HOUSE RESOLUTION NO. 738

Offered June 15, 2022

Commending Breana Turner.

Patron—Subramanyam

WHEREAS, Breana Turner, a graduate student at Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University, was crowned the first winner of the Miss Virginia Volunteer Pageant in August of 2021; and

WHEREAS, Breana Turner has used her year of service as Miss Virginia Volunteer to advocate for the importance of women's health across the Commonwealth through her platform RAISE: Advocating for Women's Health; and

WHEREAS, Breana Turner's work reflects her belief that women's health is critical to the health of the broader community and extends past the absence of illness to include women's empowerment; and

WHEREAS, Breana Turner's achievements demonstrate her selfless and thoughtful commitment to the wellness of Virginians, and she has made many contributions to the Commonwealth during her year of service; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the House of Delegates, That Breana Turner hereby be commended for her accomplishments during her year of service as the first Miss Virginia Volunteer; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Breana Turner as an expression of the House of Delegates' admiration for her dedication to the health and wellness of communities throughout Virginia.
