6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 19.2-295.1 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 19.2-295.1. Sentencing proceeding by the jury after conviction for a felony.

9 In cases of trial by jury, upon a finding that the defendant is guilty of a felony, a separate 10 proceeding limited to the ascertainment of punishment shall be held as soon as practicable before the 11 same jury. At such proceeding, the Commonwealth shall present the defendant's prior criminal 12 convictions by certified, attested or exemplified copies of the record of conviction, including adult
13 convictions and juvenile convictions and adjudications of delinquency. Prior convictions shall include 14 convictions and adjudications of delinquency under the laws of any state, the District of Columbia, the 15 United States or its territories. The Commonwealth shall provide to the defendant fourteen days prior to 16 trial notice of its intention to introduce evidence of the defendant's prior criminal convictions. Such 17 notice shall include (i) the date of each prior conviction, (ii) the name and jurisdiction of the court
18 where each prior conviction was had and (iii) each offense of which he was convicted. Prior to 19 commencement of the trial, the Commonwealth shall provide to the defendant photocopies of certified 20 copies of the defendant's prior criminal convictions which it intends to introduce at sentencing. After the 21 Commonwealth has introduced such evidence of prior convictions, or if no such evidence is introduced,
22 the defendant may introduce relevant, admissible evidence related to punishment. Nothing in this section
23 shall prevent the Commonwealth or the defendant from introducing relevant, admissible evidence in 24 rebuttal. If the defendant is found guilty of an offense other than a felony, punishment shall be fixed as 25 otherwise provided by law.

26 If the sentence on appeal is subsequently set aside or found invalid solely due to an error in the 27 sentencing proceeding, the court shall impanel a different jury to ascertain punishment, unless the 28 defendant, the attorney for the Commonwealth and the court agree, in the manner provided in 29 § 19.2-257, that the court shall fix punishment.
