103 § 8.5-114. Issuer's duty and privilege to honor; right to reimbursement.

(1) An issuer must honor a draft or demand for payment which complies with the terms of the 104 relevant credit regardless of whether the goods or documents conform to the underlying contract for sale 105 or other contract between the customer and the beneficiary. The issuer is not excused from honor of 106 such a draft or demand by reason of an additional general term that all documents must be satisfactory 107 to the issuer, but an issuer may require that specified documents must be satisfactory to it. 108

109 (2) Unless otherwise agreed when documents appear on their face to comply with the terms of a credit but a required document does not in fact conform to the warranties made on negotiation or 110 transfer of a document of title as required by § 8.7-507 or of a certificated security as required by 111 § 8.8 306 8.8A-108 or is forged or fraudulent or there is fraud in the transaction: 112

(a) the issuer must honor the draft or demand for payment if honor is demanded by a negotiating 113 114 bank or other holder of the draft or demand which has taken the draft or demand under the credit and under circumstances which would make it a holder in due course pursuant to § 8.3-302 and in an 115 116 appropriate case would make it a person to whom a document of title has been duly negotiated pursuant to § 8.7-502 or a bona fide purchaser of a certificated security pursuant to § 8.8-302; and 117

(b) in all other cases as against its customer, an issuer acting in good faith may honor the draft or 118 demand for payment despite notification from the customer of fraud, forgery or other defect not apparent 119 120 on the face of the documents but a court of appropriate jurisdiction may enjoin such honor.

(3) Unless otherwise agreed an issuer which has duly honored a draft or demand for payment is 121

122 entitled to immediate reimbursement of any payment made under the credit and to be put in effectively 123 available funds not later than the day before maturity of any acceptance made under the credit. 124 Title 8.8A. 125 Commercial Code - Investment Securities. 126 PART 1. 127 SHORT TITLE AND GENERAL MATTERS. 128 § 8.8A-101. Short title. 129 This title may be cited as Uniform Commercial Code-Investment Securities. 130 § 8.8A-102. Definitions. 131 (a) In this title: 132 (1) "Adverse claim" means a claim that a claimant has a property interest in a financial asset and 133 that it is a violation of the rights of the claimant for another person to hold, transfer, or deal with the 134 financial asset. 135 (2) "Bearer form," as applied to a certificated security, means a form in which the security is 136 payable to the bearer of the security certificate according to its terms but not by reason of an 137 indorsement. 138 (3) "Broker" means a person defined as a broker or dealer under the federal securities laws, but 139 without excluding a bank acting in that capacity. 140 (4) "Certificated security" means a security that is represented by a certificate. 141 (5) "Clearing corporation" means: 142 (i) a person that is registered as a "clearing agency" under the federal securities laws: 143 (ii) a federal reserve bank; or 144 (iii) any other person that provides clearance or settlement services with respect to financial assets 145 that would require it to register as a clearing agency under the federal securities laws but for an 146 exclusion or exemption from the registration requirement, if its activities as a clearing corporation, 147 including promulgation of rules, are subject to regulation by a federal or state governmental authority. 148 (6) "Communicate" means to: 149 (i) send a signed writing; or 150 (ii) transmit information by any mechanism agreed upon by the persons transmitting and receiving 151 the information. 152 (7) "Entitlement holder" means a person identified in the records of a securities intermediary as the 153 person having a security entitlement against the securities intermediary. If a person acquires a security 154 entitlement by virtue of $ 8.8A-501(b)(2) or (3), that person is the entitlement holder. 155 (8) "Entitlement order" means a notification communicated to a securities intermediary directing 156 transfer or redemption of a financial asset to which the entitlement holder has a security entitlement. 157 (9) "Financial asset," except as otherwise provided in § 8.8A-103, means: 158 (i) a security; 159 (ii) an obligation of a person or a share, participation, or other interest in a person or in property 160 or an enterprise of a person, which is, or is of a type, dealt in or traded on financial markets, or which 161 is recognized in any area in which it is issued or dealt in as a medium for investment; or 162 (iii) any property that is held by a securities intermediary for another person in a securities account 163 if the securities intermediary has expressly agreed with the other person that the property is to be 164 treated as a financial asset under this title. 165 As context requires, the term means either the interest itself or the means by which a person's claim 166 to it is evidenced, including a certificated or uncertificated security, a security certificate, or a security 167 entitlement. 168 (10) "Good faith," for purposes of the obligation of good faith in the performance or enforcement of 169 contracts or duties within this title, means honesty in fact and the observance of reasonable commercial 170 standards of fair dealing. 171 (11) "Indorsement" means a signature that alone or accompanied by other words is made on a 172 security certificate in registered form or on a separate document for the purpose of assigning, 173 transferring, or redeeming the security or granting a power to assign, transfer, or redeem it. 174 (12) "Instruction" means a notification communicated to the issuer of an uncertificated security 175 which directs that the transfer of the security be registered or that the security be redeemed. 176 (13) "Registered form," as applied to a certificated security, means a form in which: 177 (i) the security certificate specifies a person entitled to the security; and 178 (ii) a transfer of the security may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on 179 behalf of the issuer, or the security certificate so states. 180 (14) "Securities intermediary" means: 181 (i) a clearing corporation; or 182 (ii) a person, including a bank or broker, that in the ordinary course of its business maintains 183 securities accounts for others and is acting in that capacity.

- 184 (15) "Security," except as otherwise provided in § 8.8A-103, means an obligation of an issuer or a 185 share, participation, or other interest in an issuer or in property or an enterprise of an issuer:
- 186 (i) which is represented by a security certificate in bearer or registered form, or the transfer of 187 which may be registered upon books maintained for that purpose by or on behalf of the issuer;
- 188 (ii) which is one of a class or series or by its terms is divisible into a class or series of shares, 189 participations, interests, or obligations; and
- 190 (iii) which:
- 191 (A) is, or is of a type, dealt in or traded on securities exchanges or securities markets; or
- 192 (B) is a medium for investment and by its terms expressly provides that it is a security governed by 193 this title.
- (16) "Security certificate" means a certificate representing a security. 194
- 195 (17) "Security entitlement" means the rights and property interest of an entitlement holder with 196 respect to a financial asset specified in Part 5.
- (18) "Uncertificated security" means a security that is not represented by a certificate. 197

- 216 (b) An "investment company security" is a security. "Investment company security" means a share or 217 similar equity interest issued by an entity that is registered as an investment company under the federal 218 investment company laws, an interest in a unit investment trust that is so registered, or a face-amount 219 certificate issued by a face-amount certificate company that is so registered. Investment company 220 security does not include an insurance policy or endowment policy or annuity contract issued by an 221 insurance company.
- 222 (c) An interest in a partnership or limited liability company is not a security unless it is dealt in or 223 traded on securities exchanges or in securities markets, its terms expressly provide that it is a security 224 governed by this title, or it is an investment company security. However, an interest in a partnership or 225 limited liability company is a financial asset if it is held in a securities account.
- 226 (d) A writing that is a security certificate is governed by this title and not by Title 8.3A, even though 227 it also meets the requirements of that title. However, a negotiable instrument governed by Title 8.3A is a 228 financial asset if it is held in a securities account.
- 229 (e) An option or similar obligation issued by a clearing corporation to its participants is not a 230 security, but is a financial asset.
- 231 (f) A commodity contract, as defined in § 8.9-115, is not a security or a financial asset.
- 232 § 8.8A-104. Acquisition of security or financial asset or interest therein.
- 233 (a) A person acquires a security or an interest therein, under this title, if: 234
  - (1) the person is a purchaser to whom a security is delivered pursuant to  $\S$  8.8A-301; or
  - (2) the person acquires a security entitlement to the security pursuant to  $\S$  8.8A-501.
- 236 (b) A person acquires a financial asset, other than a security, or an interest therein, under this title, 237 if the person acquires a security entitlement to the financial asset.
- 238 (c) A person who acquires a security entitlement to a security or other financial asset has the rights 239 specified in Part 5, but is a purchaser of any security, security entitlement, or other financial asset held 240 by the securities intermediary only to the extent provided in § 8.8A-503.
- (d) Unless the context shows that a different meaning is intended, a person who is required by other 241 242 law, regulation, rule, or agreement to transfer, deliver, present, surrender, exchange, or otherwise put in 243 the possession of another person a security or financial asset satisfies that requirement by causing the other person to acquire an interest in the security or financial asset pursuant to subsection (a) or (b). 244

245 § 8.8A-105. Notice of adverse claim.

