HOUSE BILL NO. 451

Offered January 24, 1994

A BILL to amend and reenact § 59.1-274 of the Code of Virginia, relating to designation of enterprise zones.

Patron—DeBoer

Referred to Committee on Counties, Cities and Towns

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:1. That § 59.1-274 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 59.1-274. Enterprise zone and rural enterprise zone designation.

A. The governing body of any county, city or town may make written application to the Department to have an area or areas declared to be an enterprise zone. The governing body of any city with a population of at least 250,000 may make written application to the Department to have more than one designated area declared to be an enterprise zone. Such application shall include a description of the location of the area or areas in question, and a general statement identifying proposed local incentives to complement the state and any federal incentives. Two or more adjacent jurisdictions may file a joint application for an enterprise zone lying in the jurisdictions submitting the application.

B. The Governor may approve upon the recommendation of the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development the designation of up to twenty-five areas as enterprise zones for a period of twenty years; however, when twenty-five areas have been designated as enterprise zones, any city with a population of at least 35,000 but no more than 40,000, any city with a population of at least 102,000 but no more than 107,000, any city with a population of at least 169,000 but no more than 174,000, any city with a population of at least 200,000 but no more than 205,000, and any city with a population of at least 260,000 but no more than 265,000 shall be eligible to apply for additional enterprise zone designations. However, each such city seeking an additional enterprise zone designation shall already have at least one such designation and shall be limited to a total of three enterprise zones. Any county with a population of at least 200,000 but no more than 210,000 shall be eligible to apply for additional enterprise zone designations. Additionally, any counties having a population of more than 26,300 and less than 27,000, more than 33,000 and less than 34,700, and more than 16,300 and less than 17,000, shall be eligible to apply for additional enterprise zone designations. Any such area shall consist of contiguous United States census tracts or block groups or any part thereof in accordance with the most current United States Census or with the most current data from the Center for Public Service or the local planning district commission. Any such area seeking designation as an enterprise zone shall also meet at least one of the following criteria: (i) have twenty-five percent or more of the population with incomes below eighty percent of the median income of the jurisdiction, (ii) have an unemployment rate 1.5 times the state average, or (iii) have a demonstrated floor area vacancy rate of industrial and/or commercial properties of twenty percent or more.
