law-enforcement officer engaging or attempting to engage in the use of excessive force against another person, to report such intervention or excessive use of force in accordance with the law-enforcement officer's employing agency's policies and procedures for reporting misconduct committed by a law-enforcement officer. The proposed legislation also states that no employing agency shall retaliate, threaten to retaliate, or take or threaten to take any disciplinary action against a law-enforcement officer who intervenes or makes a report pursuant to this subsection.

The proposed legislation also states that in addition to any other penalty authorized by law, any law-enforcement officer who knowingly violates the provisions of this chapter shall be subject to disciplinary action, including dismissal, demotion, suspension, or transfer of the law-enforcement officer or decertification as provided in subsection D of § 15.2-1707 (decertification of law-enforcement officers).
