9 10	Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 22.1-287 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:
11	§ 22.1-287. Limitations on access to records.
12	A. No teacher, principal or employee of any public school nor any school board member shall permit
13	access to any records concerning any particular pupil enrolled in the school in any class to any person
14	except under judicial process unless the person is one of the following:
15	1. Either parent of such pupil or such pupil; provided that a school board may require that such
16	pupil, if he be less than 18 years of age, as a condition precedent to access to such records, furnish
17	written consent of his or her parent for such access;
18	2. A person designated in writing by such pupil if the pupil is 18 years of age or older or by either
19	parent of such pupil if the pupil is less than 18 years of age;
20	3. The principal, or someone designated by him, of a school where the pupil attends, has attended, or
21 22	intends to enroll;4. The current teachers of such pupil;
$\frac{22}{23}$	5. State or local law-enforcement or correctional personnel, including a law-enforcement officer,
23 24	probation officer, parole officer or administrator, or a member of a parole board, seeking information in
25	the course of his duties;
26	6. The Superintendent of Public Instruction, a member of his staff, the division superintendent of
27	schools where the pupil attends, has attended, or intends to enroll or a member of his staff;
28	7. An officer or employee of a county or city agency responsible for protective services to children,
29	as to a pupil referred to that agency as a minor requiring investigation or supervision by that agency.
30	B. A parent or pupil entitled to see the records pursuant to subdivision A 1 shall have access to all
31 32	records relating to such pupil maintained by the school except as otherwise provided by law and need only appear in person during regular hours of the school day and request to see such records. No
33	material concerning such pupil shall be edited or withheld except as otherwise provided by law, and the
34	parent or pupil shall be entitled to read such material personally.
35	C. The giving of information by school personnel concerning participation in athletics and other
36	school activities, the winning of scholastic or other honors and awards, and other like information shall
37	be governed by the provisions of § 22.1-287.1.
38	D. Notwithstanding the restrictions imposed by this section:
39	1. A division superintendent of schools may, in his discretion, provide information to the staff of an
40 41	institution of higher education or educational research and development organization or laboratory if such information is necessary to a research project or study conducted, sponsored, or approved by the
42	institution of higher education or educational research and development organization or laboratory and if
43	no pupil will be identified by name in the information provided for research;
44	2. The name and address of a pupil, the record of a pupil's daily attendance, a pupil's scholastic
45	record in the form of grades received in school subjects, the names of a pupil's parents, a pupil's date
46	and place of birth, and the names and addresses of other schools a pupil has attended may be released
47	to an officer or employee of the United States government seeking this information in the course of his
48	duties when the pupil is a veteran of military service with the United States, an orphan or dependent of
49	such veteran, or an alien;
50 51	3. The record of a pupil's daily attendance shall be open for inspection and reproduction to an employee of a local department of social services who needs the record to determine the eligibility of
51 52	the pupil's family for public assistance and social services; and
5 7	4. The principal or his designee may disclose identifying information from a pupil's scholastic record
54	for the purpose of furthering the ability of the juvenile justice system to effectively serve the pupil prior
55	to adjudication. In addition to those agencies or personnel identified in subdivisions A 5 and 7, the
56	principal or his designee may disclose identifying information from a pupil's scholastic record to
57	attorneys for the Commonwealth, court services units, juvenile detention centers or group homes, mental
58	and medical health agencies, state and local children and family service agencies, and the Department of