281

246 (a) A person has notice of an adverse claim if:

(1) the person knows of the adverse claim;

248 (2) the person is aware of facts sufficient to indicate that there is a significant probability that the 249 adverse claim exists and deliberately avoids information that would establish the existence of the 250 adverse claim; or

251 (3) the person has a duty, imposed by statute or regulation, to investigate whether an adverse claim 252 exists, and the investigation so required would establish the existence of the adverse claim.

253 (b) Having knowledge that a financial asset or interest therein is or has been transferred by a 254 representative imposes no duty of inquiry into the rightfulness of a transaction and is not notice of an 255 adverse claim. However, a person who knows that a representative has transferred a financial asset or 256 interest therein in a transaction that is, or whose proceeds are being used, for the individual benefit of 257 the representative or otherwise in breach of duty has notice of an adverse claim.

258 (c) An act or event that creates a right to immediate performance of the principal obligation 259 represented by a security certificate or sets a date on or after which the certificate is to be presented or 260 surrendered for redemption or exchange does not itself constitute notice of an adverse claim except in 261 the case of a transfer more than: 262

(1) one year after a date set for presentment or surrender for redemption or exchange; or 263 (2) six months after a date set for payment of money against presentation or surrender of the 264 certificate, if money was available for payment on that date.

265 (d) A purchaser of a certificated security has notice of an adverse claim if the security certificate:

266 (1) whether in bearer or registered form, has been indorsed "for collection" or "for surrender" or for 267 some other purpose not involving transfer; or

268 (2) is in bearer form and has on it an unambiguous statement that it is the property of a person 269 other than the transferor, but the mere writing of a name on the certificate is not such a statement.

270 (e) Filing of a financing statement under Title 8.9 is not notice of an adverse claim to a financial 271 asset. 272

§ 8.8A-106. Control.

273 (a) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in bearer form if the certificated security is 274 delivered to the purchaser.

275 (b) A purchaser has "control" of a certificated security in registered form if the certificated security 276 is delivered to the purchaser, and:

(1) the certificate is indorsed to the purchaser or in blank by an effective indorsement; or

278 (2) the certificate is registered in the name of the purchaser, upon original issue or registration of 279 transfer by the issuer. 280

(c) A purchaser has "control" of an uncertificated security if:

(1) the uncertificated security is delivered to the purchaser; or 282 (2) the issuer has agreed that it will comply with instructions originated by the purchaser without 283 further consent by the registered owner.

(d) A purchaser has "control" of a security entitlement if:

(1) the purchaser becomes the entitlement holder; or

286 (2) the securities intermediary has agreed that it will comply with entitlement orders originated by 287 the purchaser without further consent by the entitlement holder.

288 (e) If an interest in a security entitlement is granted by the entitlement holder to the entitlement 289 holder's own securities intermediary, the securities intermediary has control.

290 (f) A purchaser who has satisfied the requirements of subsection (c)(2) or (d)(2) has control even if 291 the registered owner in the case of subsection (c)(2) or the entitlement holder in the case of subsection 292 (d)(2) retains the right to make substitutions for the uncertificated security or security entitlement, to 293 originate instructions or entitlement orders to the issuer or securities intermediary, or otherwise to deal 294 with the uncertificated security or security entitlement.

295 (g) An issuer or a securities intermediary may not enter into an agreement of the kind described in 296 subsection (c)(2) or (d)(2) without the consent of the registered owner or entitlement holder, but an 297 issuer or a securities intermediary is not required to enter into such an agreement even though the 298 registered owner or entitlement holder so directs. An issuer or securities intermediary that has entered 299 into such an agreement is not required to confirm the existence of the agreement to another party unless 300 requested to do so by the registered owner or entitlement holder.

§ 8.8A-107. Whether indorsement, instruction or entitlement order is effective. 301

302 (a) "Appropriate person" means:

303 (1) with respect to an indorsement, the person specified by a security certificate or by an effective 304 special indorsement to be entitled to the security:

305 (2) with respect to an instruction, the registered owner of an uncertificated security;

6 of 26

306 (3) with respect to an entitlement order, the entitlement holder;

307 (4) if the person designated in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) is deceased, the designated person's 308 successor taking under other law or the designated person's personal representative acting for the estate 309 of the decedent; or 310 (5) if the person designated in paragraph (1), (2), or (3) lacks capacity, the designated person's 311 guardian, conservator, or other similar representative who has power under other law to transfer the 312 security or financial asset.

313 (b) An indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is effective if:

314 (1) it is made by the appropriate person;

315 (2) it is made by a person who has power under the law of agency to transfer the security or financial asset on behalf of the appropriate person, including, in the case of an instruction or 316 entitlement order, a person who has control under § 8.8A-106(c)(2) or (d)(2); or 317 318

(3) the appropriate person has ratified it or is otherwise precluded from asserting its ineffectiveness.

(c) An indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order made by a representative is effective even if: 319

(1) the representative has failed to comply with a controlling instrument or with the law of the state 320 321 having jurisdiction of the representative relationship, including any law requiring the representative to 322 obtain court approval of the transaction; or 323 (2) the representative's action in making the indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order or using 324 the proceeds of the transaction is otherwise a breach of duty.

325 (d) If a security is registered in the name of or specially indorsed to a person described as a representative, or if a securities account is maintained in the name of a person described as a 326 327 representative, an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order made by the person is effective even though the person is no longer serving in the described capacity. 328

329 (e) Effectiveness of an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is determined as of the date the 330 indorsement, instruction, or entitlement order is made, and an indorsement, instruction, or entitlement 331 order does not become ineffective by reason of any later change of circumstances. 332

§ 8.8A-108. Warranties in direct holding.

333 (a) A person who transfers a certificated security to a purchaser for value warrants to the purchaser, 334 and an indorser, if the transfer is by indorsement, warrants to any subsequent purchaser, that: 335

(1) the certificate is genuine and has not been materially altered;

336 (2) the transferor or indorser does not know of any fact that might impair the validity of the 337 security; 338

(3) there is no adverse claim to the security;

(4) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer;

340 (5) if the transfer is by indorsement, the indorsement is made by an appropriate person, or if the 341 indorsement is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; 342 and 343

(6) the transfer is otherwise effective and rightful.

