

1 VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY — CHAPTER

2 An Act to amend and reenact § 17.1-128 of the Code of Virginia, relating to civil cases; recovery of 3 certain costs.

4 [H 1327]

5 Approved

6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 17.1-128 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 17.1-128. Recording evidence and incidents of trial in certain civil cases and cost thereof; cost 9 of transcripts; preservation of original notes or records; certified transcript prima facie correct.

10 In all civil cases, the court or judge trying the case may by order entered of record provide for the 11 recording verbatim of the evidence and incidents of trial either by a court reporter or by mechanical or 12 electronic devices approved by the court. The expense of reporting and recording the trial of a civil case
13 shall be paid by the litigants in the manner and in the proportion as the court may in its discretion
14 direct. A transcript of the record, when required by any party, shall be paid for by such party. The court 15 on appeal may provide that such cost may, in civil cases, be reimbursed to the party prevailing. The 16 court shall not allow a defendant convicted of a crime from which the civil matter arose to recover such 17 cost from the victim, as defined in § 19.2-11.01, of such crime. The failure to secure the services of a 18 reporter, or the failure to have the case reported or recorded for any other reason, shall not affect the 19 proceeding or trial. The reporter or other individual designated to report and record the trial shall 20 preserve the original shorthand notes or other original records for not less than five years. The transcript 21 in any case certified by the reporter or other individual designated to report and record the trial shall be 22 deemed prima facie a correct statement of the evidence and incidents of trial.

23 The administration of this section shall be under the direction of the Supreme Court of Virginia.
