§ 16.1-228. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Abused or neglected child" means any child:

1. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates or inflicts, threatens to create or inflict, or allows to be created or inflicted upon such child a physical or mental injury by other than accidental means, or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement or impairment of bodily or mental functions, including, but not limited to, a child who is with his parent or other person responsible for his care either (i) during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a Schedule I or II controlled substance, or (ii) during the unlawful sale of such substance by that child's parents or other person responsible for his care, where such manufacture, or attempted manufacture or unlawful sale would constitute a felony violation of § 18.2-248. However, possession or consumption of substances authorized under Title 4.1 or Chapter 34 (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.) of Title 54.1 by a child's parent or other person responsible for his care alone shall not serve as a basis to deem a child abused or neglected unless other facts establish that such possession or consumption causes or creates a risk of physical or mental injury to the child;

2. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care neglects or refuses to provide care necessary for his health; however, no child who in good faith is under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child. Further, a decision by parents who have legal authority for the child or, in the absence of parents with legal authority for the child, any person with legal authority for the child who refuses a particular medical treatment for a child with a life-threatening condition shall not be deemed a refusal to provide necessary care if (i) such decision is made jointly by the parents or other person with legal authority and the child; (ii) the child has reached 14 years of age and is sufficiently mature to have an informed opinion on the subject of his medical treatment; (iii) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child have considered alternative treatment options; and (iv) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child believe in good faith that such decision is in the child's best interest. No child whose parent or other person responsible for his care allows the child to engage in independent activities without adult supervision shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child, provided that (a) such independent activities are appropriate based on the child's age, maturity, and physical and mental abilities and (b) such lack of supervision does not constitute conduct that is so grossly negligent as to endanger the health or safety of the child. Such independent activities include traveling to or from school or nearby locations by bicycle or on foot, playing outdoors, or remaining at home for a reasonable period of time. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the provisions of § 16.1-278.4;

3. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care abandons such child;

4. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care, or an intimate partner of such parent or person, commits or allows to be committed any act of sexual exploitation or any sexual act upon a child in violation of the law;

5. Who is without parental care or guardianship caused by the unreasonable absence or the mental or physical incapacity of the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian, or other person standing in loco parentis;

6. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates a substantial risk of physical or mental injury by knowingly leaving the child alone in the same dwelling, including an apartment as defined in § 55.1-2000, with a person to whom the child is not related by blood or marriage and who

242 A. In cases involving the custody, visitation or support of a child pursuant to subdivision A 3 of 243 § 16.1-241, the court may make any order of disposition to protect the welfare of the child and family

as may be made by the circuit court. The parties to any petition where a child whose custody, visitation, or support is contested shall show proof that they have attended within the 12 months prior to their court appearance or that they shall attend within 45 days thereafter an educational seminar or other like program conducted by a qualified person or organization approved by the Office of the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court of Virginia. The court may require the parties to attend such seminar or program in uncontested cases only if the court finds good cause. The seminar or other program shall be a minimum of four hours in length and shall address the effects of separation or divorce on children, parenting responsibilities, options for conflict resolution and financial responsibilities. Once a party has completed one educational seminar or other like program, the required completion of additional programs shall be at the court's discretion. Parties under this section shall include natural or adoptive parents of the child, or any person with a legitimate interest as defined in § 20-124.1. The fee charged a party for participation in such program shall be based on the party's ability to pay; however, no fee in excess of $50 may be charged. Whenever possible, before participating in mediation or alternative dispute resolution to address custody, visitation or support, each party shall have attended the educational seminar or other like program. The court may grant an exemption from attendance of such program for good cause shown or if there is no program reasonably available. Other than statements or admissions by a party admitting criminal activity or child abuse or neglect, no statement or admission by a party in such seminar or program shall be admissible into evidence in any subsequent proceeding. If support is ordered for a child, the order shall also provide that support will continue to be paid for a child over the age of 18 who is (i) a full-time high school student, (ii) not self-supporting, and (iii) living in the home of the parent seeking or receiving child support, until the child reaches the age of 19 or graduates from high school, whichever occurs first. The court may also order that support be paid or continue to be paid for any child over the age of 18 who is (a) severely and permanently mentally or physically disabled, and such disability existed prior to the child reaching the age of 18 or the age of 19 if the child met the requirements of clauses (i), (ii), and (iii); (b) unable to live independently and support himself; and (c) residing in the home of the parent seeking or receiving child support. Upon request of either party, the court may also order that support payments be made to a special needs trust or an ABLE savings trust account as defined in § 23.1-700.

B. In any case involving the custody or visitation of a child, the court may award custody upon petition to any party with a legitimate interest therein, including, but not limited to, grandparents, stepparents, former stepparents, blood relatives and family members. The term "legitimate interest" shall be broadly construed to accommodate the best interest of the child. The authority of the juvenile court to consider a petition involving the custody of a child shall not be proscribed or limited where the custody of the child has previously been awarded to a local board of social services.

