1. Has served at least 25 years of his sentence; and

2. Has not (i) filed a petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section within the preceding three years, (ii) had a sentence modified pursuant to this section within the preceding five years, or (iii) filed more than two petitions for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section.

B. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of court, upon petition of a person who remains incarcerated in a state or local correctional facility or secure facility, as defined in § 16.1-228, serving the sentence for any conviction or for a combination of any convictions of (i) a first and single offense of second degree murder as described in § 18.2-32; (ii) where the victim was an adult, a felony offense of (a) rape in violation of § 18.2-61, (b) forcible sodomy in violation of § 18.2-67.1, (c) object sexual penetration in violation of § 18.2-67.2, or (d) aggravated sexual battery in violation of § 18.2-67.3; (iii) malicious wounding in violation of § 18.2-51; (iv) entering a dwelling with the intent to commit rape, murder, or arson in violation of § 18.2-77, 18.2-79, or 18.2-80; (v) shooting, stabbing, or maiming by mob in violation of § 18.2-41; (vi) shooting, stabbing, etc., with intent to maim or kill in violation of § 18.2-51; (vii) malicious bodily injury to law-enforcement officers, firefighters, search and rescue personnel, or emergency medical services personnel in violation of § 18.2-51.1; (viii) burning or destroying a meeting house, etc., in violation of § 18.2-79; or (ix) reproduction, distribution, solicitation, and facilitation of child pornography in violation of subsection C or D of § 18.2-374.1:1, the circuit court that entered the original judgment or order may grant a hearing to determine whether to modify such person's sentence if such person:

1. Has served at least 20 years of his sentence; and

2. Has not (i) filed a petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section within the preceding three years, (ii) had a sentence modified pursuant to this section within the preceding five years, or (iii) filed more than two petitions for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section.

C. Notwithstanding any other provision of law or rule of court, upon petition of a person who remains incarcerated in a state or local correctional facility or secure facility, as defined in § 16.1-228, serving the sentence for any conviction or for a combination of any convictions not enumerated in subsection A or B, the circuit court that entered the original judgment or order may grant a hearing to determine whether to modify such person's sentence if such person:

1. Has served at least 15 years of his sentence; and

2. Has not (i) filed a petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section within the preceding three years, (ii) had a sentence modified pursuant to this section within the preceding five years, or (iii) filed more than two petitions for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section.

D. The petition for modification of a sentence shall be filed with the circuit court that entered the

60 original judgment or order on a form provided by the Supreme Court of Virginia by the petitioner or 61 his counsel. Such petition shall allege with specificity all of the following: (i) the petitioner's full name
62 and date of birth; (ii) the offense for which the petitioner was convicted; (iii) the date on which such 63 offense was alleged to have been committed; (iv) the date on which the petitioner was sentenced for 64 such offense; (v) whether the petitioner remains incarcerated in a state or local correctional facility or 65 secure facility serving the sentence he is seeking to modify, and if so, which facility; (vi) whether the 66 petitioner has previously filed any other petition in accordance with this section; and (vii) the reason
67 the petitioner is requesting a sentence modification and any information in support thereof. If the 68 petitioner fails to submit a completed form, the circuit court may allow the petitioner to amend the 69 petition to correct any deficiency. Failure to include all information pursuant to this subsection shall not 70 be grounds for dismissal of the petition.

71 E. The Commonwealth shall be made party to the proceeding. The petitioner shall provide a copy of 72 the petition by delivery or by first-class mail, postage prepaid, to the attorney for the Commonwealth of 73 the city or county in which the petition is filed.

74 F. Upon receipt, the court shall conduct a preliminary review of the petition. The court may 75 summarily dismiss the petition if the petitioner fails to state good cause to modify his sentence. The 76 court shall provide a written explanation of the reason for the dismissal as prescribed in subsection K.

