§ 63.1-204. (For effective date - See note) Acceptance and control over children.

A. A licensed child-welfare agency shall have the right to accept, for any purpose not contrary to the limitations contained in its license, such children as may be entrusted or committed to it by the parents, guardians, relatives or other persons having legal custody thereof, or committed by any court of competent jurisdiction. The agency shall, within the terms of its license and the agreement or order by which such child is entrusted or committed to its care, have custody and control of every child so entrusted or committed and accepted, until he is lawfully discharged, has been adopted, or has attained his majority.

An agency which is licensed as a child-placing agency by the Department of Social Services and certified as a proprietary school for students with disabilities by the Department of Education shall not be required to take custody of any child placed in its special education program but shall enter into a placement agreement with the parents or guardian of the child concerning the respective responsibilities of the agency and the parents or guardian for the care and control of the child. Such an agency shall conform with all other legal requirements of licensed child-placing agencies including the provisions of §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

A licensed private child-placing agency may accept placement of a child through an agreement with a local department of social services where the local department of social services retains legal custody of the child or where the parents or legal guardian of the child retain legal custody but have entered into a placement agreement with the local department or the public agency designated by the community policy and management team.

Whenever a licensed child-placing agency accepts legal custody of a child, the agency shall comply with §§ 16.1-281 and 16.1-282.

A child-caring institution licensed as a temporary emergency shelter may accept a child for placement provided that verbal agreement for placement is obtained from the parents, guardians, relatives or other persons having legal custody thereof, within eight hours of the child's arrival at the facility and provided that a written placement agreement is completed and signed by the legal guardian and the facility representative within twenty-four hours of the child's arrival or by the end of the next business day after the child's arrival.

An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the mother and the father.

An entrustment agreement for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities with respect to the child shall be valid notwithstanding that it is not signed by the father of a child born out of wedlock if the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable, or if such father is given notice of the entrustment by registered or certified mail to his last known address and such father fails to object to the entrustment within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice. An affidavit of the mother that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence which would refute such an affidavit. 570 deemed fully competent and shall have legal capacity to execute a valid entrustment agreement, 571 including an agreement which provides for the termination of all parental rights and responsibilities, and

588 from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance with respect to them, provided that such rights
589 and obligations may be restored to the birth parents and the child by court order prior to entry of final

592 at the time of such revocation. Revocation of an entrustment agreement shall be in writing and signed 593 by the revoking party or counsel of record for the revoking party. The written revocation shall be

607 Prior to the placement of a child for adoption, the licensed child-placing agency or local board
608 having custody of the child shall counsel the birth mother or, if reasonably available, both birth parents,
609 concerning the disposition of their child. In determining the appropriate home in which to place a child 610 for adoption, a married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible to receive placement of a

of the ~~proposed~~ prospective adoptive parents or the child. The physician, attorney or clergyman shall not charge any fee for recommending such a placement to a board or agency and shall not advertise that he is available to make such recommendations.

When a licensed child-placing agency or a local board of public welfare accepts custody of a child for the purpose of placing the child with adoptive parents designated by the birth parents or a person other than a licensed child-placing agency or local board of public welfare, the provisions of § 63.1-220.3 shall apply to such placement.

§ 63.1-220.3. (For effective date - See note) Placement of children for adoption by parent or guardian.

A. The birth parent or legal guardian of a child may place his child for adoption directly with the adoptive parents of his choice ~~only after executing a valid consent to the proposed adoption~~. Consent to the prospective adoption shall be executed before a juvenile and domestic relations district court of competent jurisdiction or, if the birth parent or legal guardian does not reside in Virginia, before a court having jurisdiction over child custody matters in the jurisdiction where the birth parent or legal guardian resides, upon compliance with the provisions of this section. Proceedings under this section shall be advanced on the docket so as to be heard by the court within ten days of filing of the petition, or as soon thereafter as practicable so as to provide the earliest possible disposition.

B. The court shall not accept consent until it determines that:

1. The birth parent(s) are aware of alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, and opportunities for placement with other adoptive families, and that the birth parents' consent is informed and uncoerced.

2. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has counseled the prospective adoptive parents with regard to alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, including the need to address the parental rights of birth parents, the procedures for terminating such rights, and opportunities for adoption of other children; that the prospective adoptive parents' decision is informed and uncoerced; and that they intend to file an adoption petition and proceed toward a final order of adoption.

3. The birth parent(s) and adoptive parents have exchanged identifying information including but not limited to full names, addresses, physical, mental, social and psychological information and any other information necessary to promote the welfare of the child.

4. Any financial agreement or exchange of property among the parties and any fees charged or paid for services related to the placement or adoption of the child have been disclosed to the court and that all parties understand that no binding contract regarding placement or adoption of the child exists.

5. There has been no violation of the provisions of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement; however, if it appears there has been such violation, the court shall not reject consent of the birth parent to the adoption for that reason alone but shall report the alleged violation as required by subsection F G of this section.

6. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has conducted a home study of the prospective adoptive home in accordance with regulations established by the State Board of Social Services and has provided to the court a report of such home study, which shall contain the agency's recommendation regarding the suitability of the placement. A married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible to receive placement of a child for adoption. The home study shall make inquiry as to (i) whether the prospective adoptive parents are financially able, morally suitable, and in satisfactory physical and mental health to enable them to care for the child; (ii) the physical and mental condition of the child, if known; (iii) the circumstances under which the child came to live, or will be living, in the home of the prospective adoptive family, as applicable; (iv) what fees have been paid by the prospective adoptive family or in their behalf in the placement and adoption of the child; (v) whether the requirements of subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this subsection have been met; and (vi) any other matters specified by the court. In the course of the home study, the agency social worker shall meet at least once with the birth parent(s) and prospective adoptive parents simultaneously. When the child has been placed with prospective adoptive parents who are related to the child as specified in subdivision 5 6 of subsection C of this section, this meeting is not required.

7. The birth parent(s) have been informed of their opportunity to be represented by legal counsel.

C. When the court is satisfied that all requirements of subsection B of this section have been met with respect to at least one birth parent and the adoptive child is at least ten days old, ~~the~~ that birth parent or both birth parents, as the case may be, shall execute consent to the proposed adoption in compliance with the provisions of § 63.1-225 while before the court in person and in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court shall accept the consent of the birth parent(s) and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, pending notification to any nonconsenting birth parent, as described hereinafter.

1. ~~Consent shall be revocable for up to fifteen days from its execution for any reason and shall be revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress or (ii) after placement of~~

674 the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and proposed adoptive
675 parents. Such revocation shall be in writing and filed with the court which accepted consent.

