Referred to Committee for Courts of Justice

§ 19.2-392.1. Statement of policy.

The General Assembly finds that arrest records can be a hindrance to an innocent citizen's ability to obtain employment, an education, and to obtain credit. It further finds that the police and court records of those of its citizens who have been absolutely pardoned for crimes for which they have been unjustly convicted, or who have demonstrated their rehabilitation, can also be a hindrance. This chapter is intended to protect such persons from the unwarranted damage ~~which~~ that may occur as a result of being arrested and convicted.

§ 19.2-392.2. Expungement of police and court records.

A. If a person is charged with the commission of a crime or any offense defined in Title 18.2, and

The provisions of this subsection shall not apply to any person who has been convicted of any criminal offense involving violence. In order to qualify under this subsection, the petitioner shall have no pending charges and shall have completed all terms of sentencing and probation, including successful completion of any drug or alcohol treatment program. The Department of State Police shall maintain a record of any expungement granted pursuant to this subsection. Any conviction that is expunged under this subsection shall be considered a prior conviction for purposes of prosecution of any subsequent offense for which such prior conviction statutorily enhances punishment and considered a prior criminal record with respect to subdivision G 2.

C. If any person whose name or other identification has been used without his consent or authorization by another person who has been charged or arrested using such name or identification, he may file a petition with the court disposing of the charge for relief pursuant to this section. Such person shall not be required to pay any fees for the filing of a petition under this subsection. A petition filed under this subsection shall include one complete set of the petitioner's fingerprints obtained from a law-enforcement agency.

~~C.~~ D. The petition with a copy of the warrant or indictment if reasonably available shall be filed in the circuit court of the county or city in which the case was disposed of ~~by acquittal or being otherwise dismissed~~ and shall contain, except where not reasonably available, the date of arrest and the name of the arresting agency. Where this information is not reasonably available, the petition shall state the reason for such unavailability. The petition shall further state the specific criminal charge or conviction to be expunged, the date of final disposition of the charge or conviction as set forth in the petition, the petitioner's date of birth, and the full name used by the petitioner at the time of arrest. *If a petitioner has any outstanding fines or costs, such fines or costs shall be listed in the petition. INTRODUCED

HB865

59 ~~E. F.~~ The petitioner shall obtain from a law-enforcement agency one complete set of the petitioner's 60 fingerprints and shall provide that agency with a copy of the petition for expungement. The 61 law-enforcement agency shall submit the set of fingerprints to the Central Criminal Records Exchange 62 (CCRE) with a copy of the petition for expungement attached. The CCRE shall forward under seal to 63 the court a copy of the petitioner's criminal history, a copy of the source documents that resulted in the 64 CCRE entry that the petitioner wishes to expunge, and the set of fingerprints. Upon completion of the 65 hearing, the court shall return the fingerprint card to the petitioner. If no hearing was conducted, upon 66 the entry of an order of expungement or an order denying the petition for expungement, the court shall 67 cause the fingerprint card to be destroyed unless, within 30 days of the date of the entry of the order,

73 the arrest, charge, or conviction of the petitioner causes or may cause circumstances ~~which~~ that 74 constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner, it shall enter an order requiring the expungement of the 75 police and court records, including electronic records, relating to the arrest, charge, or conviction.
76 Otherwise, it shall deny the petition.

77 2. However, if the petitioner has no prior criminal record and the arrest, charge, or conviction was 78 for a misdemeanor violation, the petitioner shall be entitled, in the absence of good cause shown to the 79 contrary by the Commonwealth, to expungement of the police and court records relating to the arrest,
80 charge, or conviction, and the court shall enter an order of expungement.

81 3. If the attorney for the Commonwealth of the county or city in which the petition is filed (i) gives 82 written notice to the court pursuant to subsection ~~D~~ E that he does not object to the petition and (ii)
83 when the arrest or charge to be expunged is a felony, stipulates in such written notice that the continued
84 existence and possible dissemination of information relating to the arrest or charge of the petitioner 85 causes or may cause circumstances which constitute a manifest injustice to the petitioner, the court may 86 enter an order of expungement without conducting a hearing.

87 The court may also reduce or discharge any fines or costs based on the petitioner's financial 88 condition or for other good cause shown when entering an order of expungement, or require the 89 petitioner to pay any outstanding fines or costs prior to entering an order of expungement.

90 ~~G. H.~~ The Commonwealth shall be made party defendant to the proceeding. Any party aggrieved by 91 the decision of the court may appeal, as provided by law in civil cases.

93 court finds that the person arrested or charged is not the person named in the summons, warrant,
94 indictment, or presentment, the court dismissing the charge shall, upon motion of the person improperly 95 arrested or charged, enter an order requiring expungement of the police and court records relating to the 96 charge. Such order shall contain a statement that the dismissal and expungement are ordered pursuant to 97 this subsection and shall be accompanied by the complete set of the petitioner's fingerprints filed with 98 his petition. Upon the entry of such order, it shall be treated as provided in subsection ~~K~~ L.

100 2.2-402 of an absolute pardon for the commission of a crime that a person did not commit, the court 101 shall enter an order requiring expungement of the police and court records relating to the charge and 102 conviction. Such order shall contain a statement that the expungement is ordered pursuant to this 103 subsection. Upon the entry of such order, it shall be treated as provided in subsection ~~K~~ L.

104 ~~J. K.~~ Upon receiving a copy of a writ vacating a conviction pursuant to § 19.2-327.5 or 19.2-327.13,
