Stop signs treated as yield signs for bicyclists. 24 Notwithstanding any other provision of law, the operator of a bicycle may treat a stop sign as a 25 yield sign if the operator (i) exercises due care, (ii) determines that it is safe to proceed, and (iii) yields the right of way to the driver of any other vehicle approaching the intersection when the approaching 26 27 vehicle is not required to stop. 28 § 46.2-905. When overtaking and passing another vehicle proceeding in the same direction; 35 2. When preparing for a left turn at an intersection or into a private road or driveway; 36 3.