77 If the court believes good cause exists to grant the petition, the court shall notify the attorney for the 78 Commonwealth of the city or county in which the petition is filed and order such attorney for the 79 Commonwealth to file an answer to the petition indicating his position within 60 days of receipt of such 80 order, which may be extended for good cause shown, and a copy of which shall be provided to the 81 petitioner or his counsel by delivery or by first-class mail, postage prepaid. Such answer shall address
82 the factors listed in subsection J. If the attorney for the Commonwealth objects to hearing the petition,
83 the court shall dismiss such petition. No attorney for the Commonwealth shall be required to respond to 84 a petition except upon an order of the court.

85 If the attorney for the Commonwealth does not object, the court shall direct the attorney for the 86 Commonwealth to make reasonable efforts to notify any victim of the crime, as defined in § 19.2-11.01,
87 that a petition has been filed and request such victim's agreement to hear the petition. If the victim does
88 not agree to such request, the court shall dismiss the petition. No victim shall be required to respond to 89 a petition.

90 If the crime that such petitioner is convicted of and incarcerated for does not have an identifiable
91 victim, a response from the attorney for the Commonwealth shall be sufficient to proceed under this 92 section.

93 No agreement by the attorney for the Commonwealth or the victim to hear the petition shall be 94 construed to be an agreement to modify a sentence in any future hearing.

95 G. If the attorney for the Commonwealth and the victim agree to hearing the petition, the court shall 96 conduct a hearing on the petition within 90 days of the filing of the petition. The court may continue the
97 hearing to a date more than 90 days after the filing of the petition with the agreement of the petitioner
98 and the attorney for the Commonwealth or upon motion of the court for good cause. The attorney for 99 the Commonwealth shall make reasonable efforts to notify any victim, as defined in § 19.2-11.01, of 100 such hearing and of the victim's right to testify, subject to the provisions of § 19.2-295.3, at the hearing
101 and to submit a Victim Impact Statement, subject to the provisions of § 19.2-299.1, which may include
102 information of any changes related to the factors outlined in § 19.2-299.1 since the petitioner's original
103 sentencing. If the attorney for the Commonwealth is unable to contact the victim, he shall file a written
104 pleading outlining the efforts made to notify the victim. Prior to the hearing on the petition, the court
105 shall determine whether such efforts made are reasonable. Failure of the attorney for the 106 Commonwealth to make reasonable efforts to notify any victim shall not preclude the court from 107 considering the petition.

108 H. The hearing on the petition shall be conducted by the judge who entered the original judgment or 109 order unless such judge is no longer available, in which case the chief judge of the circuit court shall 110 assign the petition to another judge of that circuit court. The petitioner may appear by use of two-way
111 electronic video and audio communication that meets the standards set forth in subsection B of 112 § 19.2-3.1.

113 I. At such hearing, the petitioner and the attorney for the Commonwealth may submit additional 114 evidence, including witness testimony and documentary evidence. Subject to the provisions of 115 § 19.2-295.3, the court shall permit any victim to testify at the hearing, and subject to the provisions of 116 § 19.2-299.1, any victim may submit a Victim Impact Statement to be considered by the court at the 117 hearing.

118 J. At such hearing, the court may dismiss the petition or, upon good cause shown by the petitioner at 119 any time before the petitioner's sentence has been completely served, (i) suspend the unserved portion of 120 any such sentence or run the unserved portion of any sentence concurrently with another sentence; (ii)
121 place the petitioner on probation for such time as the court shall determine; or (iii) otherwise modify the sentence imposed, except that no modification of any term of confinement shall exceed the original term of confinement imposed by the court. The court may modify a sentence pursuant to this section regardless of whether any mandatory minimum term of confinement or other minimum term of incarceration is otherwise required by law.

