102 A. ~~The~~ No landlord may accept full or partial payment of rent, as well as any damages, money 103 judgment, award of attorney fees, and court costs, and receive an order of possession from a court of 104 competent jurisdiction pursuant to an unlawful detainer action filed under Article 13 (§ 8.01-124 et seq.)
105 of Chapter 3 of Title 8.01 and proceed with eviction under ~~§ 55.1-1255~~ 55.1-1245, unless there are 106 bases for the entry of an order of possession other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful 107 detainer action filed by the landlord. However, a landlord may accept partial payment of rent and other 108 amounts owed by the tenant to the landlord and receive an order of possession from a court of 109 competent jurisdiction pursuant to an unlawful detainer action filed under Article 13 (§ 8.01-124 et seq.)
110 of Chapter 3 of Title 8.01 and proceed with eviction for nonpayment of rent under § 55.1-1245, 111 provided that the landlord has stated in a written notice to the tenant that any and all amounts owed to 112 the landlord by the tenant, including payment of any rent, damages, money judgment, award of attorney 113 fees, and court costs, would be accepted with reservation and would not constitute a waiver of the 114 landlord's right to evict the tenant from the dwelling unit. Such notice may be included in a written 115 termination notice given by the landlord to the tenant in accordance with § 55.1-1245, and if so 116 included, nothing herein shall be construed by a court of law or otherwise as requiring such landlord to 117 give the tenant subsequent written notice. Such notice shall include the following language: "Any partial 118 payment of rent made before or after a judgment of possession is ordered will not prevent your landlord
119 from taking action to evict you. However, full payment of all amounts you owe the landlord, including 120 all rent as contracted for in the rental agreement that is owed to the landlord as of the date payment is 121 made, as well as any damages, money judgment, award of attorney fees, and court costs made at least 48 hours before the scheduled eviction will cause the eviction to be canceled, unless there are bases for the entry of an order of possession other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord." If the landlord elects to seek possession of the dwelling unit pursuant to § 8.01-126, the landlord shall provide a copy of this notice to the court for service to the tenant, along with the summons for unlawful detainer. If the dwelling unit is a public housing unit or other housing unit subject to regulation by the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, nothing in this section shall be construed to require that written notice be given to any public agency paying a portion of the rent under the rental agreement. If a landlord enters into a new written rental agreement with the tenant prior to eviction, an order of possession obtained prior to the entry of such new rental agreement is not enforceable.

B. The tenant may pay or present to the court a redemption tender for payment of all rent due and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, at or before the first return date on an action for unlawful detainer. For purposes of this section, "redemption tender" means a written commitment to pay all rent due and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, by a local government or nonprofit entity within 10 days of such return date.

C. If the tenant presents a redemption tender to the court at the return date, the court shall continue the action for unlawful detainer for 10 days following the return date for payment to the landlord of all rent due and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, and dismiss the action upon such payment. Should the landlord not receive full payment of all rent due and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, within 10 days of the return date, the court shall, without further evidence, grant to the landlord judgment for all amounts due and immediate possession of the premises. For purposes of this section, "redemption tender" means a written commitment to pay all rent due and owing as of the return date, including late charges, attorney fees, and court costs, by a local government or nonprofit entity within 10 days of such return date.

D. C. In cases of unlawful detainer, a tenant, or any third party on behalf of a tenant, may pay the landlord or the landlord's attorney or pay into court all (i) rent due and owing as of the court date as contracted for in the rental agreement, (ii) other charges and fees as contracted for in the rental agreement, (iii) late charges contracted for in the rental agreement and as provided by law, (iv) reasonable attorney fees as contracted for in the rental agreement or as provided by law, and (v) costs of the proceeding as provided by law, at which time the unlawful detainer proceeding shall be dismissed, unless there are bases for the entry of an order of possession other than nonpayment of rent stated in the unlawful detainer action filed by the landlord.

D. If such payment has not been made as of the return date for the unlawful detainer, the tenant, or any third party on behalf of the tenant, may pay to the landlord, the landlord's attorney, or the court all amounts claimed on the summons in unlawful detainer, including current rent, damages, late charges, costs of court, any civil recovery, attorney fees, and sheriff fees, including the sheriff fees for service of the writ of eviction if payment is made after issuance of the writ, no less than two business days 48 hours before the date and time scheduled by the officer to whom the writ of eviction has been delivered to be executed. Upon receipt of such payment, the landlord, or the landlord's attorney or managing agent, shall promptly notify the officer to whom the writ of eviction has been delivered to be executed that the execution of the writ of eviction shall be canceled. If the landlord has actual knowledge that the tenant has made such payment and willfully fails to provide such notification, such act may be deemed to be a violation of § 55.1-1243. In addition, the landlord shall transmit to the court a notice of satisfaction of any money judgment in accordance with § 8.01-454.

E. Upon receiving a written request from the tenant, the landlord, or the landlord's attorney or managing agent, shall provide to the tenant a written statement of all amounts owed by the tenant to the landlord so that the tenant may pay the exact amount necessary for the tenant to exercise his right of redemption pursuant to this section. Any payments made by the tenant shall be by cashier's check, certified check, or money order. A tenant may invoke the rights granted in this section no more than one time during any 12-month period of continuous residency in the dwelling unit, regardless of the term of the rental agreement or any renewal term of the rental agreement. A court shall not issue a writ of eviction on any judgment for possession that has expired or has been marked as satisfied.

2. That the Department of Housing and Community Development shall convene a stakeholder group consisting of landlords, property managers, and tenants, as well as attorneys knowledgeable of the Virginia Residential Landlord and Tenant Act (§ 55.1-1200 et seq. of the Code of Virginia) and other relevant provisions of the Code of Virginia related to eviction procedures in residential landlord and tenant cases, to provide input to the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development (the Director) regarding the development of the sample termination notice required to be developed by the Director pursuant to § 36-139 of the Code of Virginia, as amended by this act.
