

Department of Planning and Budget 2024 Session Fiscal Impact Statement

1. Bill Number: HB1539

House of Origin     Introduced     Substitute     Engrossed
Second House     In Committee     Substitute     Enrolled

2. Patron: Simon

3. Committee: Courts of Justice

4. Title: Abortion or other reproductive health care services; prohibitions on extradition for certain crimes.

5. Summary: Provides that no demand for extradition of a person charged with a criminal violation of the law of another state shall be recognized by the Governor if such alleged violation involves the receipt of or assistance with reproductive health care services, defined in the bill, within the Commonwealth unless the alleged criminal violation would also constitute a criminal offense under the laws of the Commonwealth. The bill also provides that such limit on extradition shall not apply when the person who is subject to such demand for extradition by another state was physically present in the demanding state at the time of the commission of the alleged offense and thereafter fled from such state. The bill adds obtaining, disclosing, selling, or disseminating certain enumerated personal reproductive or sexual health information without the consent of the consumer as a prohibited practice under the Virginia Consumer Protection Act.

6. Budget Amendment Necessary: Yes, Item 51

7. Fiscal Impact Estimates: Preliminary. See Item 8.

8. Fiscal Implications: The Office of the Attorney General and Department of Law (OAG) indicates this bill may increase complaints and potential enforcement actions, and therefore, may increase OAG workload requiring an additional $25,343 per year in attorney and investigator costs.

9. Specific Agency or Political Subdivisions Affected: Office of the Attorney General and Department of Law

10. Technical Amendment Necessary: No.

11. Other Comments: None.
