HOUSE BILL NO. 2326

Offered January 22, 2021

A BILL to amend and reenact § 15.2-914, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia, relating to regulation of child care services in localities.

Patrons—Williams Graves, Simonds, Hayes, Kory, Levine and Rasoul

Referred to Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 15.2-914, as it is currently effective and as it shall become effective, of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 15.2-914. (Effective until July 1, 2021) Regulation of child-care services and facilities in cities and certain counties.

Any (i) county that has adopted the urban county executive form of government, or (ii) city adjacent to a county that has adopted the urban county executive form of government, or (iii) city which is completely surrounded by such county may by ordinance provide for the regulation and licensing of persons who provide child-care services for compensation and for the regulation and licensing of child-care facilities. "Child-care services" means provision of regular care, protection and guidance to one or more children not related by blood or marriage while such children are separated from their parent, guardian or legal custodian in a dwelling not the residence of the child during a part of the day for at least four days of a calendar week. "Child-care facilities" includes any commercial or residential structure which that is used to provide child-care services.

Such local ordinance shall not require the regulation or licensing of any child-care facility that is licensed by the Commonwealth and such ordinance shall not require the regulation or licensing of any facility operated by a religious institution as exempted from licensure by § 63.2-1716.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, such local ordinances shall not be more extensive in scope than comparable state regulations applicable to family day homes. Such local ordinances may regulate the possession and storage of firearms, ammunition, or components or combination thereof at child-care facilities and may be more extensive in scope than comparable state statutes or regulations applicable to family day homes. Local regulations shall not affect the manner of construction or materials to be used in the erection, alteration, repair or use of a residential dwelling.

Such local ordinances may require that persons who provide child-care services shall provide certification from the Central Criminal Records Exchange and a national criminal background check, in accordance with §§ 19.2-389 and 19.2-392.02, that such persons have not been convicted of any offense involving the sexual molestation of children or the physical or sexual abuse or rape of a child or any barrier crime defined in § 19.2-392.02, and such ordinances may require that persons who provide child-care services shall provide certification from the central registry of the Department of Social Services that such persons have not been the subject of a founded complaint of abuse or neglect. If an applicant is denied licensure because of any adverse information appearing on a record obtained from the Central Criminal Records Exchange, the national criminal background check, or the Department of Social Services, the applicant shall be provided a copy of the information upon which that denial was based.

§ 15.2-914. (Effective July 1, 2021) Regulation of child-care services and facilities in cities and certain counties.

Any (i) county that has adopted the urban county executive form of government, or (ii) city adjacent to a county that has adopted the urban county executive form of government, or (iii) city which is completely surrounded by such county may by ordinance provide for the regulation and licensing of persons who provide child-care services for compensation and for the regulation and licensing of child-care facilities. "Child-care services" means provision of regular care, protection and guidance to one or more children not related by blood or marriage while such children are separated from their parent, guardian or legal custodian in a dwelling not the residence of the child during a part of the day for at least four days of a calendar week. "Child-care facilities" includes any commercial or residential structure which that is used to provide child-care services.

Such local ordinance shall not require the regulation or licensing of any child-care facility that is licensed by the Commonwealth and such ordinance shall not require the regulation or licensing of any facility operated by a religious institution as exempted from licensure by § 22.1-289.031.

Except as otherwise provided in this section, such local ordinances shall not be more extensive in scope than comparable state regulations applicable to family day homes. Such local ordinances may

59 regulate the possession and storage of firearms, ammunition, or components or combination thereof at 60 child-care facilities and may be more extensive in scope than comparable state statutes or regulations
61 applicable to family day homes. Local regulations shall not affect the manner of construction or 62 materials to be used in the erection, alteration, repair or use of a residential dwelling.

63 Such local ordinances may require that persons who provide child-care services shall provide
64 certification from the Central Criminal Records Exchange and a national criminal background check, in
65 accordance with §§ 19.2-389 and 19.2-392.02, that such persons have not been convicted of any offense
66 involving the sexual molestation of children or the physical or sexual abuse or rape of a child or any 67 barrier crime defined in § 19.2-392.02, and such ordinances may require that persons who provide
68 child-care services shall provide certification from the central registry of the Department of Social 69 Services that such persons have not been the subject of a founded complaint of abuse or neglect. If an 70 applicant is denied licensure because of any adverse information appearing on a record obtained from
71 the Central Criminal Records Exchange, the national criminal background check, or the Department of 72 Social Services, the applicant shall be provided a copy of the information upon which that denial was 73 based.