When determining whether there is good cause to modify the petitioner's sentence, the court shall consider the following factors:

1. The age of the petitioner at the time of the offense and any relevant research presented at the hearing regarding development of the youth brain, the amount of time that has passed since the date of the offense, and evidence of the maturity of the petitioner since the date of the offense;

2. The age of the petitioner at the time the petition was filed and any relevant research presented at the hearing regarding the decline in criminal behavior as individuals grow older;

3. The history and characteristics of the petitioner at the time of the hearing, including rehabilitation demonstrated by the petitioner, the petitioner's disciplinary record while incarcerated, and the petitioner's efforts to participate in any educational or therapeutic programs;

4. Whether the petitioner was the victim of domestic or sexual abuse at the time of the offense and whether such abuse was related to the petitioner's commission of the offense, and any treatment or therapy the petitioner has received since the time of his sentencing;

5. Any report from a physical, mental, or psychiatric examination of the petitioner conducted by a licensed health care professional that has occurred after the initial sentencing hearing and any treatment the petitioner has received while incarcerated;

6. Any testimony or Victim Impact Statement presented by any victim of the offense or by a family member of the victim if such victim is deceased;

7. Any evidence concerning whether the petitioner's sentence was enhanced because the petitioner exercised his constitutional right to a trial or evidence that the petitioner was sentenced above the recommendation of the original discretionary sentencing guidelines;

8. Compliance with the petitioner's case plan, as described by the Department of Corrections operating procedures, during the five years preceding the filing of the petition;

9. Any evidence of the petitioner's acts of service, leadership, or mentorship he engaged in or developed independently while incarcerated;

10. Any information regarding the petitioner's reentry plan, including his prospective residence and any employment plans;

11. Any information related to the petitioner's support from community leaders, faith leaders, or other stakeholders as deemed appropriate by the court; and

12. Any other information the court determines to be relevant to whether the petitioner has changed since the time of his original sentencing or relevant to whether there is good cause to modify his sentence.

K. Within 30 days of the hearing or dismissal, or as soon as practicable, the court shall file with the record of the case a written explanation for the grant or denial of the petition and shall provide a copy of such written explanation to the petitioner and to the attorney for the Commonwealth. The written explanation shall address each of the factors in subsection J and indicate the weight given to each factor.

L. Following the entry of an order to modify a sentence pursuant to this section, within five days the clerk of the circuit court shall cause a copy of such order to be forwarded to the Virginia Criminal Sentencing Commission, the Department of State Police, and the state or local correctional facility or secure facility, as defined in § 16.1-228, where the petitioner is incarcerated. When calculating a sentence modified pursuant to this section, the petitioner shall receive credit for any time served in any local or state correctional facility or secure facility.

M. The decision of a circuit court to dismiss a petition or to modify a sentence pursuant to this section shall not form the basis for relief in any habeas corpus or appellate proceeding, unless such decision was contrary to law. Filing a petition under this section shall not be construed to abridge, toll, or modify any existing remedy, including filing a writ of habeas corpus, a writ of actual innocence, or any other form of relief.

N. The attorney for the Commonwealth shall not require that a person waive his right to petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section as a condition of a plea agreement. Notwithstanding the terms of any plea agreement that attempts to limit the filing of a petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section, a court may modify such sentence, provided that the other requirements of this section are met.

O. Whenever a person becomes eligible to petition for modification of a sentence pursuant to this section, the Department of Corrections shall notify, within 30 days of such person becoming eligible, such person of his eligibility and send, along with a copy of this section, the form for the fillable petition provided by the Supreme Court of Virginia, and all information necessary to complete such 183 form. The notification shall be provided to each eligible individual in his primary language. Upon

184 request of the petitioner or counsel for the petitioner, the Department of Corrections shall provide any 185 records, electronic and paper, associated with the petitioner, without cost, including sentencing orders,
186 program enrollment and completion, security status, case plan documentation, risk assessment data and 187 evaluation, medical records, and any other relevant records. A copy of any such records requested and 188 provided shall also be provided to the court and the attorney for the Commonwealth.

189 P. No fee shall be charged for filing a petition under subsection D.

190 Q. A person convicted of a crime that is subsequently repealed or for which the penalty or 191 sentencing range is subsequently reduced may petition the circuit court that entered the original
192 judgment or order for modification of his sentence pursuant to this section at any time, and such person
193 shall automatically qualify for modification of his sentence, regardless of whether good cause is shown.
194 The court shall modify the sentence to be in compliance with the penalties for the offense in effect on 195 the date of the hearing on the petition for modification of a sentence.