676 2. a. The execution of consent before the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court court as required
677 set forth in subsection A shall not be required of the father of a child born to an unmarried woman a
678 birth father who is not married to the mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth
679 if (i) the birth father consents under oath and in writing to the adoption; (ii) the birth mother swears
680 under oath and in writing that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable; (iii) the 681 identity of the birth father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, the father he is given notice
682 of the proceedings by registered or certified mail to his last known address and he fails to object to the 683 proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or (iv) the putative birth father named
684 by the birth mother denies under oath and in writing paternity of the child. An affidavit of the birth 685 mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of 686 this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The 687 absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is 688 reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is 689 reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking 690 into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

691 b. The court may accept the written consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried
692 woman who is not married to the birth mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth,
693 provided that the identifying information required in subsection B3 is filed in writing with the court of 694 jurisdiction. Such consent shall be executed after the birth of the child, shall advise the birth father of 695 his opportunity for legal representation, and shall be presented to the court for acceptance. The consent
696 may waive further notice of the adoption proceedings and shall contain the name, address and telephone
697 number of the birth father's legal counsel or an acknowledgment that he was informed of his [right 698 opportunity] to be represented by legal counsel and declined such representation.

699 c. In the event that the birth mother's consent is not executed in court in accordance with subsection
700 A, the consent of the birth father of a child born to an unmarried woman who is not married to the 701 birth mother of the child must shall be executed in court.

702 d. A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his 703 consent under subsection A shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which 704 would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or, the impossibility or improbability of 705 cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth 706 of the child, in which case the husband's consent shall not be required.

707 2. A birth parent whose consent is required as set forth in § 63.1-225, whose identity is known and 708 who neither consents before the court as described above, nor executes a written consent [to the 709 adoption or a denial of paternity] out of court as provided above, shall be given notice of the 710 proceedings pending before the court and be given the opportunity to appear before the court. Such 711 hearing may occur subsequent to the proceeding wherein the consenting birth parent appeared but may 712 not be held until twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the nonconsenting birth parent, or 713 if personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of 714 publication against such birth parent. [The court may appoint counsel for the birth parent(s).] If the 715 court finds that consent is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, as set forth in 716 § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, it may grant the petition without such consent [and enter an order 717 waiving the requirement of consent of the nonconsenting birth parent and transferring custody of the 718 child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter] . If 719 the court denies the petition, [the acceptance of consent and transfer of custody described in subsection
720 C of this section shall be void. the court shall order that any consent given for the purpose of such 721 placement shall be void and, if necessary, the court shall determine custody of the child as between the 722 birth parents.]

723 3. If the court finds that the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld
724 contrary to the best interests of the child or is unobtainable, the court may accept consent of the other 725 parent and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents:

726 a. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the party or parties whose consent is required
727 by this section; or

728 b. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of 729 publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

730 c. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove
731 required is not reasonably ascertainable.

732 If Except as provided in subsection C4 of this section, if consent cannot be obtained from at least
733 one birth parent, the court shall deny the petition and determine custody of the child pursuant to 734 § 16.1-278.2.

735 4. [If both birth parents have failed, without good cause, and after receiving proper notice of the hearing pursuant to § 16.1-264, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this section, the court may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent, and enter an order waiving consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter. If the child was placed by the birth parent(s) with the prospective adoptive parents and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parents for more than ninety days, and if both birth parents have failed, without good cause, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this section for which they were given proper notice pursuant to § 16.1-264, the court may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent and enter an order waiving consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter. Prior to the entry of such an order, the court may appoint legal counsel for the birth parents and shall find by clear and convincing evidence that (i) the birth parents were given proper notice of the hearing(s) to execute consent and of the hearing to proceed without their consent, (ii) that the birth parents failed to show good cause for their failure to appear at such hearing(s) and (iii) that the consent of the birth parents is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child pursuant to § 63.1-225.1 or is unobtainable.]

5. If both birth parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the petition without the filing of any consent.

56. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with prospective adoptive parents who are the child's grandparents, adult brother or sister, or adult uncle or aunt or adult great uncle or great aunt, consent does not have to be executed in court in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court may accept written consent that has been signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgements. No hearing shall be required for the court's acceptance of such consent.

When such child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) continuously for three or more years, this section shall not apply, and consent shall be executed in accordance with subsection D of § 63.1-225.

7. No consent shall be required from the birth father of a child placed pursuant to this section when such father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as a result of such violation, nor shall the birth father be entitled to notice of any of the proceedings under this section.

6. After accepting the consent, the court shall 8. Upon a finding by the court that all of the requirements of this section have been met, and upon entry of such orders as may be appropriate, including the transfer of custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, to be responsible for the care of the child until such time as the court order is modified. Any such order shall include specific findings with respect to the applicable consent and notice provisions of subdivisions 2 through 5 of subsection C. The court shall review such orders at least annually until such time as the final order of adoption is entered.

7. Upon execution of consent and transfer of custody, the prospective adoptive family parent(s) may file a petition for adoption of the child pursuant to § 63.1-221. The court shall review each order entered under this section at least annually until such time as the final order of adoption is entered.

D. Consent shall be revocable as follows:

1. By either consenting birth parent for any reason for up to fifteen days from its execution.

a. Such revocation shall be in writing, signed by the revoking party or counsel of record for the revoking party and shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed during the business day of the court, within the time period specified in this section. If the revocation period expires on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or any day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by statute, the revocation period shall be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or other day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by statute.

b. Upon the filing of a valid revocation within the time period set out in this section, the court shall order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement shall be void and, if necessary, the court shall determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.

2. By any party prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress, or (ii) after placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and prospective adoptive parents.

E. The court shall not accept the consent if the requirements of subsection B of this section have not been met. In such cases, it shall refer the birth parent to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency for investigation and recommendation in accordance with subsection B above. If the court determines that any of the parties is financially unable to obtain the required services, it shall refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

~~EF.~~ If the court determines from the information provided to it that placement in the prospective adoptive home will be contrary to the best interests of the child, it shall so inform the birth parents. If

797 the birth parents choose not to retain custody of the child nor to designate other prospective adoptive
798 parents, or if the birth parents' whereabouts are not reasonably ascertainable, the court shall determine 799 custody of the child.

800 F G. If the court or any participating licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency suspects that 801 there has been a violation of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement, it shall report such findings
802 to the Commissioner of Social Services for investigation and appropriate action. If the Commissioner
803 suspects that a person has violated § 63.1-220.4, he shall report his findings to the appropriate attorney
804 for the Commonwealth. If the Commissioner believes that such violation has occurred in the course of 805 the practice of a profession or occupation licensed or regulated pursuant to Title 54.1, he shall also 806 report such findings to the appropriate regulatory authority for investigation and appropriate disciplinary 807 action.

808 GH. The Department of Social Services shall develop and disseminate information to the public 809 regarding the provisions of this law, including the desirability of initiating the procedures required by 810 subsection B of this section as early in the placement and adoption process as possible to ensure that 811 birth parents are aware of the provisions of this law and begin required procedures in a timely manner.

812 § 63.1-220.3. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Placement of children for adoption by parent or 813 guardian.