344 (b) A person who originates an instruction for registration of transfer of an uncertificated security to 345 a purchaser for value warrants to the purchaser that:

346 (1) the instruction is made by an appropriate person, or if the instruction is by an agent, the agent 347 has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; 348

- (2) the security is valid;
- (3) there is no adverse claim to the security; and
- 350 (4) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer: 351
  - (i) the purchaser will be entitled to the registration of transfer;

352 (ii) the transfer will be registered by the issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and 353 claims other than those specified in the instruction;

- 354 (iii) the transfer will not violate any restriction on transfer; and
- 355 (iv) the requested transfer will otherwise be effective and rightful.
- 356 (c) A person who transfers an uncertificated security to a purchaser for value and does not originate 357 an instruction in connection with the transfer warrants that:
- 358 (1) the uncertificated security is valid:
- 359 (2) there is no adverse claim to the security:
- 360 (3) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer; and
- (4) the transfer is otherwise effective and rightful. 361
- 362 (d) A person who indorses a security certificate warrants to the issuer that:
- 363 (1) there is no adverse claim to the security; and
- 364 (2) the indorsement is effective.
- (e) A person who originates an instruction for registration of transfer of an uncertificated security 365 366 warrants to the issuer that:
- 367 (1) the instruction is effective; and

368 (2) at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer the purchaser will be entitled to the 369 registration of transfer.

(f) A person who presents a certificated security for registration of transfer or for payment or exchange warrants to the issuer that the person is entitled to the registration, payment, or exchange, but a purchaser for value and without notice of adverse claims to whom transfer is registered warrants only that the person has no knowledge of any unauthorized signature in a necessary indorsement.

(g) If a person acts as agent of another in delivering a certificated security to a purchaser, the identity of the principal was known to the person to whom the certificate was delivered, and the certificate delivered by the agent was received by the agent from the principal or received by the agent from another person at the direction of the principal, the person delivering the security certificate warrants only that the delivering person has authority to act for the principal and does not know of any adverse claim to the certificated security.

(h) A secured party who redelivers a security certificate received, or after payment and on order of the debtor delivers the security certificate to another person, makes only the warranties of an agent under subsection (g).

(i) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (g), a broker acting for a customer makes to the issuer and a purchaser the warranties provided in subsections (a) through (f). A broker that delivers a security certificate to its customer, or causes its customer to be registered as the owner of an uncertificated security, makes to the customer the warranties provided in subsection (a) or (b), and has the rights and privileges of a purchaser under this section. The warranties of and in favor of the broker acting as an agent are in addition to applicable warranties given by and in favor of the customer.

389 § 8.8A-109. Warranties in indirect holding.

390 (a) A person who originates an entitlement order to a securities intermediary warrants to the 391 securities intermediary that:

(1) the entitlement order is made by an appropriate person, or if the entitlement order is by an agent, the agent has actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and

394 (2) there is no adverse claim to the security entitlement.

(b) A person who delivers a security certificate to a securities intermediary for credit to a securities account or originates an instruction with respect to an uncertificated security directing that the uncertificated security be credited to a securities account makes to the securities intermediary the warranties specified in § 8.8A-108(a) or (b).

(c) If a securities intermediary delivers a security certificate to its entitlement holder or causes its entitlement holder to be registered as the owner of an uncertificated security, the securities intermediary makes to the entitlement holder the warranties specified in § 8.8A-108(a) or (b).

402 § 8.8*A*-110. Applicability; choice of law.

403 (a) The local law of the issuer's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (d), governs:

404 (1) the validity of a security;

405 (2) the rights and duties of the issuer with respect to registration of transfer;

406 (3) the effectiveness of registration of transfer by the issuer;

407 (4) whether the issuer owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security; and

408 (5) whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom transfer of a certificated or 409 uncertificated security is registered or a person who obtains control of an uncertificated security.

410 (b) The local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction, as specified in subsection (e), governs:

411 (1) acquisition of a security entitlement from the securities intermediary;

412 (2) the rights and duties of the securities intermediary and entitlement holder arising out of a 413 security entitlement;

414 (3) whether the securities intermediary owes any duties to an adverse claimant to a security 415 entitlement; and

416 (4) whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person who acquires a security entitlement
417 from the securities intermediary or a person who purchases a security entitlement or interest therein 418 from an entitlement holder.

(c) The local law of the jurisdiction in which a security certificate is located at the time of delivery governs whether an adverse claim can be asserted against a person to whom the security certificate is delivered.

(d) "Issuer's jurisdiction" means the jurisdiction under which the issuer of the security is organized or, if permitted by the law of that jurisdiction, the law of another jurisdiction specified by the issuer. An issuer organized under the law of this state may specify the law of another jurisdiction as the law governing the matters specified in subsection (a)(2) through (5).

426 (e) The following rules determine a "securities intermediary's jurisdiction" for purposes of this 427 section:

428 (1) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder specifies that it is

429 governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's 430 jurisdiction.

431 (2) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify 432 the governing law as provided in paragraph (1), but expressly specifies that the securities account is 433 maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the securities intermediary's 434 iurisdiction.

435 (3) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a 436 jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (1) or (2), the securities intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the 437 438 entitlement holder's account.

439 (4) If an agreement between the securities intermediary and its entitlement holder does not specify a 440 jurisdiction as provided in paragraph (1) or (2) and an account statement does not identify an office 441 serving the entitlement holder's account as provided in paragraph (3), the securities intermediary's 442 jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the chief executive office of the securities intermediary.

443 (f) A securities intermediary's jurisdiction is not determined by the physical location of certificates 444 representing financial assets, or by the jurisdiction in which is organized the issuer of the financial 445 asset with respect to which an entitlement holder has a security entitlement, or by the location of 446 facilities for data processing or other record keeping concerning the account. 447

§ 8.8A-111. Clearing corporation rules.

448 A rule adopted by a clearing corporation governing rights and obligations among the clearing 449 corporation and its participants in the clearing corporation is effective even if the rule conflicts with 450 this act and affects another party who does not consent to the rule. 451

§ 8.8A-112. Creditor's legal process.

(a) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security may be reached by a creditor only by actual 452 453 seizure of the security certificate by the officer making the attachment or levy, except as otherwise 454 provided in subsection (d). However, a certificated security for which the certificate has been 455 surrendered to the issuer may be reached by a creditor by legal process upon the issuer.

456 (b) The interest of a debtor in an uncertificated security may be reached by a creditor only by legal process upon the issuer at its chief executive office in the United States, except as otherwise provided in 457 458 subsection (d).

459 (c) The interest of a debtor in a security entitlement may be reached by a creditor only by legal 460 process upon the securities intermediary with whom the debtor's securities account is maintained, except 461 as otherwise provided in subsection (d).

462 (d) The interest of a debtor in a certificated security for which the certificate is in the possession of 463 a secured party, or in an uncertificated security registered in the name of a secured party, or a security 464 entitlement maintained in the name of a secured party, may be reached by a creditor by legal process 465 upon the secured party.

466 (e) A creditor whose debtor is the owner of a certificated security, uncertificated security, or security 467 entitlement is entitled to aid from a court of competent jurisdiction, by injunction or otherwise, in 468 reaching the certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement or in satisfying the 469 claim by means allowed at law or in equity in regard to property that cannot readily be reached by 470 other legal process. 471

§ 8.8A-113. Statute of frauds inapplicable.

472 A contract or modification of a contract for the sale or purchase of a security is enforceable whether 473 or not there is a writing signed or record authenticated by a party against whom enforcement is sought, 474 even if the contract or modification is not capable of performance within one year of its making. 475

§ 8.8A-114. Evidentiary rules concerning certificated securities.

The following rules apply in an action on a certificated security against the issuer:

477 (1) Unless specifically denied in the pleadings, each signature on a security certificate or in a 478 necessary indorsement is admitted.

479 (2) If the effectiveness of a signature is put in issue, the burden of establishing effectiveness is on the 480 party claiming under the signature, but the signature is presumed to be genuine or authorized.

481 (3) If signatures on a security certificate are admitted or established, production of the certificate 482 entitles a holder to recover on it unless the defendant establishes a defense or a defect going to the 483 validity of the security.

