2/13/23 10:1

57 this chapter if a written complaint of the defect or defects has been mailed or sent by electronic mail to 58 it or it has responded to the consumer in writing via mail or electronic mail regarding a complaint, or a 77

59 factory representative has either inspected the vehicle or met with the consumer or an authorized dealer 60 regarding the nonconformity.

"Reasonable allowance for use" shall not exceed one-half of the amount allowed per mile by the 61 62 Internal Revenue Service, as provided by regulation, revenue procedure, or revenue ruling promulgated 63 pursuant to § 162 of the Internal Revenue Code, for use of a personal vehicle for business purposes, 64 plus an amount to account for any loss to the fair market value of the vehicle resulting from damage 65 beyond normal wear and tear, unless the damage resulted from nonconformity to any warranty.

"Serious safety defect" means a life-threatening malfunction or nonconformity that impedes the 66 consumer's ability to control or operate the new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonable intended 67 purposes or creates a risk of fire or explosion. 68

"Significant impairment" means to render the new motor vehicle unfit, unreliable or unsafe for ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes. 69 70

'Warranty" means any implied warranty or any written warranty of the manufacturer, or any 71 affirmations of fact or promise made by the manufacturer in connection with the sale or lease of a 72 motor vehicle that become part of the basis of the bargain. The term "warranty" pertains to the 73 74 obligations of the manufacturer in relation to materials, workmanship, and fitness of a motor vehicle for 75 ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes throughout the duration of the lemon law rights period as 76 defined under this section.

§ 59.1-207.13. Nonconformity of motor vehicles.

78 A. If the manufacturer, its agents or authorized dealers do not conform the motor vehicle to any 79 applicable warranty by repairing or correcting any defect or condition, including those that do not affect 80 the driveability of the vehicle, which significantly impairs the use, market value, or safety of the motor vehicle to the consumer after a reasonable number of attempts during the lemon law rights period, the 81 82 manufacturer shall: 83

1. Replace the motor vehicle with a comparable motor vehicle acceptable to the consumer, or

2. Accept return of the motor vehicle and refund to the consumer, lessor, and any lienholder as their 84 85 interest may appear the full contract price, including all collateral charges, incidental damages, less a reasonable allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle up to the date of the first notice of 86 nonconformity that is given to the manufacturer, its agents or authorized dealer. Refunds or replacements 87 88 shall be made to the consumer, lessor or lienholder, if any, as their interests may appear. The consumer 89 shall have the unconditional right to choose a refund rather than a replacement vehicle and to drive the 90 motor vehicle until he receives either the replacement vehicle or the refund. The subtraction of a 91 reasonable allowance for use shall apply to either a replacement or refund of the motor vehicle. Mileage, 92 expenses, and reasonable loss of use necessitated by attempts to conform such motor vehicle to the 93 express warranty may be recovered by the consumer.

94 A1. In the case of a replacement of or refund for a leased vehicle, in addition to any other damages 95 provided in this chapter, the motor vehicle shall be returned to the manufacturer and the consumer's written lease shall be terminated by the lessor without penalty to the consumer. The lessor shall transfer 96 title to the manufacturer as necessary to effectuate the consumer's rights pursuant to this chapter, 97 98 whether the consumer chooses vehicle replacement or a refund.

B. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a 99 100 motor vehicle to any warranty and that the motor vehicle is significantly impaired if during the lemon 101 law rights period either:

102 1. The same nonconformity has been subject to repair three or more times by the manufacturer, its 103 agents or its authorized dealers and the same nonconformity continues to exist;

2. The nonconformity is a serious safety defect and has been subject to repair one or more times by 104 105 the manufacturer, its agent or its authorized dealer and the same nonconformity continues to exist; or

3. The motor vehicle is out of service due to repair for a cumulative total of 30 calendar days, unless 106 107 such repairs could not be performed because of conditions beyond the control of the manufacturer, its 108 agents or authorized dealers, including war, invasion, strike, fire, flood or other natural disasters.

109 C. The lemon law rights period shall be extended if the manufacturer has been notified but the nonconformity has not been effectively repaired by the manufacturer, or its agent, by the expiration of 110 111 the lemon law rights period.

D. The manufacturer shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the consumer, in the warranty or 112 113 owner's manual, that written notification of the nonconformity to the manufacturer is required before the consumer may be eligible for a refund or replacement of the vehicle under this chapter. The 114 115 manufacturer shall include with the warranty or owner's manual the name and address to which the 116 consumer shall send such written notification.

E. It shall be the responsibility of the consumer, or his representative, prior to availing himself of the 117 provisions of this section, to notify the manufacturer of the need for the correction or repair of the 118 nonconformity, unless the manufacturer has been notified as defined in § 59.1-207.11. If the 119 manufacturer or factory representative has not been notified of the conditions set forth in subsection B 120 and any of the conditions set forth in subsection B already exists, the manufacturer shall be given an additional opportunity, not to exceed 15 days, to correct or repair the nonconformity. If notification shall be mailed or sent via electronic mail to an authorized dealer, the authorized dealer shall upon receipt forward such notification to the manufacturer.

F. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the rights and remedies of a consumer under any other law.

127 G. It is an affirmative defense to any claim under this chapter that:

128 1. An alleged nonconformity does not significantly impair the use, market value, or safety of the 129 motor vehicle; or 130 2. A nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect or unauthorized modification or alteration of a131 motor vehicle by a consumer.