814 A. The birth parent or legal guardian of a child may place his child for adoption directly with the 815 adoptive parents of his choice ~~only after executing a valid consent to the proposed adoption~~. Consent to 816 the proposed adoption shall be executed before a family court of competent jurisdiction or, if the birth
817 parent or legal guardian does not reside in Virginia, before a court having jurisdiction over child
818 custody matters in the jurisdiction where the birth parent or legal guardian resides, upon compliance
819 with the provisions of this section. Proceedings under this section shall be advanced on the docket so as 820 to be heard by the court within ten days of filing of the petition, or as soon thereafter as practicable so 821 as to provide the earliest possible disposition.

822 B. The court shall not accept consent until it determines that:

823 1. The birth parent(s) are aware of alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, and opportunities
824 for placement with other adoptive families, and that the birth parents' consent is informed and 825 uncoerced.

826 2. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has counseled the prospective adoptive parents
827 with regard to alternatives to adoption, adoption procedures, including the need to address the parental 828 rights of birth parents, the procedures for terminating such rights, and opportunities for adoption of other 829 children; that the prospective adoptive parents' decision is informed and uncoerced; and that they intend 830 to file an adoption petition and proceed toward a final order of adoption.

831 3. The birth parent(s) and adoptive parents have exchanged identifying information including but not
832 limited to full names, addresses, physical, mental, social and psychological information and any other 833 information necessary to promote the welfare of the child.

834 4. Any financial agreement or exchange of property among the parties and any fees charged or paid
835 for services related to the placement or adoption of the child have been disclosed to the court and that 836 all parties understand that no binding contract regarding placement or adoption of the child exists.

837 5. There has been no violation of the provisions of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement;
838 however, if it appears there has been such violation, the court shall not reject consent of the birth parent
839 to the adoption for that reason alone but shall report the alleged violation as required by subsection F 840 G of this section.

841 6. A licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency has conducted a home study of the prospective
842 adoptive home in accordance with regulations established by the State Board of Social Services and has 843 provided to the court a report of such home study, which shall contain the agency's recommendation
844 regarding the suitability of the placement. A married couple or an unmarried individual shall be eligible 845 to receive placement of a child for adoption. The home study shall make inquiry as to (i) whether the 846 prospective adoptive parents are financially able, morally suitable, and in satisfactory physical and 847 mental health to enable them to care for the child; (ii) the physical and mental condition of the child, if 848 known; (iii) the circumstances under which the child came to live, or will be living, in the home of the 849 prospective adoptive family, as applicable; (iv) what fees have been paid by the prospective adoptive
850 family or in their behalf in the placement and adoption of the child; (v) whether the requirements of 851 subdivisions 1, 2, 3 and 5 of this subsection have been met; and (vi) any other matters specified by the 852 court. In the course of the home study, the agency social worker shall meet at least once with the birth
853 parent(s) and prospective adoptive parents simultaneously. When the child has been placed with 854 prospective adoptive parents who are related to the child as specified in subdivision 5 6 of subsection C 855 of this section, this meeting is not required.

856 7. The birth parent(s) have been informed of their opportunity to be represented by legal counsel.

857 C. When the court is satisfied that all requirements of subsection B of this section have been met
858 with respect to at least one birth parent and the adoptive child is at least ten days old, ~~the~~ that birth parent or both birth parents, as the case may be, shall execute consent to the proposed adoption in compliance with the provisions of § 63.1-225 while before the court in person and in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The court shall accept the consent of the birth parent(s) and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, pending notification to any nonconsenting birth parent, as described hereinafter.

1. Consent shall be revocable for up to fifteen days from its execution for any reason and shall be revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress; or (ii) after placement of the child in an adoptive home; upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and proposed adoptive parents. Such revocation shall be in writing and filed with the court which accepted consent.

2. a. The execution of consent before the Juvenile and Domestic Relations Court ~~court~~ as required ~~set forth~~ in subsection A shall not be required of the father of a child born to an unmarried woman ~~a birth father who is not married to the mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth~~ if (i) the ~~birth~~ father consents under oath and in writing to the adoption; (ii) the ~~birth~~ mother swears under oath and in writing that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable; (iii) the identity of the ~~birth~~ father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, ~~the father~~ he is given notice of the proceedings by registered or certified mail to his last known address and he fails to object to the proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or (iv) the putative ~~birth~~ father named by the ~~birth~~ mother denies under oath and in writing paternity of the child. An affidavit of the ~~birth~~ mother that the identity of the ~~birth~~ father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the ~~birth~~ father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the ~~birth~~ mother and the ~~birth~~ father.

b. The court may accept the written consent of the ~~birth~~ father of a child born to an unmarried woman ~~who is not married to the birth mother of the child at the time of the child's conception or birth~~, provided that the identifying information required in subsection B3 is filed in writing with the court of jurisdiction. Such consent shall be executed after the birth of the child, shall advise the birth father of his opportunity for legal representation, and shall be presented to the court for acceptance. The consent may waive further notice of the adoption proceedings and shall contain the name, address and telephone number of the birth father's legal counsel or an acknowledgment that he was informed of his [right opportunity] to be represented by legal counsel and declined such representation.

c. In the event that the birth mother's consent is not executed in court in accordance with subsection A, the consent of the ~~birth~~ father of a child born to an unmarried woman ~~who is not married to the birth mother of the child must~~ shall be executed in court.

d. A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his consent under subsection A shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or, the impossibility or improbability of cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth of the child, in which case the husband's consent shall not be required.

2. A birth parent whose consent is required as set forth in § 63.1-25, whose identity is known and who neither consents before the court as described above, nor executes a written consent [to the adoption or a denial of paternity] out of court as provided above, shall be given notice of the proceedings pending before the court and be given the opportunity to appear before the court. Such hearing may occur subsequent to the proceeding wherein the consenting birth parent appeared but may not be held until twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the nonconsenting birth parent, or if personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against such birth parent. [The court may appoint counsel for the birth parent(s).] If the court finds that consent is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, it may grant the petition without such consent [and enter an order waiving the requirement of consent of the nonconsenting birth parent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become effective fifteen days thereafter] . If the court denies the petition, [~~the acceptance of consent and transfer of custody described in subsection C of this section shall be void.~~ the court shall order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement shall be void and, if necessary, the court shall determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.]

3- If the court finds that the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child or is unobtainable, the court may accept consent of the other parent and transfer custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents:

a. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice on the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

920 b. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of 921 publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

922 e. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove
923 required is not reasonably ascertainable.

924 If Except as provided in subsection C4 of this section, if consent cannot be obtained from at least
925 one birth parent, the court shall deny the petition and determine custody of the child pursuant to 926 § 16.1-278.2.