C. In any determination of support obligation under this section, the support obligation as it becomes due and unpaid creates a judgment by operation of law. Such judgment becomes a lien against real estate only when docketed in the county or city where such real estate is located. Nothing herein shall be construed to alter or amend the process of attachment of any lien on personal property.

D. Orders entered prior to July 1, 2008, shall not be deemed void or voidable solely because the petition or motion that resulted in the order was completed, signed and filed by a nonattorney employee of the Department of Social Services.

E. In cases involving charges for desertion, abandonment or failure to provide support by any person in violation of law, disposition shall be made in accordance with Chapter 5 (§ 20-61 et seq.) of Title 20.

F. In cases involving a spouse who seeks spousal support after having separated from his spouse, the court may enter any appropriate order to protect the welfare of the spouse seeking support.

G. In any case or proceeding involving the custody or visitation of a child, the court shall consider the best interest of the child, including the considerations for determining custody and visitation set forth in Chapter 6.1 (§ 20-124.1 et seq.) of Title 20.

G1. In any case or proceeding involving the custody or visitation of a child, as to a parent, the court may, in its discretion, use the phrase "parenting time" to be synonymous with the term "visitation."

H. In any proceeding before the court for custody or visitation of a child, the court may order a custody or a psychological evaluation of any parent, guardian, legal custodian or person standing in loco parentis to the child, if the court finds such evaluation would assist it in its determination. The court may enter such orders as it deems appropriate for the payment of the costs of the evaluation by the parties.

I. When deemed appropriate by the court in any custody or visitation matter, the court may order drug testing of any parent, guardian, legal custodian or person standing in loco parentis to the child. Such drug testing shall exclude testing for any substance permitted for lawful use by an adult authorized under Title 4.1 or Chapter 34 (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.) of Title 54.1. Such parent, guardian, legal custodian, or person standing in loco parentis to the child shall not be construed to have failed a drug test if such drug test includes a positive result for such substance authorized under Title 4.1 or Chapter 34 of Title

305 54.1. The court may enter such orders as it deems appropriate for the payment of the costs of the testing
306 by the parties. A person's legal possession or consumption of substances authorized under Title 4.1 or 307 Chapter 34 of Title 54.1 alone shall not serve as a basis to restrict custody or visitation unless other
308 facts establish that such possession or consumption is not in the best interest of the child.

309 J. In any custody or visitation case or proceeding wherein an order prohibiting a party from picking
310 the child up from school is entered pursuant to this section, the court shall order a party to such case or
311 proceeding to provide a copy of such custody or visitation order to the school at which the child is 312 enrolled within three business days of such party's receipt of such custody or visitation order.

313 If a custody determination affects the school enrollment of the child subject to such custody order
314 and prohibits a party from picking the child up from school, the court shall order a party to provide a
315 copy of such custody order to the school at which the child will be enrolled within three business days
316 of such party's receipt of such order. Such order directing a party to provide a copy of such custody or
317 visitation order shall further require such party, upon any subsequent change in the child's school
318 enrollment, to provide a copy of such custody or visitation order to the new school at which the child is
319 subsequently enrolled within three business days of such enrollment.

320 If the court determines that a party is unable to deliver the custody or visitation order to the school,
321 such party shall provide the court with the name of the principal and address of the school, and the
322 court shall cause the order to be mailed by first class mail to such school principal.

323 Nothing in this section shall be construed to require any school staff to interpret or enforce the terms
324 of such custody or visitation order.

325 § 20-124.2. Court-ordered custody and visitation arrangements.

326 A. In any case in which custody or visitation of minor children is at issue, whether in a circuit or 327 district court, the court shall provide prompt adjudication, upon due consideration of all the facts, of 328 custody and visitation arrangements, including support and maintenance for the children, prior to other
329 considerations arising in the matter. The court may enter an order pending the suit as provided in 330 § 20-103. The procedures for determining custody and visitation arrangements shall insofar as practical,
331 and consistent with the ends of justice, preserve the dignity and resources of family members. Mediation
332 shall be used as an alternative to litigation where appropriate. When mediation is used in custody and 333 visitation matters, the goals may include development of a proposal addressing the child's residential
334 schedule and care arrangements, and how disputes between the parents will be handled in the future.