484 (4) If it is shown that a defense or defect exists, the plaintiff has the burden of establishing that the 485 plaintiff or some person under whom the plaintiff claims is a person against whom the defense or defect 486 cannot be asserted. 487

§ 8.8A-115. Securities intermediary and others not liable to adverse claimant.

488 A securities intermediary that has transferred a financial asset pursuant to an effective entitlement 489 order, or a broker or other agent or bailee that has dealt with a financial asset at the direction of its 490 customer or principal, is not liable to a person having an adverse claim to the financial asset, unless

491 the securities intermediary, or broker or other agent or bailee:

492 (1) took the action after it had been served with an injunction, restraining order, or other legal 493 process enjoining it from doing so, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and had a reasonable 494 opportunity to act on the injunction, restraining order, or other legal process; or

495 (2) acted in collusion with the wrongdoer in violating the rights of the adverse claimant; or 496 (3) in the case of a security certificate that has been stolen, acted with notice of the adverse claim.

497 § 8.8A-116. Securities intermediary as purchaser for value.

498 A securities intermediary that receives a financial asset and establishes a security entitlement to the 499 financial asset in favor of an entitlement holder is a purchaser for value of the financial asset. A 500 securities intermediary that acquires a security entitlement to a financial asset from another securities 501 intermediary acquires the security entitlement for value if the securities intermediary acquiring the 502 security entitlement establishes a security entitlement to the financial asset in favor of an entitlement 503 holder. 504

PART 2.

ISSUE AND ISSUER.

§ 8.8A-201. Issuer.

(a) With respect to an obligation on or a defense to a security, an "issuer" includes a person that:

508 (1) places or authorizes the placing of its name on a security certificate, other than as authenticating 509 trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the like, to evidence a share, participation, or other interest in its 510 property or in an enterprise, or to evidence its duty to perform an obligation represented by the 511 certificate:

(2) creates a share, participation, or other interest in its property or in an enterprise, or undertakes 512 513 an obligation, that is an uncertificated security;

514 (3) directly or indirectly creates a fractional interest in its rights or property, if the fractional 515 interest is represented by a security certificate; or 516

(4) becomes responsible for, or in place of, another person described as an issuer in this section.

517 (b) With respect to an obligation on or defense to a security, a guarantor is an issuer to the extent 518 of its guaranty, whether or not its obligation is noted on a security certificate.

519 (c) With respect to a registration of a transfer, issuer means a person on whose behalf transfer 520 books are maintained. 521

§ 8.8A-202. Issuer's responsibility and defenses; notice of defect or defense.

522 (a) Even against a purchaser for value and without notice, the terms of a certificated security 523 include terms stated on the certificate and terms made part of the security by reference on the certificate 524 to another instrument, indenture, or document or to a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, 525 order, or the like, to the extent the terms referred to do not conflict with terms stated on the certificate. 526 A reference under this subsection does not of itself charge a purchaser for value with notice of a defect going to the validity of the security, even if the certificate expressly states that a person accepting it 527 528 admits notice. The terms of an uncertificated security include those stated in any instrument, indenture, 529 or document or in a constitution, statute, ordinance, rule, regulation, order, or the like, pursuant to 530 which the security is issued. 531

(b) The following rules apply if an issuer asserts that a security is not valid:

532 (1) A security other than one issued by a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or 533 instrumentality, even though issued with a defect going to its validity, is valid in the hands of a 534 purchaser for value and without notice of the particular defect unless the defect involves a violation of a 535 constitutional provision. In that case, the security is valid in the hands of a purchaser for value and 536 without notice of the defect, other than one who takes by original issue.

537 (2) Paragraph (1) applies to an issuer that is a government or governmental subdivision, agency, or 538 instrumentality only if there has been substantial compliance with the legal requirements governing the 539 issue or the issuer has received a substantial consideration for the issue as a whole or for the particular 540 security and a stated purpose of the issue is one for which the issuer has power to borrow money or 541 issue the security.

542 (c) Except as otherwise provided in § 8.8A-205, lack of genuineness of a certificated security is a 543 complete defense, even against a purchaser for value and without notice.

544 (d) All other defenses of the issuer of a security, including nondelivery and conditional delivery of a 545 certificated security, are ineffective against a purchaser for value who has taken the certificated security 546 without notice of the particular defense.

547 (e) This section does not affect the right of a party to cancel a contract for a security "when, as and 548 if issued" or "when distributed" in the event of a material change in the character of the security that is 549 the subject of the contract or in the plan or arrangement pursuant to which the security is to be issued 550 or distributed.

551 (f) If a security is held by a securities intermediary against whom an entitlement holder has a

552 security entitlement with respect to the security, the issuer may not assert any defense that the issuer 553 could not assert if the entitlement holder held the security directly.

554 § 8.8A-203. Staleness as notice of defect or defense.

555 After an act or event, other than a call that has been revoked, creating a right to immediate 556 performance of the principal obligation represented by a certificated security or setting a date on or 557 after which the security is to be presented or surrendered for redemption or exchange, a purchaser is 558 charged with notice of any defect in its issue or defense of the issuer, if the act or event:

559 (1) requires the payment of money, the delivery of a certificated security, the registration of transfer of an uncertificated security, or any of them on presentation or surrender of the security certificate, the 560 money or security is available on the date set for payment or exchange, and the purchaser takes the 561 562 security more than one year after that date; or

(2) is not covered by paragraph (1) and the purchaser takes the security more than two years after 563 564 the date set for surrender or presentation or the date on which performance became due.

§ 8.8A-204. Effect of issuer's restriction on transfer. 565

566 A restriction on transfer of a security imposed by the issuer, even if otherwise lawful, is ineffective 567 against a person without knowledge of the restriction unless:

568 (1) the security is certificated and the restriction is noted conspicuously on the security certificate; or 569 (2) the security is uncertificated and the registered owner has been notified of the restriction.

570 § 8.8A-205. Effect of unauthorized signature on security certificate.

An unauthorized signature placed on a security certificate before or in the course of issue is 571 ineffective, but the signature is effective in favor of a purchaser for value of the certificated security if 572 573 the purchaser is without notice of the lack of authority and the signing has been done by:

574 (1) an authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or other person entrusted by the issuer with the signing of the security certificate or of similar security certificates, or the immediate preparation for 575 576 signing of any of them; or

577 (2) an employee of the issuer, or of any of the persons listed in paragraph (1), entrusted with 578 responsible handling of the security certificate. 579

§ 8.8A-206. Completion or alteration of security certificate.

580 (a) If a security certificate contains the signatures necessary to its issue or transfer but is incomplete 581 in any other respect: 582

(1) any person may complete it by filling in the blanks as authorized; and

583 (2) even if the blanks are incorrectly filled in, the security certificate as completed is enforceable by 584 a purchaser who took it for value and without notice of the incorrectness.

585 (b) A complete security certificate that has been improperly altered, even if fraudulently, remains 586 enforceable, but only according to its original terms. 587

§ 8.8A-207. Rights and duties of issuer with respect to registered owners.

588 (a) Before due presentment for registration of transfer of a certificated security in registered form or 589 of an instruction requesting registration of transfer of an uncertificated security, the issuer or indenture 590 trustee may treat the registered owner as the person exclusively entitled to vote, receive notifications, 591 and otherwise exercise all the rights and powers of an owner.

592 (b) This title does not affect the liability of the registered owner of a security for a call, assessment, 593 or the like. 594

§ 8.8A-208. Effect of signature of authenticating trustee, registrar or transfer agent.

