be adjudged disqualified, or be expelled, a new election to fill the vacancy shall be held on such day as the council may prescribe. Any vacancy occurring otherwise during the term for which such person was elected shall be filled by the council by the appointment of any one eligible to such office. A vacancy in the office of mayor shall be filled by the council from the electors of the town; and any member of the council may be eligible to fill such vacancy. [Repealed]

(5) A majority of the members of the council shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

(6) Each member of the council may receive a salary to be fixed by the council, payable at such times and in such manner as the council may direct; but the salary paid to any one member during any year shall not exceed the sum of one hundred dollars per annum. The mayor may receive a salary to be fixed by the council, payable in such manner and at such times as the council may direct, not to exceed the sum of five hundred dollars per annum; and such salary shall be in lieu of any fees he is entitled to enter up as part of the costs and receive in the trial of cases of violation of the ordinances of the town as hereinafter provided for.

(7) The mayor shall preside at the meetings of the council and perform such other duties as are prescribed by this charter and by general law, and such as may be imposed by the council consistent with his office. The mayor shall have no right to vote in the council, except in case of a tie ~~he the~~ mayor shall have the right to cast a vote to break the same by his vote; tie, but ~~he the~~ mayor shall have the right to veto as provided in § 1 (8) of this Article III. ~~He~~ The mayor shall have the following duties: to take care and see that the bylaws, ordinances, acts and resolutions of the council are faithfully executed and obeyed; and shall have and exercise all power and authority conferred by general law on mayors of towns not inconsistent with this charter. He shall be ex officio a conservator of the peace within the town and within one mile of its corporate limits; and shall have jurisdiction to issue process for and try all cases for the violation of the town ordinances, subject to an appeal to the Circuit Court of Prince William County, Virginia; and impose such punishment and/or fines as may be prescribed for violation of the same, and he shall have power to issue executions for all fines and costs imposed by him; or he may require an immediate payment thereof; and in default of such payment he may commit the defaulting party to the Prince William County Jail until such fine and costs shall be paid, such commitment, however, not to be for more than twelve months. He may release persons accused or convicted of the violation of a town ordinance upon the giving of sufficient bail to be fixed by him. He shall; to see that peace and good order are preserved and that persons and property within the town are protected. He shall; to authenticate by his signature such documents and instruments as the council, this charter, or the laws of this Commonwealth require. He shall; and from time to time recommend to the council such measures as he may deem seem needful for the welfare of the town.

(8) Every ordinance, or resolution having the effect of an ordinance, shall, before it becomes operative be presented to the mayor. If he approves, he shall sign it; but if not, he may return it The mayor may veto an ordinance or a resolution having the effect of an ordinance by transmitting it, with his objections the reasons for the veto in writing, to the town clerk who shall enter the reasons for the mayor's objections veto at length on the minute books book of the council. The council shall may thereupon proceed to reconsider such ordinance or resolution. If, after such consideration, two-thirds of all the members elected to the council shall agree to pass the ordinance or resolution, it shall become operative notwithstanding the objection veto of the mayor. In all such cases, the votes of members of the council upon such reconsideration and the names of the members voting for and against the ordinance or resolution shall be entered on the minute book of the council. If any ordinance or resolution having the effect of an ordinance shall not be returned by the mayor within five days (Sunday excepted) after it shall have been presented to him passage by the council, it shall become operative in like manner as if he had signed it without the mayor's signature, unless his the mayor's term of office or that of the council; shall expire expires within said five days.

(9) The council shall, as soon as practicable after qualification, and biennially thereafter following the regular municipal election, appoint one of its members as vice-mayor. The vice-mayor, during the absence or disability of the mayor, shall perform the duties and be vested with all the powers, authority, and jurisdiction; of the mayor except the power to veto; and in the event of a vacancy for any reason in the office of mayor, he shall act as mayor until a mayor is duly appointed by the Town council or is elected. The member of the council who shall be chosen vice-mayor shall continue to have all of the rights, privileges, powers, duties and obligations of ~~councilman~~ a council member even when performing the duties of mayor during the absence or disability of the mayor of the town.

