1. Bill Number: HB5061

House of Origin	<input checked="" type="checkbox"/>	Introduced	<input type="checkbox"/>	Substitute	<input type="checkbox"/>	Engrossed
Second House	<input type="checkbox"/>	In Committee	<input type="checkbox"/>	Substitute	<input type="checkbox"/>	Enrolled

2. Patron: Kory

3. Committee: House Committee on Public Safety

4. Title: School security officers and school resource officers; training; students with disabilities.

5. Summary: The proposed legislation requires the compulsory minimum training standards for school security officers and school resource officers to include identifying and working with students with intellectual and physical disabilities, including exercising the appropriate level of caution and understanding during interactions with such students and employing condition-appropriate de-escalation techniques with such students, when necessary. The bill contains an emergency clause making it effective immediately upon passage.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: No.

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Preliminary (see Item 8 below).

8. Fiscal Implications: The Department of Criminal Justice Services does not expect a fiscal impact as a result of the proposed legislation because the current training standards for school resource officers and school security officers already incorporate the topics specified in the proposed legislation.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: the Department of Criminal Justice Services, local school districts.

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
