SENATE RESOLUTION NO. 29

Celebrating the life of Joyce Evelyn Drumgoole Bland.

Agreed to by the Senate, March 3, 2022

WHEREAS, Joyce Evelyn Drumgoole Bland, an esteemed public servant and beloved member of the Lawrenceville community, died on January 15, 2022; and

WHEREAS, Joyce Bland graduated from James Solomon Russell High School in Lawrenceville, where she met her husband and soulmate Charles; and

WHEREAS, Joyce Bland lived for several years in Brooklyn before returning to the Commonwealth to take a position with the Brunswick County Sheriff's Office, where she ultimately retired after years of exemplary service as a dispatcher; and

WHEREAS, an active and engaged member of the community, Joyce Bland served on the Lawrenceville Town Council from September 1992 until January 2022, regularly participated in events with her local branch of the NAACP, and often worked the polls during elections; and

WHEREAS, admired for her ability as a stylist and chef, Joyce Bland was always impeccably dressed and prepared meals for her loved ones with great care and affection; and

WHEREAS, guided throughout her life by her faith, Joyce Bland enjoyed worship and fellowship with her community at Mason Grove Baptist Church in Valentines, where she attended church in her youth and later served as an usher, deacon, trustee, and pastor aide, as well as in the hospitality ministry; and

WHEREAS, preceded in death by her son Charles, Jr., Joyce Bland will be fondly remembered and dearly missed by her loving husband, Charles, Sr.; her children, Christy and Helen, and their families; and numerous other family members and friends; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED, That the Senate of Virginia hereby note with great sadness the loss of Joyce Evelyn Drumgoole Bland, whose kind and generous nature touched countless lives; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to the family of Joyce Evelyn Drumgoole Bland as an expression of the Senate of Virginia's respect for her memory.
