62 "Special order" means a special order issued under § 10.1-1309.

63 SUPPLY CHAIN. —The term "supply chain" means the end-to-end process for producing and 64 transporting goods beginning at the point of origin through a point of distribution to the destination, 65 inclusive of suppliers, manufacturers, and vendors.

66 "Wood heater" means a wood stove, pellet stove, wood-fired hydronic heater, wood-burning 67 forced-air furnace, or masonry wood heater, any of which is solely designed for heating a home or a 68 business and with either (i) uncontrolled fine particulate matter with an aerodynamic diameter less than 69 or equal to 2.5 micrometers (PM2.5) emissions of less than 10 tons per year or with a maximum heat
70 input of less than 1,000,000 Btu/hr or (ii) uncontrolled fine particulate matter with an aerodynamic
71 diameter less than or equal to 10 micrometers (PM10) emissions of less than 15 tons per year or with a 72 maximum heat input of less than 1,000,000 Btu/hr.

73 §10.1-1307.06. Covered Business Entity Certification.

74 (A) All covered business entity engaging in the sale of new low emission or electric vehicle sales in 75 Virginia may file annual reports, beginning, due on July 1 of 2024 and each year thereafter to the 76 Virginia Secretary of Labor that include the following:

77 (1) a disclosure of the covered business entity's policies to prevent the use of forced labor by 78 the covered business entity, its direct suppliers, and its on-site service providers;

79 (2) to the best of the covered entities knowledge, the covered business entity has found no
80 instances of the use of forced labor by the covered business entity or has disclosed every known 81 instance of the use of forced labor in its manufacturing material supply chain.

82 (3) No parts or components of any part of any new electric or low emission vehicle sold in 83 the Commonwealth, including the battery, were produced, mined or assembled using forced labor.

84 (4) Any person who knowingly makes any false statement, representation or certification in 85 any certification filed pursuant to this section shall upon conviction be punished by a fine of not more 86 than $10,000, or by imprisonment for not more than six months or by both.

87 §10.1-1307.07. Lack of Supply Chain Remedies.

88 (A) The Attorney General or any citizen of the Commonwealth shall have standing to file a Writ of 89 Mandamus against the Air Pollution Control Board in the Virginia Supreme Court to suspend the 90 implementation of § 10.1-1307 and § 10.1-1307.04 of the Code of Virginia if there is sufficient evidence
91 that covered business entities cannot produce a sufficient supply of Electric or Low Emission Vehicles 92 in the Commonwealth to meet consumer demand. The Court when making its determination shall give 93 special consideration to the following evidence:

94 Projected demand of new of new vehicle sales for a calendar year

95 Projected supply of new vehicle production by manufacturers

96 Certifications of covered business entities pursuant to §10.1-1307.06

97 There shall be a rebuttable presumption that in the absence of certifications pursuant to 98 §10.1-1307.06 by covered business entities that electric vehicles sold in the Commonwealth contain 99 materials derived, produced or manufactured from or involving forced labor, and accordingly, any new 100 vehicles available for sale in the Commonwealth that lack such certification shall be excluded by the 101 Supreme Court as available supply to consumers of Low Emission or Electric vehicles in the 102 Commonwealth.

103 If such evidence exists, found by a preponderance of the evidence that a lack of supply of new 104 electric or low emission vehicles exists, the Supreme Court shall suspend the implementation of 105 §10.1-1307.04 of the Code of Virginia and any ancillary regulation or law until such a time as 106 necessary for covered businesses to make certifications pursuant to §10.1-1307.06 that new electric and 107 low emission vehicle sales in the Commonwealth of Virginia are produced with materials free of forced 108 labor.
