6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 19.2-354.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:8 § 19.2-354.1. Deferred or installment payment agreements.

9 A. For purposes of this section:

10 "Deferred payment agreement" means an agreement in which no installment payments are required
11 and the defendant agrees to pay the full amount of the fines and costs at the end of the agreement's
12 stated term.13 "Fines and costs" means all fines, court costs, forfeitures, and penalties assessed in any case by a 14 single court against a defendant for the commission of any crime or traffic infraction. "Fines and costs"
15 includes restitution unless the court orders a separate payment schedule for restitution.16 "Installment payment agreement" means an agreement in which the defendant agrees to make 17 monthly or other periodic payments until the fines and costs are paid in full.18 "Modified deferred payment agreement" means a deferred payment agreement in which the defendant
19 also agrees to use best efforts to make monthly or other periodic payments.20 B. The court shall give a defendant ordered to pay fines and costs written notice of the availability
21 of deferred, modified deferred, and installment payment agreements and, if a community service
22 program has been established, the availability of earning credit toward discharge of fines and costs 23 through the performance of community service work. The court shall offer any defendant the 24 opportunity to enter into a deferred payment agreement, modified deferred payment agreement, or 25 installment payment agreement.26 C. The court shall not deny a defendant the opportunity to enter into a deferred, modified deferred, 27 or installment payment agreement solely (i) because of the category of offense for which the defendant 28 was convicted or found not innocent, (ii) because of the total amount of all fines and costs, (iii) because 29 the defendant previously defaulted under the terms of a payment agreement, (iv) because the fines and 30 costs have been referred for collections pursuant to § 19.2-349, or (v) because the defendant has not 31 established a payment history.32 D. In determining the length of time to pay under a deferred, modified deferred, or installment 33 payment agreement and the amount of the payments, a court shall take into account the defendant's 34 financial resources and obligations, including any fines and costs owed by the defendant in other courts.
35 In assessing the defendant's ability to pay, the court shall use a written financial statement, on a form
36 developed by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme Court, setting forth the defendant's financial 37 resources and obligations or conduct an oral examination of the defendant to determine his financial 38 resources and obligations. The length of a payment agreement and the amount of the payments shall be 39 reasonable in light of the defendant's financial resources and obligations and shall not be based solely on 40 the amount of fines and costs. The court may offer a payment agreement combining an initial period
41 during which no payment of fines and costs is required followed by a period of installment payments.42 E. No court shall require a defendant to make a down payment upon entering a deferred, modified
43 deferred, or installment payment agreement, other than a subsequent payment agreement, in which case
44 the court may require a down payment pursuant to subsection I. Nothing in this section shall prevent a 45 defendant from voluntarily making a down payment upon entering any payment agreement.46 F. All fines and costs that a defendant owes for all cases in any single court may be incorporated
47 into one payment agreement, unless otherwise ordered by the court in specific cases. A payment 48 agreement shall include only those outstanding fines and costs for which the limitations period set forth 49 in § 19.2-341 has not run.

50 G. Any payment received within 10 days of its due date shall be considered to be timely made.

51 H. At any time during the duration of a payment agreement, the defendant may request a 52 modification of the agreement in writing on a form provided by the Executive Secretary of the Supreme 53 Court, and the court may grant such modification based on a good faith showing of need.54 I. A defendant who has defaulted on a payment agreement may petition the court for a subsequent 55 payment agreement. In determining whether to approve the request for a subsequent payment agreement, 56 the court shall consider any change in the defendant's circumstances. A court may require a down

57 payment to enter into a subsequent payment agreement, provided that the down payment required to 58 enter into a subsequent payment agreement shall not exceed (i) if the fines and costs owed are $500 or 59 less, 10 percent of such amount or (ii) if the fines and costs owed are more than $500, five percent of 60 such amount or $50, whichever is greater. When a defendant enters into a subsequent payment 61 agreement, a court shall not require a defendant to establish a payment history on the subsequent 62 payment agreement before restoring the defendant's driver's license.

63 J. In any case in which a defendant owes fines and costs and where such defendant's sole financial 64 resource is a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income, then such defendant shall be 65 exempt from making payments at least until such time that such defendant has a resource other than a 66 Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income. If such defendant informs the court that his 67 sole financial resource is a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income, the case shall not 68 be referred to collections pursuant to § 19.2-349. Courts shall include in payment plan policies
69 developed in accordance with §§ 19.2-354 and 19.2-354.1 that where the court is informed that a
70 defendant receives a Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income, no payment toward fines 71 and costs shall be taken from such exempt resource.

72 No Social Security benefit or Supplemental Security Income shall be considered an available
73 resource in determining the length of time to pay under a deferred, modified deferred, or installment
74 payment agreement and the amount of payments, if any, pursuant to subsection D.