(10) The council shall, by ordinance, fix the time for their regular meetings, which shall be held at least once a month. Special meetings may be called by the clerk at the instance of the mayor or any two members of the council in writing; and no other business shall be transacted at a special meeting except that stated in the call, unless all members be present and consent to the transaction of such other business. The meetings of the council shall be open to the public except when in the judgment of the council the public welfare shall require executive meetings consistent with the terms of the Virginia Freedom of Information Act (§ 2.2-3700 et seq. of the Code of Virginia) as then in effect.

(11) The council shall keep a minute book, in which the clerk shall note the proceedings of the council; and shall record proceedings at large on the minute book and keep the same properly indexed.

(12) The council may adopt rules for regulating its proceedings; ~~but no tax shall be levied, corporate debt contracted, or appropriation of money exceeding the sum of one hundred dollars be made, except by a recorded affirmative vote of a majority of all the members elected to the council.~~

(13) There shall be appointed by the council at its first meeting in ~~September~~ March, or as soon as practicable thereafter, a treasurer, who shall hold office for a term of two years. The council may provide a salary for the treasurer. ~~He~~ The treasurer shall give such bond, with surety and in such penalty as the council prescribes. ~~He~~ The treasurer shall receive all money belonging to the town; and keep correct accounts of all receipts from all sources and of all expenditures of all departments. ~~He~~ The treasurer shall be responsible for the collection of all taxes, license fees, levies and charges due to the town; and shall disburse the moneys of the town in the manner prescribed by the council as it may by ordinance direct.

(14) The treasurer shall make such reports and at such time as the council may prescribe. The books and accounts of the treasurer shall be examined and audited ~~at least once during the term for which he is elected by a competent accountant selected by the council; such examination and audit to be reported to the council in accordance with general law.~~

(15) The council may in its discretion designate the place of deposit of all town funds, consistent with state law, which shall be kept by the treasurer separate and apart from ~~his~~ the treasurer's personal funds.

(16) There shall be appointed by the council, at its first regular meeting in ~~September~~ March after its election, a clerk of the council, who need not be a resident of the town, and who shall hold office at the pleasure of the council. ~~He~~ The clerk shall attend the meetings of the council and keep its minutes and records and have charge of the corporate seal and shall attest the same. ~~He~~ The clerk shall keep all papers required to be kept by the council, shall publish such reports and ordinances as are required to be published, and shall perform such other duties as the council may from time to time require. ~~His~~ The clerk's compensation shall be fixed by the council. Any vacancy in this office shall be filled by the council.

(17) There shall be appointed by the council at its first regular meeting in ~~September~~ March or as soon as practicable thereafter, a town sergeant, who shall also be chief of police; and shall hold office at the pleasure of the council. ~~His~~ The town sergeant's duties shall be such as the council prescribes. ~~He~~ The town sergeant shall be vested with the powers of a conservator of the peace. ~~His~~ The town sergeant's compensation shall be fixed by the council.

(18) The council may appoint a trial justice for the town who shall serve at the pleasure of the council and until his successor is appointed by the council and qualifies. He shall be an attorney at law licensed to practice under the laws of the Commonwealth; but he need not be a resident of the town.

The trial justice is hereby vested with all the power, authority and jurisdiction and charged with all the duties within and for the town of Haymarket, and in criminal matters for one mile beyond the corporate limits thereof, which are or may hereafter be conferred upon the trial justice by the laws of the State of Virginia; so far as the same may be applicable; and not in conflict with the provisions of this charter; and any amendments of the trial justice laws of this State shall be considered as amendments also of this section of this charter if the same are applicable hereto.

Fees and costs shall be assessed by the trial justice and shall be collected as provided by the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices as the same shall now be or as hereby amended. All fees and costs collected by the said trial justice and all fines collected for violations of all laws and ordinances of the town shall be paid into the town treasury for the use and benefit of the town.

Removals may be taken; and appeals from the decisions of the trial justice may be taken; to the Circuit Court of Prince William County in the same manner; upon the same terms and shall be tried in the same way as removals or as appeals from the decision of trial justices; as the case may be, are provided to be taken and tried by the laws of the State of Virginia; relating to trial justices as the same shall now be or as hereafter amended.

The council may also appoint such clerk or clerks as may in their discretion be necessary, provide for just compensation therefor and provide necessary records.