335 B. In determining custody, the court shall give primary consideration to the best interests of the 336 child. The court shall consider and may award joint legal, joint physical, or sole custody, and there shall 337 be no presumption in favor of any form of custody. The court shall assure minor children of frequent 338 and continuing contact with both parents, when appropriate, and encourage parents to share in the 339 responsibilities of rearing their children. As between the parents, there shall be no presumption or 340 inference of law in favor of either. The court shall give due regard to the primacy of the parent-child
341 relationship but may upon a showing by clear and convincing evidence that the best interest of the child
342 would be served thereby award custody or visitation to any other person with a legitimate interest. A
343 person's legal possession or consumption of substances authorized under Title 4.1 or Chapter 34
344 (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.) of Title 54.1 alone shall not serve as a basis to restrict custody or visitation unless
345 other facts establish that such possession or consumption is not in the best interest of the child.

346 B1. In any case or proceeding involving the custody or visitation of a child, as to a parent, the court
347 may, in its discretion, use the phrase "parenting time" to be synonymous with the term "visitation."

348 B2. In any case or proceeding in which a grandparent has petitioned the court for visitation with a
349 minor grandchild, and a natural or adoptive parent of the minor grandchild is deceased or incapacitated,
350 the grandparent who is related to such deceased or incapacitated parent shall be permitted to introduce
351 evidence of such parent's consent to visitation with the grandparent, in accordance with the rules of 352 evidence. If the parent's consent is proven by a preponderance of the evidence, the court may then 353 determine if grandparent visitation is in the best interest of the minor grandchild. For the purposes of 354 this subsection, "incapacitated parent" has the same meaning ascribed to the term "incapacitated person"
355 in § 64.2-2000.

356 C. The court may order that support be paid for any child of the parties. Upon request of either
357 party, the court may order that such support payments be made to a special needs trust or an ABLE
358 savings trust account as defined in § 23.1-700. The court shall also order that support will continue to be

If a custody determination affects the school enrollment of the child subject to such custody order and prohibits a party from picking the child up from school, the court shall order a party to provide a copy of such custody order to the school at which the child will be enrolled within three business days of such party's receipt of such order. Such order directing a party to provide a copy of such custody or visitation order shall further require such party, upon any subsequent change in the child's school enrollment, to provide a copy of such custody or visitation order to the new school at which the child is subsequently enrolled within three business days of such enrollment.

§ 63.2-100. Definitions.

As used in this title, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Abused or neglected child" means any child less than 18 years of age:

1. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates or inflicts, threatens to create or inflict, or allows to be created or inflicted upon such child a physical or mental injury by other than accidental means, or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement, or impairment of bodily or mental functions, including, but not limited to, a child who is with his parent or other person responsible for his care either (i) during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a Schedule I or II controlled substance, or (ii) during the unlawful sale of such substance by that child's parents or other person responsible for his care, where such manufacture, or attempted manufacture or unlawful sale would constitute a felony violation of § 18.2-248. However, possession or consumption of substances authorized under Title 4.1 or Chapter 34 (§ 54.1-3400 et seq.) of Title 54.1 by a child's parent or other person responsible for his care alone shall not serve as a basis to deem a child abused or neglected unless other facts establish that such possession or consumption causes or creates a risk of physical or mental injury to the child;

2. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care neglects or refuses to provide care necessary for his health. However, no child who in good faith is under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child. Further, a decision by parents who have legal authority for the child or, in the absence of parents with legal authority for the child, any person with legal authority for the child, who refuses a particular medical treatment for a child with a life-threatening condition shall not be deemed a refusal to provide necessary care if (i) such decision is made jointly by the parents or other person with legal authority and the child; (ii) the child has reached 14 years of age and is sufficiently mature to have an informed opinion on the subject of his medical treatment; (iii) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child have considered alternative treatment options; and (iv) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child believe in good faith that such decision is in the child's best interest. No child whose parent or other person responsible for his care allows the child to engage in independent activities without adult supervision shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child, provided that (a) such independent activities are appropriate based on the child's age, maturity, and physical and mental abilities and (b) such lack of supervision does not constitute conduct that is so grossly negligent as to endanger the health or safety of the child. Such independent activities include traveling to or from school or nearby locations by bicycle or on foot, playing outdoors, or remaining at home for a reasonable period of time. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the provisions of § 16.1-278.4;

3. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care abandons such child;

4. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care, or an intimate partner of such parent or person, commits or allows to be committed any act of sexual exploitation or any sexual act upon a child in violation of the law;

5. Who is without parental care or guardianship caused by the unreasonable absence or the mental or physical incapacity of the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian or other person standing in loco parentis;

Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates a substantial risk of physical or mental injury by knowingly leaving the child alone in the same dwelling, including an apartment as defined in § 55.1-2000, with a person to whom the child is not related by blood or marriage and who the parent or other person responsible for his care knows has been convicted of an offense against a minor for which registration is required as a Tier III offender pursuant to § 9.1-902; or

7. Who has been identified as a victim of sex trafficking or severe forms of trafficking as defined in the Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000, 22 U.S.C. § 7102 et seq., and in the Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015, 42 U.S.C. § 5101 et seq.