595 (a) A person signing a security certificate as authenticating trustee, registrar, transfer agent, or the 596 like, warrants to a purchaser for value of the certificated security, if the purchaser is without notice of a 597 particular defect, that: 598

- (1) the certificate is genuine;
- 599 (2) the person's own participation in the issue of the security is within the person's capacity and 600 within the scope of the authority received by the person from the issuer; and
- 601 (3) the person has reasonable grounds to believe that the certificated security is in the form and 602 within the amount the issuer is authorized to issue.
- 603 (b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person signing under subsection (a) does not assume responsibility 604 for the validity of the security in other respects.

§ 8.8A-209. Issuer's lien. 605

606 A lien in favor of an issuer upon a certificated security is valid against a purchaser only if the right 607 of the issuer to the lien is noted conspicuously on the security certificate.

§ 8.8A-210. Overissue. 608

- 609 (a) In this section, "overissue" means the issue of securities in excess of the amount the issuer has 610 corporate power to issue, but an overissue does not occur if appropriate action has cured the overissue.
- (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (c) and (d), the provisions of this title which validate 611 a security or compel its issue or reissue do not apply to the extent that validation, issue, or reissue 612
- 613 would result in overissue.

614 (c) If an identical security not constituting an overissue is reasonably available for purchase, a 615 person entitled to issue or validation may compel the issuer to purchase the security and deliver it if 616 certificated or register its transfer if uncertificated, against surrender of any security certificate the 617 person holds. 618 (d) If a security is not reasonably available for purchase, a person entitled to issue or validation 619 may recover from the issuer the price the person or the last purchaser for value paid for it with interest 620 from the date of the person's demand. 621 PART 3. TRANSFER OF CERTIFICATED 622 623 AND UNCERTIFICATED SECURITIES. 624 § 8.8A-301. Delivery. 625 (a) Delivery of a certificated security to a purchaser occurs when: 626 (1) the purchaser acquires possession of the security certificate; 627 (2) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either acquires possession of the security 628 certificate on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously acquired possession of the certificate, 629 acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser; or 630 (3) a securities intermediary acting on behalf of the purchaser acquires possession of the security 631 certificate, only if the certificate is in registered form and has been specially indorsed to the purchaser 632 by an effective indorsement. 633 (b) Delivery of an uncertificated security to a purchaser occurs when: 634 (1) the issuer registers the purchaser as the registered owner, upon original issue or registration of 635 transfer; or 636 (2) another person, other than a securities intermediary, either becomes the registered owner of the 637 uncertificated security on behalf of the purchaser or, having previously become the registered owner, 638 acknowledges that it holds for the purchaser. 639 § 8.8A-302. Rights of purchaser. (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), upon delivery of a certificated or 640 641 uncertificated security to a purchaser, the purchaser acquires all rights in the security that the 642 transferor had or had power to transfer. 643 (b) A purchaser of a limited interest acquires rights only to the extent of the interest purchased. 644 (c) A purchaser of a certificated security who as a previous holder had notice of an adverse claim 645 does not improve its position by taking from a protected purchaser. 646 § 8.8A-303. Protected purchaser. 647 (a) "Protected purchaser" means a purchaser of a certificated or uncertificated security, or of an 648 interest therein, who: 649 (1) gives value; 650 (2) does not have notice of any adverse claim to the security; and 651 (3) obtains control of the certificated or uncertificated security. 652 (b) In addition to acquiring the rights of a purchaser, a protected purchaser also acquires its interest 653 in the security free of any adverse claim. 654 § 8.8A-304. Indorsement. 655 (a) An indorsement may be in blank or special. An indorsement in blank includes an indorsement to 656 bearer. A special indorsement specifies to whom a security is to be transferred or who has power to 657 transfer it. A holder may convert a blank indorsement to a special indorsement. 658 (b) An indorsement purporting to be only of part of a security certificate representing units intended 659 by the issuer to be separately transferable is effective to the extent of the indorsement. 660 (c) An indorsement, whether special or in blank, does not constitute a transfer until delivery of the certificate on which it appears or, if the indorsement is on a separate document, until delivery of both 661 662 the document and the certificate. 663 (d) If a security certificate in registered form has been delivered to a purchaser without a necessary 664 indorsement, the purchaser may become a protected purchaser only when the indorsement is supplied. 665 However, against a transferor, a transfer is complete upon delivery and the purchaser has a specifically 666 enforceable right to have any necessary indorsement supplied. 667 (e) An indorsement of a security certificate in bearer form may give notice of an adverse claim to 668 the certificate, but it does not otherwise affect a right to registration that the holder possesses. 669 (f) Unless otherwise agreed, a person making an indorsement assumes only the obligations provided 670 in § 8.8A-108 and not an obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer. 671 § 8.8A-305. Instruction. 672 (a) If an instruction has been originated by an appropriate person but is incomplete in any other respect, any person may complete it as authorized and the issuer may rely on it as completed, even

722

674 though it has been completed incorrectly.

675 (b) Unless otherwise agreed, a person initiating an instruction assumes only the obligations imposed 676 by § 8.8A-108 and not an obligation that the security will be honored by the issuer.

677 § 8.8A-306. Effect of guaranteeing signature, indorsement, or instruction.

678 (a) A person who guarantees a signature of an indorser of a security certificate warrants that at the 679 time of signing:

680 (1) the signature was genuine;

681 (2) the signer was an appropriate person to indorse, or if the signature is by an agent, the agent had 682 actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person; and

683 (3) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

684 (b) A person who guarantees a signature of the originator of an instruction warrants that at the time 685 of signing: 686

(1) the signature was genuine;

(2) the signer was an appropriate person to originate the instruction, or if the signature is by an 687 688 agent, the agent had actual authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person, if the person specified 689 in the instruction as the registered owner was, in fact, the registered owner, as to which fact the 690 signature guarantor does not make a warranty; and

691 (3) the signer had legal capacity to sign.

692 (c) A person who specially guarantees the signature of an originator of an instruction makes the 693 warranties of a signature guarantor under subsection (b) and also warrants that at the time the instruction is presented to the issuer: 694

695 (1) the person specified in the instruction as the registered owner of the uncertificated security will 696 be the registered owner; and

697 (2) the transfer of the uncertificated security requested in the instruction will be registered by the 698 issuer free from all liens, security interests, restrictions, and claims other than those specified in the 699 instruction.

700 (d) A guarantor under subsections (a) and (b) or a special guarantor under subsection (c) does not 701 otherwise warrant the rightfulness of the transfer.

702 (e) A person who guarantees an indorsement of a security certificate makes the warranties of a 703 signature guarantor under subsection (a) and also warrants the rightfulness of the transfer in all 704 respects.

705 (f) A person who guarantees an instruction requesting the transfer of an uncertificated security 706 makes the warranties of a special signature guarantor under subsection (c) and also warrants the 707 rightfulness of the transfer in all respects.

708 (g) An issuer may not require a special guaranty of signature, a guaranty of indorsement, or a 709 guaranty of instruction as a condition to registration of transfer.

710 (h) The warranties under this section are made to a person taking or dealing with the security in reliance on the guaranty, and the guarantor is liable to the person for loss resulting from their breach. 711 712 An indorser or originator of an instruction whose signature, indorsement, or instruction has been 713 guaranteed is liable to a guarantor for any loss suffered by the guarantor as a result of breach of the 714 warranties of the guarantor. 715

§ 8.8A-307. Purchaser's right to requisites for registration of transfer.

716 Unless otherwise agreed, the transferor of a security on due demand shall supply the purchaser with 717 proof of authority to transfer or with any other requisite necessary to obtain registration of the transfer of the security, but if the transfer is not for value, a transferor need not comply unless the purchaser 718 719 pays the necessary expenses. If the transferor fails within a reasonable time to comply with the demand, 720 the purchaser may reject or rescind the transfer.

PART 4.

REGISTRATION.