927 4. ~~[If both birth parents have failed, without good cause, and after receiving proper notice of the~~
928 ~~hearing pursuant to § 16.1-264, to appear at a hearing to execute consent under this section, the court~~
929 ~~may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent, and enter an order waiving consent~~
930 ~~and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall become~~ 931 ~~effective fifteen days thereafter. If the child was placed by the birth parent(s) with the prospective~~
932 ~~adoptive parents and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parents for more~~
933 ~~than ninety days, and if both birth parents have failed, without good cause, to appear at a hearing to~~ 934 ~~execute consent under this section for which they were given proper notice pursuant to § 16.1-264, the~~
935 ~~court may grant the petition without the consent of either birth parent and enter an order waiving~~
936 ~~consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, which order shall~~ 937 ~~become effective fifteen days thereafter. Prior to the entry of such an order, the court may appoint legal~~ 938 ~~counsel for the birth parents and shall find by clear and convincing evidence that (i) the birth parents~~
939 ~~were given proper notice of the hearing(s) to execute consent and of the hearing to proceed without~~ 940 ~~their consent, (ii) that the birth parents failed to show good cause for their failure to appear at such~~ 941 ~~hearing(s) and (iii) that the consent of the birth parents is withheld contrary to the best interests of the~~
942 ~~child pursuant to § 63.1-225.1 or is unobtainable.]~~

943 5. If both birth parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the 944 petition without the filing of any consent.

945 § 6. When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with prospective adoptive parents who are 946 the child's grandparents, adult brother or sister, ~~or~~ adult uncle or aunt ~~or adult great uncle or great aunt~~,
947 consent does not have to be executed in court in the presence of the prospective adoptive parents. The 948 court may accept written consent that has been signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by 949 law to take ~~acknowledgements~~ acknowledgments. ~~No hearing shall be required for the court's~~ 950 ~~acceptance of such consent..~~

951 When such child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent(s) continuously for three 952 or more years, this section shall not apply, and consent shall be executed in accordance with subsection
953 D E of § 63.1-225.

954 7. ~~No consent shall be required from the birth father of a child placed pursuant to this section when~~
955 ~~such father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and~~ 956 ~~the child was conceived as a result of such violation, nor shall the birth father be entitled to notice of~~ 957 ~~any of the proceedings under this section.~~

958 6. ~~After accepting the consent, the court shall~~ 8. Upon a finding by the court that all of the 959 requirements of this section have been met, and upon entry of such orders as may be appropriate,
960 including the transfer of custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, ~~to be responsible for~~ 961 the care of the child until such time as the court order is modified. Any such order shall include specific 962 findings with respect to the applicable consent and notice provisions of subdivisions 2 through 5 of 963 subsection C. The court shall review such orders at least annually until such time as the final order of 964 adoption is entered.

965 7. Upon execution of consent and transfer of custody, the prospective adoptive family parents may 966 file a petition for adoption of the child pursuant to § 63.1-221. The court shall review each order 967 entered under this section at least annually until such time as the final order of adoption is entered.

968 D. Consent shall be revocable as follows:

969 1. By either consenting birth parent for any reason for up to fifteen days from its execution.

970 a. Such revocation shall be in writing, signed by the revoking party or counsel of record for the 971 revoking party and shall be filed with the clerk of the court in which the petition is filed during the 972 business day of the court, within the time period specified in this section. If the revocation period 973 expires on a Saturday, Sunday, legal holiday or any day on which the clerk's office is closed as 974 authorized by statute, the revocation period shall be extended to the next day that is not a Saturday,
975 Sunday, legal holiday or other day on which the clerk's office is closed as authorized by statute.

976 b. Upon the filing of a valid revocation within the time period set out in this section, the court shall 977 order that any consent given for the purpose of such placement shall be void and, if necessary, the 978 court shall determine custody of the child as between the birth parents.

979 2. By any party prior to the final order of adoption (I) upon proof of fraud or duress, or (ii) after 980 placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and 981 prospective adoptive parents.

E. The court shall not accept the consent if the requirements of subsection B of this section have not been met. In such cases, it shall refer the birth parent to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency for investigation and recommendation in accordance with subsection B above. If the court determines that any of the parties is financially unable to obtain the required services, it shall refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

F. If the court determines from the information provided to it that placement in the prospective adoptive home will be contrary to the best interests of the child, it shall so inform the birth parents. If the birth parents choose not to retain custody of the child nor to designate other prospective adoptive parents, or if the birth parents' whereabouts are not reasonably ascertainable, the court shall determine custody of the child.

G. If the court or any participating licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency suspects that there has been a violation of § 63.1-220.4 in connection with the placement, it shall report such findings to the Commissioner of Social Services for investigation and appropriate action. If the Commissioner suspects that a person has violated § 63.1-220.4, he shall report his findings to the appropriate attorney for the Commonwealth. If the Commissioner believes that such violation has occurred in the course of the practice of a profession or occupation licensed or regulated pursuant to Title 54.1, he shall also report such findings to the appropriate regulatory authority for investigation and appropriate disciplinary action.

H. The Department of Social Services shall develop and disseminate information to the public regarding the provisions of this law, including the desirability of initiating the procedures required by subsection B of this section as early in the placement and adoption process as possible to ensure that birth parents are aware of the provisions of this law and begin required procedures in a timely manner.

§ 63.1-220.4. Certain exchange of property prohibited; penalty.

No person or child-placing agency shall charge, pay, give, or agree to give or accept any money, property, service or other thing of value in connection with a placement or adoption or any act undertaken pursuant to this chapter except (i) reasonable and customary services provided by a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency and fees paid for such services; (ii) payment or reimbursement for medical expenses, and insurance premiums which are directly related to the birth mother's pregnancy and hospitalization for the birth of the child who is the subject of the adoption proceedings, for mental health counseling received by the birth mother or birth father related to the adoption, and for expenses incurred for medical care for the child; (iii) payment or reimbursement for reasonable and necessary expenses for food, clothing, and shelter when, upon the written advice of her physician, the birth mother is unable to work or otherwise support herself due to medical reasons or complications associated with the pregnancy or birth of the child; (iv) payment or reimbursement for ~~transportation necessary to execute consent~~ reasonable expenses incurred incident to any court appearance pursuant to § 63.1-220.3 including, but not limited to transportation, food and lodging; (v) usual and customary fees for legal services in adoption proceedings; and (vi) payment or reimbursement of reasonable expenses incurred for transportation in connection with any of the services specified in this section or intercountry placements as defined in § 63.1-195 and as necessary for compliance with state and federal law in such placements. The Commissioner is authorized to investigate cases in which fees paid for legal services appear to be in excess of usual and customary fees in order to determine if there has been compliance with the provisions of this section.

§ 63.1-220.5. (For effective date - See note) Removal of child from adoptive home.

When a child is placed in an adoptive home pursuant to an adoptive home placement agreement by a local board of public welfare or social services or by a licensed child-placing agency pursuant to § 63.1-220.2, or by the birth parent or legal guardian of the child pursuant to § 63.1-220.3, and a court of competent jurisdiction has not entered an interlocutory order of adoption, such child shall not be removed from the physical custody of the adoptive parents, except (i) with the consent of the adoptive parents, (ii) upon order of the juvenile and domestic relations district court or the circuit court of competent jurisdiction, (iii) pursuant to § 63.1-211, which removal shall be subject to review by the juvenile and domestic relations district court upon petition of the adoptive parents, or (iv) upon order of the court which accepted consent when consent has been revoked as authorized by § 63.1-220.3 or § 63.1-225.