The council of said town shall provide a salary to compensate such trial justice in such amount and payable at such times as the council shall deem proper; and the council may provide also for a vacation period; either with or without pay; and for such duration; as in the judgment of the council may be proper.

Like provisions may be made for a substitute justice; and when such substitute acts; he shall receive the compensation which would have been paid him had the principal acted; and which compensation shall be deducted from salary or allowance made to the principal.

The town of Haymarket may combine with the county of Prince William for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for such combined town and county, in such manner as may be provided by the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices; and if the town of Haymarket and the county of Prince William shall at any time combine for the use of one trial justice and one substitute trial justice for the said town and the said county, the laws of the State of Virginia relating to trial justices, so far as applicable, shall control and not this section of this charter. [Repealed]

(19) The council may appoint or select such other officers as may be necessary, including a business manager for the town, and fix their salaries and define their duties.

(20) All ordinances, resolutions and bylaws passed by the council take effect at the time indicated in such ordinances, resolutions or bylaws, but in event no effective date shall be set forth in any such ordinances, resolutions or bylaws passed by the council, the same shall become effective thirty days from its passage.

Article IX. Additional Powers.

§ 1. In addition to powers elsewhere mentioned in this charter and the powers conferred by general law and the Constitution, the town shall have the following powers:

(1) To compel the abatement and removal of all nuisances within the town or upon property owned by the town without its limits at the expense of the person or persons causing the same or of the owner or occupant of the ground or premises wherein the same may be, and to collect said expense by suit or motion or by distress and sale; to require all lands, lots and other premises within the town to be kept clean and sanitary and free from stagnant water, weeds, filth, and unsightly deposits, or to make them so at the expense of the owners or occupants thereof, and to collect said expense by suit or motion or by distress and sale; to regulate or prevent noisome or offensive business within the said town, or the exercise of any dangerous or unwholesome business, trade, or employment therein; to regulate the transportation of all articles through the streets of the town; to compel the abatement of smoke and dust, and prevent unnecessary noise; to regulate the location of stables and the manner in which the same shall be constructed and kept; to regulate the location, construction, operation, and maintenance of billboards and signs; and generally to define, prohibit, abate, suppress, and prevent all things detrimental to the health, morals, aesthetics, safety, convenience and welfare of the inhabitants of the town; and to require all owners or occupants of property having public sidewalks adjacent thereto to keep the same clean and sanitary, free from weeds, filth, unsightly deposits, ice and snow, and any obstruction.

 311 town to be used by motor vehicle carriers operating in and through the town and to prescribe different 312 routes for different carriers; to prohibit the use of certain streets by motor trucks; and generally to 313 prescribe such regulations respecting motor traffic therein as may be necessary for the general welfare
 314 and safety. [Repealed]

315 (26) To make and enforce and effect by ordinances any and all the laws of this State.

316 (27) To put into force and effect by ordinances any and all the foregoing powers; and any other
 317 powers and authority of the council given by this charter, or any State law, or any amendments thereto;
 318 and to prescribe punishment for the violation of any town ordinance, rule or regulation, or of any
 319 provision of this charter, the penalty not to exceed five hundred dollars ($500.00) fine or twelve months'
 320 imprisonment in jail, or both. [Repealed]

321 (28) The enumeration of particular powers by this charter shall not be deemed to be exclusive, and 322 in addition to the powers enumerated herein or implied hereby, or appropriate to the exercise of such 323 powers, it is intended that the Town council shall have and may exercise all powers which, under the 324 Constitution and laws of this State, it would be competent for this charter specifically to enumerate.

325 Article XI. Miscellaneous.

326 § 1. (1) If any clause, sentence, paragraph, or part of this act shall for any reason be adjudged by a 327 court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, such judgment shall not affect, impair or invalidate the 328 remainder of the act, but shall be confined in its operation to the part of the act directly involved in the 329 controversy in which the judgment shall have been rendered.

330 (2) This act may be referred to or cited as the Haymarket Charter of 1950 2022.

331 2. That § 2 of Article III, § 1 of Article VIII, and § 1 of Article X of Chapter 540 of the Acts of 332 Assembly of 1950 are repealed.
