81 not in the same week, then the earnings for the remainder of the 52 weeks shall be divided by the 82 number of weeks remaining after the time so lost has been deducted. When the employment prior to the 83 injury extended over a period of less than 52 weeks, the method of dividing the earnings during that 84 period by the number of weeks and parts thereof during which the employee earned wages shall be 85 followed, provided that results fair and just to both parties will be thereby obtained. When, by reason of

89 the injury was being earned by a person of the same grade and character employed in the same class of 90 employment in the same locality or community.

91 b. When for exceptional reasons the foregoing would be unfair either to the employer or employee, 92 such other method of computing average weekly wages may be resorted to as will most nearly 93 approximate the amount which the injured employee would be earning were it not for the injury.

102 members on duty or in training of the United States Civil Defense Corps of the Commonwealth or their