1049 removed from the physical custody of the adoptive parents, except (i) with the consent of the adoptive 1050 parents, (ii) upon order of the family court of competent jurisdiction, (iii) pursuant to § 63.1-211, which

1066 Proceedings for the adoption of a minor child and for a change of name of such child shall be 1067 instituted only by petition to a court of record having chancery jurisdiction in the county or city in 1068 which the petitioner resides or in the city or county in which is located the child-placing agency which 1069 placed the child. Such petition may be filed by any natural person who resides in the Commonwealth or 1070 who has custody of a child placed by a child-placing agency of the Commonwealth, for leave to adopt a 1071 minor child not legally his by birth and, if it is so desired by the petitioner, also to change the name of 1072 such child. In the case of married persons, the petition shall be the joint petition of the husband and 1073 wife but, in the event the child to be adopted is legally the child by birth or adoption of one of the 1074 petitioners, such petitioner shall unite in the petition for the purpose of indicating his or her consent to 1075 the prayer thereof only. The petition shall contain a full disclosure of the circumstances under which the 1076 child came to live and is living, in the home of the petitioner. Each petition for adoption shall be signed 1077 by the petitioner as well as by counsel of record, if any. In any case in which the petition seeks the 1078 entry of an adoption order without referral for investigation, the petition shall be under oath.

1079 When the birth parent has placed the child directly with the petitioners pursuant to the provisions of 1080 § 63.1-220.3, the petition shall state that the findings required by that section have been made and shall 1081 be accompanied by appropriate documentation supporting such statement, to include copies of 1082 documents executing consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, 1083 and a copy of the report required by subdivision B 6 of § 63.1-220.3. The court shall not waive any of 1084 the requirements of this paragraph nor any of the requirements of § 63.1-220.3.

1085 A petition for the adoption of a child placed in the home of the petitioners by a child-placing agency
1086 shall be filed in the name by which the child will be known after adoption, provided the name is 1087 followed by the registration number of the child's original birth certificate and the state or country in 1088 which the registration occurred unless it is verified by the registrar of vital statistics of the state or 1089 country of birth that such information is not available. The report of investigation required by 1090 § 63.1-223 and, when applicable, the report required by § 63.1-228 shall be identified with the child's 1091 name as it appears on the birth certificate, the birth registration number and the name by which the child 1092 is to be known after the final order of adoption is entered.

1093 A single petition for adoption under the provisions of this section shall be sufficient for the 1094 concurrent adoption by the same petitioners of two or more children who have the same birth parent or 1095 parents; and nothing in this section shall be construed as having heretofore required a separate petition 1096 for each of such children.

1097 When a foster parent who has a child placed in the foster parents' home by a licensed or duly 1098 authorized child-placing agency desires to adopt the child and (i) the child has resided in the home of

1100 have been terminated, the court shall accept the petition filed by the foster parent and shall order a
1101 thorough investigation of the matter to be made pursuant to § 63.1-223. The court may refer the matter
1102 for investigation to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency other than the agency holding 1103 custody of the child. Upon completion of the investigation and report and filing of the consent of the 1104 agency holding custody of the child, or upon the finding contemplated by § 63.1-225 ~~€ D~~, the court may enter a final order of adoption pursuant to subsection A B of § 63.1-229 waiving visitation requirements, if the court determines that the adoption is in the best interests of the child.

§ 63.1-221. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Jurisdiction and proceedings.

Proceedings for the adoption of a minor child and for a change of name of such child shall be instituted only by petition to a family court in the county or city in which the petitioner resides or in the city or county in which is located the child-placing agency which placed the child. Such petition may be filed by any natural person who resides in the Commonwealth or who has custody of a child placed by a child-placing agency of the Commonwealth, for leave to adopt a minor child not legally his by birth and, if it is so desired by the petitioner, also to change the name of such child. In the case of married persons, the petition shall be the joint petition of the husband and wife but, in the event the child to be adopted is legally the child by birth or adoption of one of the petitioners, such petitioner shall unite in the petition for the purpose of indicating his or her consent to the prayer thereof only. The petition shall contain a full disclosure of the circumstances under which the child came to live and is living, in the home of the petitioner. Each petition for adoption shall be signed by the petitioner as well as by counsel of record, if any. In any case in which the petition seeks the entry of an adoption order without referral for investigation, the petition shall be under oath.

When the birth parent has placed the child directly with the petitioners pursuant to the provisions of § 63.1-220.3, the petition shall state that the findings required by that section have been made and shall be accompanied by appropriate documentation supporting such statement, to include copies of documents executing consent and transferring custody of the child to the prospective adoptive parents, and a copy of the report required by subdivision B 6 of § 63.1-220.3. The court shall not waive any of the requirements of this paragraph nor any of the requirements of § 63.1-220.3.

A petition for the adoption of a child placed in the home of the petitioners by a child-placing agency shall be filed in the name by which the child will be known after adoption, provided the name is followed by the registration number of the child's original birth certificate and the state or country in which the registration occurred unless it is verified by the registrar of vital statistics of the state or country of birth that such information is not available. The report of investigation required by § 63.1-223 and, when applicable, the report required by § 63.1-228 shall be identified with the child's name as it appears on the birth certificate, the birth registration number and the name by which the child is to be known after the final order of adoption is entered.

A single petition for adoption under the provisions of this section shall be sufficient for the concurrent adoption by the same petitioners of two or more children who have the same birth parent or parents; and nothing in this section shall be construed as having heretofore required a separate petition for each of such children.

When a foster parent who has a child placed in the foster parents' home by a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency desires to adopt the child and (i) the child has resided in the home of such foster parent continuously for at least eighteen months and (ii) the birth parents' rights to the child have been terminated, the court shall accept the petition filed by the foster parent and shall order a thorough investigation of the matter to be made pursuant to § 63.1-223. The court may refer the matter for investigation to a licensed or duly authorized child-placing agency other than the agency holding custody of the child. Upon completion of the investigation and report and filing of the consent of the agency holding custody of the child, or upon the finding contemplated by subsection C D of § 63.1-225, the court may enter a final order of adoption pursuant to subsection A B of § 63.1-229 waiving visitation requirements, if the court determines that the adoption is in the best interests of the child.

§ 63.1-222. (For effective date - See note) Adoption of certain persons eighteen years of age or over.

