

1 VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

2 An Act to amend and reenact § 19.2-3.1 of the Code of Virginia, relating to personal appearance by
3 two-way electronic video and audio communication; entry of plea or nolle prosequi or dismissal;
4 revocation proceedings.

5 [S 1242]

6 Approved

7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:8 1. That § 19.2-3.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:9 § 19.2-3.1. Personal appearance by two-way electronic video and audio communication;
10 standards.

11 A. Where an appearance is required or permitted before a magistrate, intake officer or, prior to trial,
12 before a judge, the appearance may be by (i) personal appearance before the magistrate, intake officer,
13 or judge or (ii) use of two-way electronic video and audio communication. With the consent of the court
14 and all parties, an appearance in a court may be made by two-way electronic video and audio
15 communication for the purpose of (i) entry of a plea of guilty or nolo contendere and the related
16 sentencing of the defendant charged with a misdemeanor or felony, (ii) entry of a nolle prosequi or 17 dismissal, or (iii) a revocation proceeding pursuant to § 19.2-306.

18 If two-way electronic video and audio communication is used, a magistrate, intake officer, or judge
19 may exercise all powers conferred by law and all communications and proceedings shall be conducted in 20 the same manner as if the appearance were in person. If two-way electronic video and audio
21 communication is available for use by a district court for the conduct of a hearing to determine bail or 22 to determine representation by counsel, the court shall use such communication in any such proceeding
23 that would otherwise require the transportation of a person from outside the jurisdiction of the court in 24 order to appear in person before the court. Any documents transmitted between the magistrate, intake
25 officer, or judge and the person appearing before the magistrate, intake officer, or judge may be 26 transmitted by electronically transmitted facsimile process or other electronic method. The facsimile or 27 other electronically generated document may be served or executed by the officer or person to whom 28 sent, and returned in the same manner, and with the same force, effect, authority, and liability as an 29 original document. All signatures thereon shall be treated as original signatures.

30 B. Any two-way electronic video and audio communication system used for an appearance shall meet
31 the following standards:

32 1. The persons communicating must simultaneously see and speak to one another;

33 2. The signal transmission must be live, real time;

34 3. The signal transmission must be secure from interception through lawful means by anyone other 35 than the persons communicating; and

36 4. Any other specifications as may be promulgated by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court.

37 C. Nothing in this section shall be construed as requiring a locality to purchase a two-way electronic 38 video and audio communication system. Any decision to purchase such a system is at the discretion of 39 the locality.

ENROLLED

SB1242ER