1 SENATE BILL NO. 991 2 Offered January 10, 2023 3 A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia, relating to public institutions of higher education; immunization requirements. 6 Patron—Peake 7 Perfered to Committee on Education and Health 9 Referred to Committee on Education and Health 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: 12 § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnishece before the beginning of the second semester or quarter or nelses for which the student has beei immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunizations was administered, and an further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. 12 B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccina against diphteria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola) 14 student is exempt from such requirement. 15 B.		23102704D
2 Orffered January 11, 2023 Prefiled January 6, 2023 4 A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia, relating to public institutions of higher education; immunization requirements. 6 Patron—Peake 7 Patron—Peake 8 Referred to Committee on Education and Health 9 Referred to Committee on Education and Health 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education is eligible to register for his second senester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second senester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent witi guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student's parent o 1 B. Proir to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education? 2 Firor to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education? 2 Firor to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher educatio? 3	1
A BLL to amend and reenact § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia, relating to public institutions of higher education; immunization requirements. Tatron—Peake Referred to Committee on Education and Health Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 2.3.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 2.3.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 2.3.1-800 health historics and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnishec before the beginning of the second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has beei mmunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or or religious grounds, in which case he th student boys of doses given, the date on which the immunization of higher education each studer to such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education reach student set of (ii) the student site. A mumps according to the guidelines of the student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, polomyelitis, measles (rubeola, German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the student shall be instituted by addict persent or legal guardian objects to represented. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher educatior each full-time student shall be vacinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B, and	2
 A BILL to amend and reenact § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia, relating to public institutions of higher education; immunization requirements. Patrom—Peake Referred to Committee on Education and Health Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has buefort by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided b a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has bee immunized, the numbers of does given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be vaccinated against diphtheria, tetanus, polomyelitis, measles (rubeola, C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and hepatitis B unless th states that has advalence provided biased and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vac bigher education; immunization requirements. Patron—Peake Patron—Peake Referred to Committee on Education and Health Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 1. That § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent witig guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the student is a minor, the student has bee immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an further immunization sindicated or (ii) the student is a minor, the student sparent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against meningoocceal disease and hepatitis B. and mumps according to the guidelines of the Astudent shall be vaccinated against meningoocceal disease and hepatitis B. and mump secording to the student or if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the ticks associated with meningoocceal disease and hepatitis B. and thursten waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailis a minor, whose parent or legal guardian
6 Patron—Peake 7 Referred to Committee on Education and Health 7 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 10 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is arended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. 13 A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided b is further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. 14 B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be minunized by vaccine against diphteria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola) the atmicance of legal equardian signs a written weiver studin that dudent shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and he availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and hepatitis B unless th student is a termined. 16 C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education erist each student is a eminor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written weiver studin tha studenerise.	5
Patron—Peake 7 Referred to Committee on Education and Health 9 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: 12 3.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. 13 A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe deducation is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished be a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beed immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. 14 B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, polionyelitis, measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the date on the has receiveed ad reviewed defailed information on the risk association of higher education on the has receiveed and reviewed defailed information on the risk association of higher student for the be vaccinated against meningococcal disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed hy are has a receiveed and reviewed defailed information on the risk associated with meningoeoceed disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and ha
Referred to Committee on Education and Health Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: Intat § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent will guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided b a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has bee immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to conrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccina against diphteria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, mealses (rubeola, German measles (rubela), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education acch will be have considered and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococced diseases and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be on to the have the student vacinamated. B. Any student is a	-	Patron—Peake
 Referred to Committee on Education and Health Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 11. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe ducation is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has bee immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunizations was administered, and an further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student is a minor, the student's parent o' legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is a student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubela), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver statin that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococceal disease. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection a licensed physician that states that his physical conditics with his religious tenets or practices, unles the student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection a licensed physician that states that his physical conditics with his religious tenets or p	7
 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia: 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe ducation is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless be (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has bee immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an grant is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education cach student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphteria, tetanus, poliomyeltis, measles (rubela), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education cach student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student set aution, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectivenees of any vaccine and has chosen not to be o not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administrat	8	Referred to Committee on Education and Health
 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent witi guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beer immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an 19 further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student on vibit the student is a minor, the student's parent o legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education cach student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubcella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects on not to have the student devined. D. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student ta cations, whose parent or legal guardian objects on not to have the student socimated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization
 1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows: § 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of highe ducation is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent witi guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beer immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an 19 further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola). meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects on to the student derive distant meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student for the distant meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on to be of not to have the student det. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on react by scita that states that his physical condition		Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:
 A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter or lenses he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter or enrollment, a health history consistent witing guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has bee immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diptheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola) German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines or the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver statin, that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I al censed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or t		1. That § 23.1-800 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:
 deducation is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided b a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beer immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the student is seempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola), German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines or the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver statin. Hathe has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the subsection. F. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperat	12	§ 23.1-800. Health histories and immunizations required; exemptions. before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beel immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he h student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola) German measles (rubeola), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcad disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be on to thave the student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition		A. No full-time student who enrolls for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher guidelines adopted by each institution's board of visitors that includes documented evidence, provided by a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beel immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and an further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diptheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola, German measles (rubeola, meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be on to thave the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and G who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or ejidemie of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents wou	14	education is eligible to register for his second semester or quarter unless he (i) the student has furnished, a licensed health professional or health facility, of the diseases for which the student has beed immunized, the numbers of doese given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (i) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubela), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education? each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of this settion. F. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. <l< th=""><th></th><th>before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with</th></l<>		before the beginning of the second semester or quarter of enrollment, a health history consistent with immunized, the numbers of doses given, the date on which the immunization was administered, and any further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococca disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be onto to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. H. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The Council shall, i further immunizations indicated or (ii) the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent of legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola). German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcad disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of timmunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourage privat legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he th student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola), German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcad disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be ont to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and G who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of mmunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated wit student is exempt from such requirement. B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola), German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the required immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemie of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immun
 B. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphteria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubela), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be ont to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutio	20	legal guardian objects to such health history requirement on religious grounds, in which case he the each student shall be immunized by vaccine against diphtheria, tetanus, poliomyelitis, measles (rubeola) German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococca disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices; unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemie of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impos German measles (rubella), meningococcal disease, hepatitis B, and mumps according to the guidelines of the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be of not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices; unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institution of policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i co the American College Health Association Board of Health. C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococca disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection II and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public in C. Prior to enrollment for the first time in any baccalaureate public institution of higher education each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless th student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be on not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices; unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of the section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the situent is a secorate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and each full-time student shall be vaccinated against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B unless the student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices; unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education is shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with <th></th><th></th> student or, if the student is a minor, the student's parent or legal guardian signs a written waiver stating that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcar disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be or not to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection H and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more or the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education of higher education. F. The General Assembly shall have the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher elacition. No public institution of health and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher elacation. No public institution of higher education of higher education. No public institution of higher elacati that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be on to to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education frequirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine and has chosen not to be onot to have the student vaccinated. D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on th grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 		that he has received and reviewed detailed information on the risks associated with meningococcal not to have the student vaccinated. D: Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements or students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with
 D. Any student is exempt from the immunization requirements set forth in subsections subsection I and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with and C who (i) objects or, if the student is a minor, whose parent or legal guardian objects on the grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education with grounds that administration of immunizing agents conflicts with his religious tenets or practices, unless the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of and vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education the shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher the Board of Health has declared an emergency or epidemic of disease, or (ii) presents a statement from a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of an vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health. E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements with 		a licensed physician that states that his physical condition is such that administration of one or more of assistance in the implementation of this section. F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 		the required immunizing agents would be detrimental to his health.
 40 F. E. The Council shall, in cooperation with the Board and Commissioner of Health, encourag 41 private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk 42 associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any 43 vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. 44 F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of 45 students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education 46 shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i 47 consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th 48 provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher 49 education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 		E. D. The Board and Commissioner of Health shall cooperate with any board of visitors seeking private institutions of higher education to develop a procedure for providing information about the risk associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements with the inconsistent with the sole and the shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 42 associated with meningococcal disease and hepatitis B and the availability and effectiveness of any vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. 43 F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education with the information requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with vaccine against meningococcal disease and hepatitis B. F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with F. The General Assembly shall have the sole authority to impose immunization requirements of students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education is shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and the provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education requirements with a provision requirements of the provision relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with students enrolled in public institutions of higher education. No public institution of higher education shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of higher education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 46 shall revise its institutional policies relating to immunization requirements unless such revision i 47 consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th 48 provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of highe 49 education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 47 consistent with or necessary to effectuate the regulations developed by the Board of Health and th 48 provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of highe 49 education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 48 provisions of law enacted by the General Assembly. Any policy of a public institution of highe 49 education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with 49 education relating to immunization requirements shall be void to the extent that it is inconsistent with

1/10/23 12:22