A petition may be filed by any natural person, resident of this Commonwealth: (i) for the adoption of a stepchild eighteen years of age or over to whom he has stood in loco parentis for a period of at least three months; or (ii) for the adoption of a niece or nephew over eighteen years of age who has no living parents and who has lived in the home of the petitioner for at least three months; or (iii) for the adoption of any person eighteen years of age or over who is the ~~natural~~ birth child of the petitioner or who had resided in the home of the petitioner for a period of at least three months prior to becoming eighteen years of age; or (iv) for the adoption of any person eighteen years of age or older, for good cause shown, provided that the person to be adopted is at least fifteen years younger than the petitioner and the petitioner and the person to be adopted have known each other for at least five years prior to the filing of the petition for adoption, and provided further that both the petitioner and the person to be adopted have been residents of the Commonwealth during the five-year period when they knew each other. Proceedings in any such case shall conform as near as may be to proceedings for the adoption of a minor child under this chapter except that:

(1) No consent of either parent shall be required;

(2) The consent of the person to be adopted shall be required in all cases;

1166 (3) The investigations and visitations provided for in §§ 63.1-223 and 63.1-228 shall not be made
1167 unless the court in its discretion so requires. However, if a petition is filed for the adoption of any
1168 person eighteen years of age or older under (iv) above, the court shall require an investigation and 1169 report to be made pursuant to § 63.1-223.

1170 Any interlocutory or final order issued in any case under this section shall have the same effect as
1171 other orders issued under this chapter; and in any such case the word "child" in any other section of this
1172 chapter shall be construed to refer to the person whose adoption is petitioned for under this section. The
1173 entry of a final order of adoption pursuant to this section which incorporates a change of name shall be 1174 deemed to meet the requirements of § 8.01-217.

1175 The provisions of this section shall apply to any person who would have been eligible for adoption
1176 hereunder prior to July 1, 1972.

1177 § 63.1-222. (Delayed effective date - See notes) Adoption of certain persons eighteen years of age or 1178 over.

1179 A petition may be filed in the family court by any natural person, resident of this Commonwealth: (i)
1180 for the adoption of a stepchild eighteen years of age or over to whom he has stood in loco parentis for a
1181 period of at least three months; or (ii) for the adoption of a niece or nephew over eighteen years of age
1182 who has no living parents and who has lived in the home of the petitioner for at least three months; or 1183 (iii) for the adoption of any person eighteen years of age or over who is the ~~natural~~ birth child of the 1184 petitioner or who had resided in the home of the petitioner for a period of at least three months prior to 1185 becoming eighteen years of age; or (iv) for the adoption of any person eighteen years of age or older,
1186 for good cause shown, provided that the person to be adopted is at least fifteen years younger than the 1187 petitioner and the petitioner and the person to be adopted have known each other for at least five years
1188 prior to the filing of the petition for adoption, and provided further that both the petitioner and the 1189 person to be adopted have been residents of the Commonwealth during the five-year period when they 1190 knew each other. Proceedings in any such case shall conform as near as may be to proceedings for the 1191 adoption of a minor child under this chapter except that:

1192 (1) No consent of either parent shall be required;

1193 (2) The consent of the person to be adopted shall be required in all cases;

1194 (3) The investigations and visitations provided for in §§ 63.1-223 and 63.1-228 shall not be made
1195 unless the court in its discretion so requires. However, if a petition is filed for the adoption of any
1196 person eighteen years of age or older under (iv) above, the court shall require an investigation and 1197 report to be made pursuant to § 63.1-223.

1198 Any interlocutory or final order issued in any case under this section shall have the same effect as
1199 other orders issued under this chapter; and in any such case the word "child" in any other section of this
1200 chapter shall be construed to refer to the person whose adoption is petitioned for under this section. The
1201 entry of a final order of adoption pursuant to this section which incorporates a change of name shall be
1202 deemed to meet the requirements of § 8.01-217.

1203 The provisions of this section shall apply to any person who would have been eligible for adoption
1204 hereunder prior to July 1, 1972.

1205 § 63.1-223. Preliminary investigations; report to court.

1206 A. Upon the filing of the petition, the court wherein the petition is filed, or the clerk thereof upon 1207 order of the court, shall forward a copy of the petition and all exhibits thereto to the Commissioner and 1208 to the agency which placed the child. In cases where the child was placed by an agency in another state, 1209 or by an agency, court, or other entity in another country, the petition and all exhibits shall be 1210 forwarded to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare or licensed
1211 child-placing agency, whichever agency completed the home study or provided supervision. If no
1212 Virginia agency provided such services, the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the local 1213 director of social services or superintendent of public welfare. If the child was not placed by an agency, 1214 the petition and all exhibits shall be forwarded to the director of social services or superintendent of 1215 public welfare of the locality where the petitioners reside or resided at the time of filing the petition, or 1216 had legal residence at the time of the filing of the petition. However, in cases where a licensed 1217 child-placing agency has completed a home study in accordance with § 63.1-220.3 B 6, the petition and 1218 all exhibits shall be forwarded to the licensed child-placing agency. Except as provided in subsection E, 1219 the applicable agency shall make a thorough investigation of the matter and report thereon in writing, in 1220 such form as the Commissioner may prescribe, to the court within ninety days after the copy of the 1221 petition and all exhibits thereto are forwarded. A copy of the report to the court shall be served on the 1222 Commissioner by delivering or mailing a copy to him on or before the day of filing the report with the 1223 court. On the report to the court there shall be appended either acceptance of service or certificate of the 1224 local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare, or other welfare agency of the 1225 county or city or the representative of the child-placing agency, that copies were served as this section
1226 requires, showing the date of delivery or mailing. The Commissioner may notify the court within 1227 twenty-one days of the date of delivery or mailing of the report as shown by the agency, during which time the court shall withhold consideration of the merits of the petition pending review of the agency report by the Commissioner, of any disapproval thereof stating reasons for any further action on the report which he deems necessary.

B. If the report required in subsection A is not made to the court within the periods specified, the court may proceed to hear and determine the merits of the petition and enter such order or orders as the court may deem appropriate.

C. The investigation requested by the court shall include, in addition to other inquiries which the court may require the child-placing agency or local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare to make, inquiries as to (i) whether the petitioner is financially able, except as provided in Chapter 11.1 (§ 63.1-238.1 et seq.) of this title, morally suitable, in satisfactory physical and mental health and a proper person to care for and to train the child; (ii) what the physical and mental condition of the child is; (iii) why the parents, if living, desire to be relieved of the responsibility for the custody, care and maintenance of the child, and what their attitude is toward the proposed adoption; (iv) whether the parents have abandoned the child or are morally unfit to have custody over him; (v) the circumstances under which the child came to live, and is living, in the same home of the petitioner; (vi) whether the child is a suitable child for adoption by the petitioner; and (vii) what fees have been paid by the petitioners or in their behalf to persons or agencies which have assisted them in obtaining the child. Any report made to the court shall include a recommendation as to the action to be taken by the court on the petition. A copy of any report made to the court shall be furnished counsel of record representing the adopting parent or parents. When the investigation reveals that there may have been a violation of § 63.1-220.1 or § 63.1-220.4, the local director or superintendent or child-placing agency shall so inform the court and shall make such violation known to the Commissioner.

D. The report shall include the relevant physical and mental history of the birth parents if known to the person making the report. However, nothing in this subsection shall require that an investigation be made.

