4. Title: Virginia Freedom of Information Act; disclosure of certain criminal records.

5. Summary: Provides that criminal investigative files relating to an ongoing criminal investigation or proceeding are excluded from the mandatory disclosure provisions, but may be disclosed by the custodian in his discretion except as provided in subsection E of § 2.2-3706.1 or where such disclosure is prohibited by law. Criminal investigative files related to a criminal investigation or proceeding that is not ongoing are excluded from the mandatory disclosure provisions of this chapter, but may be disclosed by the custodian in his discretion except as provided in subsection E of § 2.2-3706.1. Records shall be disclosed by request to (i) the victim, (ii) members of the victim's immediate family, if the victim is deceased, (iii) the victim's parent or guardian, if the victim is a minor and the parent or guardian is not a person of interest, or (iv) an attorney representing a petitioner in a petition for a writ of actual innocence.

Provides that no criminal investigative file or portion thereof shall be disclosed to any requester except (i) the victim, (ii) members of the victim's immediate family, if the victim is deceased, (iii) the victim's parent or guardian, if the victim is a minor and the parent or guardian is not a person of interest, or (iv) an attorney representing a petitioner in a petition for a writ of actual innocence, unless the public body has made reasonable efforts to notify any such individual of the request for such information. Upon notification of a request, such persons may file a petition in an appropriate court for an injunction to prevent disclosure of the records. The bill requires the court to consider certain information in making its determination and provides that a public body shall be prohibited from disclosing criminal investigative if the court awards an injunction. The public body shall not release information for 14 days after notification of the request to allow for a petition for injunction to be filed. If the public body receives notification of a petition within the 14 day period, they shall not release information until after the resulting disposition by the court.
