§ 16.1-228. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, unless the context requires a different meaning:

"Abused or neglected child" means any child:

1. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates or inflicts, threatens to create or inflict, or allows to be created or inflicted upon such child a physical or mental injury by other than accidental means, or creates a substantial risk of death, disfigurement or impairment of bodily or mental functions, including, but not limited to, a child who is with his parent or other person responsible for his care either (i) during the manufacture or attempted manufacture of a Schedule I or II controlled substance, or (ii) during the unlawful sale of such substance by that child's parents or other person responsible for his care, where such manufacture, or attempted manufacture or unlawful sale would constitute a felony violation of § 18.2-248;

2. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care neglects or refuses to provide care necessary for his health; however, no child who in good faith is under treatment solely by spiritual means through prayer in accordance with the tenets and practices of a recognized church or religious denomination shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child. Further, a decision by parents who have legal authority for the child or, in the absence of parents with legal authority for the child, any person with legal authority for the child who refuses a particular medical treatment for a child with a life-threatening condition shall not be deemed a refusal to provide necessary care if (i) such decision is made jointly by the parents or other person with legal authority and the child; (ii) the child has reached 14 years of age and is sufficiently mature to have an informed opinion on the subject of his medical treatment; (iii) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child have considered alternative treatment options; and (iv) the parents or other person with legal authority and the child believe in good faith that such decision is in the child's best interest. No child whose parent or other person responsible for his care allows the child to engage in independent activities without adult supervision shall for that reason alone be considered to be an abused or neglected child, provided that (a) such independent activities are appropriate based on the child's age, maturity, and physical and mental abilities and (b) such lack of supervision does not constitute conduct that is so grossly negligent as to endanger the health or safety of the child. Such independent activities include traveling to or from school or nearby locations by bicycle or on foot, playing outdoors, or remaining at home for a reasonable period of time. Nothing in this subdivision shall be construed to limit the provisions of § 16.1-278.4;

3. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care abandons such child;

4. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care, or an intimate partner of such parent or person, commits or allows to be committed any act of sexual exploitation or any sexual act upon a child in violation of the law;

5. Who is without parental care or guardianship caused by the unreasonable absence or the mental or physical incapacity of the child's parent, guardian, legal custodian, or other person standing in loco parentis;

6. Whose parents or other person responsible for his care creates a substantial risk of physical or mental injury by knowingly leaving the child alone in the same dwelling, including an apartment as defined in § 55.1-2000, with a person to whom the child is not related by blood or marriage and who the parent or other person responsible for his care knows has been convicted of an offense against a minor for which registration is required as a Tier III offender pursuant to § 9.1-902; or

7. Who has been identified as a victim of sex trafficking or severe forms of trafficking as defined in the federal Trafficking Victims Protection Act of 2000, 22 U.S.C. § 7102 et seq., and in the federal Justice for Victims of Trafficking Act of 2015, 42 U.S.C. § 5101 et seq.

268 and indicates that the juvenile is in need of treatment for this condition; (ii) the juvenile has not 269 previously been and is not currently being adjudicated for a violent juvenile felony; and (iii) such 283 under which the restricted license is to be issued shall be sent to the Department of Motor Vehicles.

284 If a curfew is imposed, the juvenile shall surrender his driver's license, which shall be held in the 285 physical custody of the court during any period of curfew restriction. The court shall send an abstract of 286 any order issued under the provisions of this section to the Department of Motor Vehicles, which shall

288 chapter or the provisions of Title 46.2, this record shall be available only to all law-enforcement 289 officers, attorneys for the Commonwealth and courts. A copy of the court order, upon which shall be 290 noted all curfew restrictions, shall be provided to the juvenile and shall contain such information
291 regarding the juvenile as is reasonably necessary to identify him. The juvenile may operate a motor 292 vehicle under the court order in accordance with its terms.

293 Any juvenile who operates a motor vehicle in violation of any restrictions imposed pursuant to this 294 section is guilty of a violation of § 46.2-301.

301 prescribes;

307 care for the juvenile;

308 b. A child welfare agency, private organization or facility that is licensed or otherwise authorized by 309 law to receive and provide care for such juvenile. The court shall not transfer legal custody of a 310 delinquent juvenile to an agency, organization or facility outside of the Commonwealth without the 311 approval of the Director; or

312 c. The local board of social services of the county or city in which the court has jurisdiction or, at 313 the discretion of the court, to the local board of the county or city in which the juvenile has residence if 314 other than the county or city in which the court has jurisdiction. The board shall accept the juvenile for 315 care and custody, provided that it has been given reasonable notice of the pendency of the case and an 316 opportunity to be heard. However, in an emergency in the county or city in which the court has 317 jurisdiction, such local board may be required to temporarily accept a juvenile for a period not to exceed 318 14 days without prior notice or an opportunity to be heard if the judge entering the placement order
319 describes the emergency and the need for such temporary placement in the order. Nothing in this 320 subdivision shall prohibit the commitment of a juvenile to any local board of social services in the 321 Commonwealth when such local board consents to the commitment. The board to which the juvenile is 322 committed shall have the final authority to determine the appropriate placement for the juvenile. Nothing 323 herein shall limit the authority of the court to review the child's status in foster care in accordance with 324 subsection G of § 16.1-281 or to review the foster care plan through a petition filed pursuant to 325 subsection A of § 16.1-282. Any order authorizing removal from the home and transferring legal custody 326 of a juvenile to a local board of social services as provided in this subdivision shall be entered only 327 upon a finding by the court that reasonable efforts have been made to prevent removal and that 328 continued placement in the home would be contrary to the welfare of the juvenile, and the order shall so 329 state;

330 14. Unless waived by an agreement between the attorney for the Commonwealth and the juvenile 331 and his attorney or other legal representative, upon consideration of the results of an investigation 332 completed pursuant to § 16.1-273, commit the juvenile to the Department of Juvenile Justice, but only if 333 (i) he is 11 years of age or older and has been adjudicated delinquent of an act enumerated in 334 subsection B or C of § 16.1-269.1 or (ii) he is 14 years of age or older and the current offense is (a) an 335 offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, (b) an offense that would be a Class 1
336 misdemeanor if committed by an adult and the juvenile has previously been found to be delinquent
337 based on an offense that would be a felony if committed by an adult, or (c) an offense that would be a