§ 8.8A-401. Duty of issuer to register transfer.

724 (a) If a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register 725 transfer or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer of an 726 uncertificated security, the issuer shall register the transfer as requested if:

727 (1) under the terms of the security the person seeking registration of transfer is eligible to have the 728 security registered in its name;

729 (2) the indorsement or instruction is made by the appropriate person or by an agent who has actual 730 authority to act on behalf of the appropriate person;

731 (3) reasonable assurance is given that the indorsement or instruction is genuine and authorized 732 (§ 8.8A-402);

(4) any applicable law relating to the collection of taxes has been complied with: 733

734 (5) the transfer does not violate any restriction on transfer imposed by the issuer in accordance with 735 § 8.8A-204;

736 (6) a demand that the issuer not register transfer has not become effective under § 8.8A-403, or the 737 issuer has complied with § 8.8A-403(b) but no legal process or indemnity bond is obtained as provided 738 in § 8.8A-403(d); and 739 (7) the transfer is in fact rightful or is to a protected purchaser.

740 (b) If an issuer is under a duty to register a transfer of a security, the issuer is liable to a person 741 presenting a certificated security or an instruction for registration or to the person's principal for loss 742 resulting from unreasonable delay in registration or failure or refusal to register the transfer.

743 § 8.8A-402. Assurance that indorsement or instruction is effective.

744 (a) An issuer may require the following assurance that each necessary indorsement or each 745 instruction is genuine and authorized:

746 (1) in all cases, a guaranty of the signature of the person making an indorsement or originating an 747 instruction including, in the case of an instruction, reasonable assurance of identity;

748 (2) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by an agent, appropriate assurance of 749 actual authority to sign:

750 (3) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a fiduciary pursuant to 751 $ 8.8A-107(a)(4) or (a)(5), appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency;

752 (4) if there is more than one fiduciary, reasonable assurance that all who are required to sign have 753 done so; and 754 (5) if the indorsement is made or the instruction is originated by a person not covered by another 755 provision of this subsection, assurance appropriate to the case shall correspond as nearly as may be to 756 the provisions of this subsection.

757 (b) An issuer may elect to require reasonable assurance beyond that specified in this section. 758

(c) In this section:

759 (1) "Guaranty of the signature" means a guaranty signed by or on behalf of a person reasonably 760 believed by the issuer to be responsible. An issuer may adopt standards with respect to responsibility if 761 they are not manifestly unreasonable. 762

(2) "Appropriate evidence of appointment or incumbency" means:

763 (i) in the case of a fiduciary appointed or qualified by a court, a certificate issued by or under the 764 direction or supervision of the court or an officer thereof and dated within sixty days before the date of 765 presentation for transfer; or

(ii) in any other case, a copy of a document showing the appointment or a certificate issued by or 766 767 on behalf of a person reasonably believed by an issuer to be responsible or, in the absence of that 768 document or certificate, other evidence the issuer reasonably considered appropriate.

769 § 8.8A-403. Demand that issuer not register transfer.

770 (a) A person who is an appropriate person to make an indorsement or originate an instruction may 771 demand that the issuer not register transfer of a security by communicating to the issuer a notification 772 that identifies the registered owner and the issue of which the security is a part and provides an address 773 for communications directed to the person making the demand. The demand is effective only if it is 774 received by the issuer at a time and in a manner affording the issuer reasonable opportunity to act on 775 it.

776 (b) If a certificated security in registered form is presented to an issuer with a request to register 777 transfer or an instruction is presented to an issuer with a request to register transfer of an 778 uncertificated security after a demand that the issuer not register transfer has become effective, the 779 issuer shall promptly communicate to (i) the person who initiated the demand at the address provided in 780 the demand and (ii) the person who presented the security for registration of transfer or initiated the 781 instruction requesting registration of transfer a notification stating that:

782 (1) the certificated security has been presented for registration of transfer or instruction for 783 registration of transfer of the uncertificated security has been received; 784

(2) a demand that the issuer not register transfer had previously been received; and

785 (3) the issuer will withhold registration of transfer for a period of time stated in the notification in 786 order to provide the person who initiated the demand an opportunity to obtain legal process or an 787 indemnity bond.

788 (c) The period described in subsection (b)(3) may not exceed thirty days after the date of 789 communication of the notification. A shorter period may be specified by the issuer if it is not manifestly 790 unreasonable.

791 (d) An issuer is not liable to a person who initiated a demand that the issuer not register transfer for 792 any loss the person suffers as a result of registration of a transfer pursuant to an effective indorsement 793 or instruction if the person who initiated the demand does not, within the time stated in the issuer's 794 communication, either:

795 (1) obtain an appropriate restraining order, injunction, or other process from a court of competent 796 jurisdiction enjoining the issuer from registering the transfer; or

797 (2) file with the issuer an indemnity bond, sufficient in the issuer's judgment to protect the issuer and 798 any transfer agent, registrar, or other agent of the issuer involved from any loss it or they may suffer by

799 refusing to register the transfer.

800 (e) This section does not relieve an issuer from liability for registering transfer pursuant to an 801 indorsement or instruction that was not effective.

802 § 8.8A-404. Wrongful registration.

(a) Except as otherwise provided in § 8.8A-406, an issuer is liable for wrongful registration of 803 804 transfer if the issuer has registered a transfer of a security to a person not entitled to it, and the 805 transfer was registered:

806 (1) pursuant to an ineffective indorsement or instruction;

807 (2) after a demand that the issuer not register transfer became effective under § 8.8A-403(a) and the 808 issuer did not comply with § 8.8A-403(b);

809 (3) after the issuer had been served with an injunction, restraining order, or other legal process 810 enjoining it from registering the transfer, issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, and the issuer had 811 a reasonable opportunity to act on the injunction, restraining order, or other legal process; or 812

(4) by an issuer acting in collusion with the wrongdoer.

813 (b) An issuer that is liable for wrongful registration of transfer under subsection (a) on demand shall 814 provide the person entitled to the security with a like certificated or uncertificated security, and any 815 payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful registration. If an 816 overissue would result, the issuer's liability to provide the person with a like security is governed by § 8.8A-210. 817

818 (c) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (a) or in a law relating to the collection of taxes, an issuer is not liable to an owner or other person suffering loss as a result of the registration of a transfer of a security if registration was made pursuant to an effective indorsement or instruction. 819 820 821

§ 8.8A-405. Replacement of lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken security certificate.

822 (a) If an owner of a certificated security, whether in registered or bearer form, claims that the 823 certificate has been lost, destroyed, or wrongfully taken, the issuer shall issue a new certificate if the 824 owner:

825 (1) so requests before the issuer has notice that the certificate has been acquired by a protected 826 purchaser: 827

(2) files with the issuer a sufficient indemnity bond; and

(3) satisfies other reasonable requirements imposed by the issuer.

829 (b) If, after the issue of a new security certificate, a protected purchaser of the original certificate 830 presents it for registration of transfer, the issuer shall register the transfer unless an overissue would result. In that case, the issuer's liability is governed by § 8.8A-210. In addition to any rights on the 831 832 indemnity bond, an issuer may recover the new certificate from a person to whom it was issued or any 833 person taking under that person, except a protected purchaser. 834

§ 8.8A-406. Obligation to notify issuer of lost, destroyed or wrongfully taken security certificate.

If a security certificate has been lost, apparently destroyed, or wrongfully taken, and the owner fails 835 836 to notify the issuer of that fact within a reasonable time after the owner has notice of it and the issuer 837 registers a transfer of the security before receiving notification, the owner may not assert against the 838 issuer a claim for registering the transfer under § 8.8A-404 or a claim to a new security certificate 839 under § 8.8A-405. 840

§ 8.8A-407. Authenticating trustee, transfer agent, and registrar.