E. When a placement is a parental placement and consent has been executed in accordance with the provisions of § 63.1-220.3 or subsection D of § 63.1-225, the court may proceed without the investigations and report required by this section.

§ 63.1-225. Parental, etc., consent.

A. No petition for adoption shall be granted, except as hereinafter provided in this section, unless written consent to the proposed adoption is filed with the petition. Such consent shall be signed and acknowledged before an officer authorized by law to take acknowledgments. The consent of a birth parent for the adoption of his child placed directly by the birth parent shall be executed as provided in § 63.1-220.3, and the court may accept a certified copy of an order entered pursuant to § 63.1-220.3 in satisfaction of all requirements of this section, provided the order clearly evidences compliance with the applicable notice and consent requirements of § 63.1-220.3.

B. No consent shall be required of the birth father of a child when the birth father is convicted of a violation of subsection A of § 18.2-61 or subsection B of § 18.2-366, and the child was conceived as a result of such violation.

C. A birth parent who has not reached the age of eighteen shall have legal capacity to give consent to adoption and shall be as fully bound thereby as if the birth parent had attained the age of eighteen years.

D. Consent shall be executed:

1. By the parents or surviving parent of a child born in wedlock; ~~however, if~~ A child born to a married birth mother shall be presumed to be the child of her husband and his consent shall be required. This presumption may be rebutted by evidence which would either tend to establish the paternity of another man, or the impossibility or improbability of cohabitation of the birth mother and her husband for a period of at least 300 days preceding the birth of the child, in such case his consent shall not be required. If the parents are divorced and the residual parental rights and responsibilities as defined in § 16.1-228 of one parent have been terminated by terms of the divorce, or other order of a court having jurisdiction, the petition may be granted without the consent of such parent; or

2. By the parents or surviving parent of a child born ~~out of wedlock~~ to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth. The consent of the birth father of a child born ~~to an unmarried woman~~ to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth shall not be required (i) if the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable, or (ii) if the identity of such birth father is ascertainable and his whereabouts are known, such birth father is given notice of the adoption proceeding by registered or certified mail to his last known address and such birth father fails to object to the adoption proceeding within twenty-one days of the mailing of such notice; or

3. By the child-placing agency or the local board of public welfare or social services having custody of the child, with right to place him for adoption, through court commitment or parental agreement as provided in §§ 63.1-56, 63.1-204 or § 63.1-220.2; or an agency outside the Commonwealth which is licensed or otherwise duly authorized to place children for adoption by virtue of the laws under which it operates; and

4. By the child if he is fourteen years of age or older, unless the court finds that the best interests of the child will be served by not requiring such consent.

~~Ð E.~~ When a child has been placed by the birth parent(s) with the prospective adoptive parent(s) who is the child's grandparent, adult brother or sister, ~~or adult uncle or aunt, and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent continuously for three or more years or adult great uncle or great aunt,~~ the court may accept the written and signed consent of the birth parent which has been acknowledged by an officer authorized by law to take such ~~acknowledgements~~ acknowledgments.

~~EF.~~ If after ~~hearing~~ consideration of the evidence, the court finds that the valid consent of any person or agency whose consent is hereinabove required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child as set forth in § 63.1-225.1, or is unobtainable, the court may grant the petition without such consent:

1. Twenty-one days after personal service of notice of petition on the party or parties whose consent is required by this section; or

2. If personal service is unobtainable, ten days after the completion of the execution of an order of publication against the party or parties whose consent is required by this section concerning the petition; or

3. If the judge certifies on the record that the identity of any person whose consent is hereinabove required is not reasonably ascertainable.

For the purposes of this section, an affidavit of the birth mother that the identity of the birth father is not reasonably ascertainable shall be sufficient evidence of this fact, provided there is no other evidence before the court which would refute such an affidavit. The absence of such an affidavit shall not be deemed evidence that the identity of the birth father is reasonably ascertainable. For purposes of determining whether the identity of the birth father is reasonably ascertainable, the standard of what is reasonable under the circumstances shall control, taking into account the relative interests of the child, the birth mother and the birth father.

~~FG.~~ If the child is not in the custody of a child-placing agency and both parents are deceased, the court, after hearing evidence to that effect, may grant the petition without the filing of any consent.

~~GH.~~ Parental consent to an adoption executed pursuant to this section shall be revocable prior to the final order of adoption (i) upon proof of fraud or duress, or (ii) after placement of the child in an adoptive home, upon written, mutual consent of the birth parents and ~~proposed~~ prospective adoptive parents.

§ 63.1-225.1. Best interests of the child; standards for determining.—In determining whether the valid consent of any person whose consent is required is withheld contrary to the best interests of the child, or is unobtainable, the court shall consider whether the failure to grant the petition would be detrimental to the child. In determining whether the failure to grant the petition would be detrimental to the child, the court shall consider all relevant factors, including the birth parent(s)' efforts to obtain or maintain legal and physical custody of the child, whether the birth parent(s)' efforts to assert parental rights were thwarted by other people, the birth parent(s)' ability to care for the child, the age of the child, the quality of any previous relationship between the birth parent(s) and the child and between the birth parent(s) and any other minor children, the duration and suitability of the child's present custodial environment and the effect of a change of physical custody on the child.

§ 63.1-227. Revocation of interlocutory order.

The court may, by order entered of record, revoke its interlocutory order of adoption at any time prior to the entry of the final order, for good cause shown, on its own motion, or on the motion of the ~~natural~~ birth parents of the child, or of the petitioner, or of the child himself by his next friend, or of the child-placing agency, which placed the child with the petitioners or of the Commissioner; but no such order of revocation shall be entered, except on motion of the petitioner, unless the petitioner is given ten days' notice of such motion in writing and an opportunity to be heard or has removed from the Commonwealth. The clerk of the court shall forward an attested copy of every such order to the Commissioner, and to the child-placing agency which placed the child.

When an interlocutory order has been entered and subsequently is revoked, the court may proceed in the same manner as set forth in § 63.1-226 to enter an order concerning the subsequent custody or guardianship of the child.

§ 63.1-229. Omission of probationary period and interlocutory order.

A. If the child is legally the child by birth or adoption of one of the petitioners or if the child has been placed in the home of the petitioner by a child-placing agency and the placing or supervising agency certifies to the court that the child has lived in the home of the petitioner continuously for a period of at least six months next preceding the filing of the petition, and has been visited by a representative of such agency at least three times within such six-month period; provided there are not less than ninety days between the first visit and the last visit, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption. The court may, for good cause shown, in cases of placement by a child-placing agency, omit the requirement of this section that the visitations be made in the six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, provided that such visits be made in some six-month period preceding such filing.

B. If the child has been placed in the home of the petitioner by a child placing agency and the placing or supervising agency certifies to the court that the child (i) has lived in the home of the petitioner continuously for a period of at least six months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, (ii) has been visited by a representative of such agency at least three times within a six-month period, provided there are not less than ninety days between the first visit and the last visit, and (iii) the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, after receipt of the report as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption. The court may, for good cause shown, in cases of placement by a child-placing agency, omit the requirement that the visits be made in the eight months immediately preceding the filing of the petition, provided that such visits were made in some six-month period preceding the filing.

