

1994 SPECIAL SESSION I

INTRODUCED

LD2616336

SENATE JOINT RESOLUTION NO. 1001

Offered April 20, 1994

Commending the Meadowbrook High School boys' basketball team.

Patrons—Martin, Benedetti and Marsh; Delegates: Cox, DeBoer, Nixon, Reid and Watkins

WHEREAS, on March 12, 1994, the boys' basketball team from Meadowbrook High School won the 1994 Group AAA state basketball championship; and

WHEREAS, in defeating the team from William Fleming High School of Roanoke, 70-65, in the title game, the Monarchs from Chesterfield County became the first Central Region team in a decade to win the Group AAA state championship; and

WHEREAS, led by the Central Region Player of the Year Chandler Evans and fellow seniors T. J. Armstrong and Royal Jones, the Monarchs from Meadowbrook High School were ranked first in the state for much of the 1993-94 season and lived up to their ranking in the state tournament; and

WHEREAS, despite strong competition from Petersburg High School in the semifinals and from William Fleming in the final, the Monarchs crowned a 28-2 season with a well-earned state title; and

WHEREAS, the championship performance of the Meadowbrook Monarchs, under the skilled tutelage of Head Coach Mike Sutton, brings great honor to the team and Meadowbrook High School and overdue recognition to Central Region basketball; now, therefore, be it

RESOLVED by the Senate, the House of Delegates concurring, That the General Assembly salute the Monarchs of Meadowbrook High School for their outstanding performance; and, be it

RESOLVED FURTHER, That the Clerk of the Senate prepare a copy of this resolution for presentation to Head Coach Mike Sutton in honor of the championship season of the Meadowbrook High School boys' basketball team.