841 A person acting as authenticating trustee, transfer agent, registrar, or other agent for an issuer in 842 the registration of a transfer of its securities, in the issue of new security certificates or uncertificated 843 securities, or in the cancellation of surrendered security certificates has the same obligation to the 844 holder or owner of a certificated or uncertificated security with regard to the particular functions 845 performed as the issuer has in regard to those functions.

PART 5.

SECURITY ENTITLEMENTS.

§ 8.8A-501. Securities account; acquisition of security entitlement from securities intermediary.

849 (a) "Securities account" means an account to which a financial asset is or may be credited in 850 accordance with an agreement under which the person maintaining the account undertakes to treat the 851 person for whom the account is maintained as entitled to exercise the rights that comprise the financial 852 asset.

853 (b) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (d) and (e), a person acquires a security entitlement 854 if a securities intermediary:

855 (1) indicates by book entry that a financial asset has been credited to the person's securities account; 856 (2) receives a financial asset from the person or acquires a financial asset for the person and, in 857 either case, accepts it for credit to the person's securities account; or 858 (3) becomes obligated under other law, regulation, or rule to credit a financial asset to the person's 859 securities account.

860 (c) If a condition of subsection (b) has been met, a person has a security entitlement even though the 861 securities intermediary does not itself hold the financial asset.

(d) If a securities intermediary holds a financial asset for another person, and the financial asset is 862 863 registered in the name of, payable to the order of, or specially indorsed to the other person, and has 864 not been indorsed to the securities intermediary or in blank, the other person is treated as holding the 865 financial asset directly rather than as having a security entitlement with respect to the financial asset. (e) Issuance of a security is not establishment of a security entitlement.

867 § 8.8A-502. Assertion of adverse claim against entitlement holder.

868 An action based on an adverse claim to a financial asset, whether framed in conversion, replevin, 869 constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against a person who acquires a 870 security entitlement under § 8.8A-501 for value and without notice of the adverse claim. 871

§ 8.8A-503. Property interest of entitlement holder in financial asset held by securities intermediary.

872 (a) To the extent necessary for a securities intermediary to satisfy all security entitlements with 873 respect to a particular financial asset, all interests in that financial asset held by the securities 874 intermediary are held by the securities intermediary for the entitlement holders, are not property of the securities intermediary, and are not subject to claims of creditors of the securities intermediary, except 875 876 as otherwise provided in § 8.8A-511.

877 (b) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under 878 subsection (a) is a pro rata property interest in all interests in that financial asset held by the securities 879 intermediary, without regard to the time the entitlement holder acquired the security entitlement or the 880 time the securities intermediary acquired the interest in that financial asset.

881 (c) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under subsection (a) may be enforced against the securities intermediary only by exercise of the entitlement 882 883 holder's rights under §§ 8.8A-505 through 8.8A-508.

884 (d) An entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial asset under 885 subsection (a) may be enforced against a purchaser of the financial asset or interest therein only if: 886

(1) insolvency proceedings have been initiated by or against the securities intermediary;

887 (2) the securities intermediary does not have sufficient interests in the financial asset to satisfy the 888 security entitlements of all of its entitlement holders to that financial asset;

889 (3) the securities intermediary violated its obligations under § 8.8A-504 by transferring the financial 890 asset or interest therein to the purchaser; and

891 (4) the purchaser is not protected under subsection (e). The trustee or other liquidator, acting on 892 behalf of all entitlement holders having security entitlements with respect to a particular financial asset, 893 may recover the financial asset, or interest therein, from the purchaser. If the trustee or other liquidator 894 elects not to pursue that right, an entitlement holder whose security entitlement remains unsatisfied has 895 the right to recover its interest in the financial asset from the purchaser.

896 (e) An action based on the entitlement holder's property interest with respect to a particular financial 897 asset under subsection (a), whether framed in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or 898 other theory, may not be asserted against any purchaser of a financial asset or interest therein who 899 gives value, obtains control, and does not act in collusion with the securities intermediary in violating 900 the securities intermediary's obligations under § 8.8A-504. 901

§ 8.8A-504. Duty of securities intermediary to maintain financial asset.

902 (a) A securities intermediary shall promptly obtain and thereafter maintain a financial asset in a 903 quantity corresponding to the aggregate of all security entitlements it has established in favor of its 904 entitlement holders with respect to that financial asset. The securities intermediary may maintain those 905 financial assets directly or through one or more other securities intermediaries.

906 (b) Except to the extent otherwise agreed by its entitlement holder, a securities intermediary may not 907 grant any security interests in a financial asset it is obligated to maintain pursuant to subsection (a). 908

(c) A securities intermediary satisfies the duty in subsection (a) if:

909 (1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder 910 and the securities intermediary; or

911 (2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance with 912 reasonable commercial standards to obtain and maintain the financial asset.

913 (d) This section does not apply to a clearing corporation that is itself the obligor of an option or 914 similar obligation to which its entitlement holders have security entitlements.

915 § 8.8A-505. Duty of securities intermediary with respect to payments and distributions.

916 (a) A securities intermediary shall take action to obtain a payment or distribution made by the issuer 917 of a financial asset. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

918 (1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder 919 and the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance withreasonable commercial standards to attempt to obtain the payment or distribution.

(b) A securities intermediary is obligated to its entitlement holder for a payment or distribution made by the issuer of a financial asset if the payment or distribution is received by the securities intermediary.

925 § 8.8A-506. Duty of securities intermediary to exercise rights as directed by entitlement holder.

926 A securities intermediary shall exercise rights with respect to a financial asset if directed to do so927 by an entitlement holder. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

928 (1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holder929 and the securities intermediary; or

930 (2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary either places the entitlement holder in a 931 position to exercise the rights directly or exercises due care in accordance with reasonable commercial 932 standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

933 § 8.8A-507. Duty of securities intermediary to comply with entitlement order.

(a) A securities intermediary shall comply with an entitlement order if the entitlement order is originated by the appropriate person, the securities intermediary has had reasonable opportunity to assure itself that the entitlement order is genuine and authorized, and the securities intermediary has had reasonable opportunity to comply with the entitlement order. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

(1) the securities intermediary acts with respect to the duty as agreed upon by the entitlement holderand the securities intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance withreasonable commercial standards to comply with the entitlement order.

(b) If a securities intermediary transfers a financial asset pursuant to an ineffective entitlement order, the securities intermediary shall reestablish a security entitlement in favor of the person entitled to it, and pay or credit any payments or distributions that the person did not receive as a result of the wrongful transfer. If the securities intermediary does not reestablish a security entitlement, the securities intermediary is liable to the entitlement holder for damages.

948 § 8.8A-508. Duty of securities intermediary to change entitlement holder's position to other form of security holding.

950 A securities intermediary shall act at the direction of an entitlement holder to change a security 951 entitlement into another available form of holding for which the entitlement holder is eligible, or to 952 cause the financial asset to be transferred to a securities account of the entitlement holder with another 953 securities intermediary. A securities intermediary satisfies the duty if:

954 (1) the securities intermediary acts as agreed upon by the entitlement holder and the securities 955 intermediary; or

(2) in the absence of agreement, the securities intermediary exercises due care in accordance withreasonable commercial standards to follow the direction of the entitlement holder.

958 § 8.8A-509. Specification of duties of securities intermediary by other statute or regulation; manner 959 of performance of duties of securities intermediary and exercise of rights of entitlement holder.

960 (a) If the substance of a duty imposed upon a securities intermediary by §§ 8.8A-504 through 961 8.8A-508 is the subject of other statute, regulation, or rule, compliance with that statute, regulation, or 962 rule satisfies the duty.