C. If the child has resided in the home of the petitioner continuously for as much as at least three years immediately prior to the filing of the petition for adoption, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period and the interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption.

D. When a child has been placed by the birth parent with the prospective adoptive parent who is the child's grandparent, adult brother or sister, or adult uncle or aunt, and the child has resided in the home of the prospective adoptive parent continuously for three or more years, or adult great uncle or great aunt and the court has accepted the written consent of the birth parent in accordance with § 63.1-225, and, if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court may omit the probationary period and interlocutory order, and enter a final order of adoption.

If the court determines the need for an investigation prior to the final order of adoption, it shall refer the matter to the local director of social services, superintendent of public welfare or a licensed child placing agency as provided in § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report which shall be completed within such time as the court designates.

D E. If the child has been legally adopted according to the laws of a foreign country with which the United States has diplomatic relations and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of an interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report, as provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period and the interlocutory order and enter the final order of adoption if the child (i) has resided in the home of the petitioners for a period of at least one year immediately prior to the filing of the petition or (ii) has resided in the home of the petitioners for a period of at least six months immediately prior to the filing of the petition and, has been visited by a representative of a child-placing agency or of the local board or department of social services or public welfare three times within such six-month period with no fewer than ninety days between the first and last visits and the three visits have occurred within eight months immediately prior to the filing of the petition.

E F. If the child was placed into Virginia from a foreign country in accordance with § 63.1-207, and if the child (i) has resided in the home of the petitioner for a period of at least six months immediately prior to the filing of the petition and (ii) has been visited by a representative of a licensed child-placing agency or of the local board or department of social services or public welfare three times within the six-month period with no fewer than ninety days between the first and last visits, and (iii) the three visits have occurred within eight months immediately prior to the filing of the petition, and if the court is of the opinion that the entry of the interlocutory order would otherwise be proper, the court, after receipt of the report provided for in § 63.1-223, may omit the probationary period provided for in § 63.1-228 and the interlocutory order and enter a final order of adoption.

§ 63.1-231. Adoption of infant by new spouse of natural birth or adoptive parent.

A. When the spouse of a natural birth parent of a legitimate infant or the spouse of a parent by adoption of an infant has died, and the surviving natural birth parent or parent by adoption marries again and the new spouse desires to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the surviving natural birth parent or parent by adoption and new spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare as provided in § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

B. When a ~~natural birth~~ parent of a legitimate infant or a parent by adoption of an infant is divorced and marries again and the ~~natural birth~~ parent or parent by adoption desires the new spouse to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the ~~natural birth~~ parent or parent by adoption and the new spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare if the other ~~natural birth~~ parent or parent by adoption consents in writing to the adoption or change of name or if the other ~~natural birth~~ parent or parent by adoption is deceased. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

C. When the custodial ~~natural birth~~ parent of an infant born out of wedlock to parents who were not married to each other at the time of the child's conception or birth marries and the new spouse of such custodial ~~natural birth~~ parent desires to adopt such child, on a petition filed by the custodial ~~natural birth~~ parent and spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption and change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare if (i) the noncustodial ~~natural birth~~ parent of the infant consents, under oath, in writing to the adoption, or (ii) the mother swears, under oath, in writing, that the identity of the father is not reasonably ascertainable, or (iii) the putative father named by the mother denies paternity of the child, or (iv) such infant is fourteen years of age or older and has lived in the home of the person desiring to adopt the infant for at least five years, or (v) the noncustodial ~~natural birth~~ parent of the infant is deceased. If the court feels that there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

D. When a single person who has adopted an infant thereafter marries and desires his spouse to adopt the infant, on a petition filed by the adoptive parent and the spouse for the adoption and change of name of the infant, the court may proceed to order the proposed adoption or change of name without referring the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare.

If the court feels there should be some investigation before a final order of adoption is entered, it shall thereupon refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare pursuant to § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report within such time as the court designates.

E. For adoptions under this section, the investigation and report provided for in § 63.1-223 shall be undertaken only if the court in its discretion determines that there should be an investigation before a final order of adoption is entered. If the court makes such a determination, it shall refer the matter to the local director of social services or superintendent of public welfare as provided in § 63.1-223 for an investigation and report to be completed within such time as the court designates.

§ 63.1-233. Legal effects of adoption.

The ~~natural birth~~ parents, and the parents by previous adoption, if any, other than any such parent who is the husband or wife of one of the petitioners, shall, by such final order of adoption, be divested of all legal rights and obligations in respect to the child, and the child shall be free from all legal obligations of obedience and maintenance in respect to them. Any child adopted under the provisions of this chapter shall, from and after the entry of the interlocutory order or from and after the entry of the final order where no such interlocutory order is entered, be, to all intents and purposes, the child of the person or persons so adopting him, and, unless and until such interlocutory order or final order is subsequently revoked, shall be entitled to all the rights and privileges, and subject to all the obligations, of a child of such person or persons born in lawful wedlock.

§ 63.1-236. (For effective date - See note) Disposition of reports; disclosure of information as to identity of biological family.

Upon the entry of a final order of adoption or other final disposition of the matter, the clerk of the court in which it was entered shall forthwith transmit to the Commissioner all reports made in connection with the case, and the Commissioner shall preserve such reports and all other collateral reports, information and recommendations in a separate file. Except as provided in subsections C, D and E of § 63.1-236.01, nonidentifying information from such adoption file shall not be open to inspection, or be copied, by anyone other than the adopted person, if eighteen years of age or over, or licensed or authorized child-placing agencies providing services to the child or the adoptive parents, except upon the order of a circuit court entered upon good cause shown. However, if the adoptive parents, or either of them, is living, the adopted person shall not be permitted to inspect the home study of the adoptive parents unless the Commissioner first obtains written permission to do so from such adoptive parent or parents.

No identifying information from such adoption file shall be disclosed, open to inspection or made available to be copied except as provided in subsections A, B and E of § 63.1-236.01 or upon application of the adopted person, if eighteen years of age or over, to the Commissioner, who shall designate the person or agency which made the investigation required by §§ 63.1-220.3, 63.1-223 or § 63.1-228 to attempt to locate and advise the biological family of the application. The designated person or agency shall report the results of the attempt to locate and advise the biological family to the Commissioner, including the relative effects that disclosure of the identifying information may have on the adopted person, the adoptive parents, and the biological family. The adopted person and the biological family may submit to the Commissioner, and the Commissioner shall consider, written comments stating the anticipated effect that the disclosure of identifying information may have upon any party. Upon a showing of good cause, the Commissioner shall disclose the identifying information. If the Commissioner fails to designate a person or agency to attempt to locate the biological family within thirty days of receipt of the application, or if the Commissioner denies disclosure of the identifying information after receiving the designated person's or agency's report, the adopted person may apply to the circuit court for an order to disclose such information.