963 (b) To the extent that specific standards for the performance of the duties of a securities intermediary
964 or the exercise of the rights of an entitlement holder are not specified by other statute, regulation, or 965 rule or by agreement between the securities intermediary and entitlement holder, the securities
966 intermediary shall perform its duties and the entitlement holder shall exercise its rights in a 967 commercially reasonable manner.

968 (c) The obligation of a securities intermediary to perform the duties imposed by §§ 8.8A-504 through 969 8.8A-508 is subject to:

970 (1) rights of the securities intermediary arising out of a security interest under a security agreement 971 with the entitlement holder or otherwise; and

972 (2) rights of the securities intermediary under other law, regulation, rule, or agreement to withhold 973 performance of its duties as a result of unfulfilled obligations of the entitlement holder to the securities
974 intermediary.

975 (d) Sections 8.8A-504 through 8.8A-508 do not require a securities intermediary to take any action 976 that is prohibited by other statute, regulation, or rule.

977 § 8.8A-510. Rights of purchaser of security entitlement from entitlement holder.

978 (a) An action based on an adverse claim to a financial asset or security entitlement, whether framed 979 in conversion, replevin, constructive trust, equitable lien, or other theory, may not be asserted against a 980 person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from an entitlement holder if the

981 purchaser gives value, does not have notice of the adverse claim, and obtains control.

982 (b) If an adverse claim could not have been asserted against an entitlement holder under § 8.8A-502, 983 the adverse claim cannot be asserted against a person who purchases a security entitlement, or an interest therein, from the entitlement holder. 984

985 (c) In a case not covered by the priority rules in Title 8.9, a purchaser for value of a security 986 entitlement, or an interest therein, who obtains control has priority over a purchaser of a security 987 entitlement, or an interest therein, who does not obtain control. Purchasers who have control rank 988 equally, except that a securities intermediary as purchaser has priority over a conflicting purchaser who 989 has control unless otherwise agreed by the securities intermediary.

990 § 8.8A-511. Priority among security interests and entitlement holders.

991 (a) Except as otherwise provided in subsections (b) and (c), if a securities intermediary does not 992 have sufficient interests in a particular financial asset to satisfy both its obligations to entitlement 993 holders who have security entitlements to that financial asset and its obligation to a creditor of the 994 securities intermediary who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claims of entitlement 995 holders, other than the creditor, have priority over the claim of the creditor.

996 (b) A claim of a creditor of a securities intermediary who has a security interest in a financial asset 997 held by a securities intermediary has priority over claims of the securities intermediary's entitlement 998 holders who have security entitlements with respect to that financial asset if the creditor has control 999 over the financial asset.

1000 (c) If a clearing corporation does not have sufficient financial assets to satisfy both its obligations to 1001 entitlement holders who have security entitlements with respect to a financial asset and its obligation to 1002 a creditor of the clearing corporation who has a security interest in that financial asset, the claim of the 1003 creditor has priority over the claims of entitlement holders. PART 6.

TRANSITION PROVISIONS.

1006 § 8.8A-601. Savings clause. 1007

(a) This title does not affect an action or proceeding commenced before January 1, 1996.

1008 (b) If a security interest in a security is perfected on January 1, 1996, and the action by which the 1009 security interest was perfected would suffice to perfect a security interest under this title, no further 1010 action is required to continue perfection.

1011 If a security interest in a security is perfected on January 1, 1996, but the action by which the 1012 security interest was perfected would not suffice to perfect a security interest under this title, the 1013 security interest remains perfected for a period of four months, until May 1, 1996, and continues 1014 perfected thereafter if appropriate action to perfect under this title is taken within that period.

1015 If a security interest is perfected on January 1, 1996, and the security interest can be perfected by 1016 filing under this title, a financing statement signed by the secured party instead of the debtor may be 1017 filed within that period to continue perfection or thereafter to perfect. 1018

§ 8.9-103. Perfection of security interests in multiple state transactions.

1019 (1) Documents, instruments and ordinary goods. (a) This subsection applies to documents and 1020 instruments and to goods other than those covered by a certificate of title described in subsection (2) of 1021 this section, mobile goods described in subsection (3) of this section, and minerals described in 1022 subsection (5) of this section.

1023 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or 1024 nonperfection of a security interest in collateral are governed by the law of the jurisdiction where the 1025 collateral is when the last event occurs on which is based the assertion that the security interest is 1026 perfected or unperfected.

1027 (c) If the parties to a transaction creating a purchase money security interest in goods in one 1028 jurisdiction understand at the time that the security interest attaches that the goods will be kept in 1029 another jurisdiction, then the law of the other jurisdiction governs the perfection and the effect of 1030 perfection or nonperfection of the security interest from the time it attaches until thirty days after the 1031 debtor receives possession of the goods and thereafter if the goods are taken to the other jurisdiction 1032 before the end of the thirty-day period.

1033 (d) When collateral is brought into and kept in this Commonwealth while subject to a security 1034 interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction from which the collateral was removed, the security 1035 interest remains perfected, but if action is required by Part 3 (§ 8.9-301 et seq.) of this title to perfect 1036 the security interest,

1037 (i) if the action is not taken before the expiration of the period of perfection in the other jurisdiction 1038 or the end of four months after the collateral is brought into this Commonwealth, whichever period first 1039 expires, the security interest becomes unperfected at the end of that period and is thereafter deemed to 1040 have been unperfected as against a person who became a purchaser after removal;

1041 (ii) if the action is taken before the expiration of the period specified in (i) of this paragraph, the 1042 security interest continues perfected thereafter;

(iii) for the purpose of priority over a buyer of consumer goods as provided for in subsection (2) of 1044 § 8.9-307, the period of the effectiveness of a filing in the jurisdiction from which the collateral is 1045 removed is governed by the rules with respect to perfection in (i) and (ii) of this paragraph.

1046 (2) Certificate of title. (a) This subsection applies to goods covered by a certificate of title issued 1047 under a statute of this Commonwealth or of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a 1048 security interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection.

1049 (b) Except as otherwise provided in this subsection, perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest are governed by the law, including the conflict of laws rules, of the 1050 jurisdiction issuing the certificate until four months after the goods are removed from that jurisdiction 1051 and thereafter until the goods are registered in another jurisdiction, but in any event not beyond 1052 1053 surrender of the certificate. After the expiration of that period, the goods are not covered by the 1054 certificate of title within the meaning of this section.

1059 (d) If goods are brought into this Commonwealth while a security interest therein is perfected in any 1060 manner under the law of the jurisdiction from which the goods are removed and a certificate of title is 1061 issued by this Commonwealth and the certificate does not show that the goods are subject to the security 1062 interest or that they may be subject to security interests not shown on the certificate, the security interest 1063 is subordinate to the rights of a buyer of the goods who is not in the business of selling goods of that 1064 kind to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of the goods after issuance of the certificate 1065 and without knowledge of the security interest.

(3) Accounts, general intangibles and mobile goods. (a) This subsection applies to accounts, other 1066 1067 than an account described in subsection (5) of this section and general intangibles (other than 1068 uncertificated securities) and to goods which are mobile and which are of a type normally used in more 1069 than one jurisdiction, such as motor vehicles, trailers, rolling stock, airplanes, shipping containers, road 1070 building and construction machinery and commercial harvesting machinery and the like, if the goods are 1071 equipment or are inventory leased or held for lease by the debtor to others, and are not covered by a 1072 certificate of title described in subsection (2) of this section.

1073 (b) The law, including the conflict of laws rules, of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located 1074 governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest.

1075 (c) If, however, the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the United States, and 1076 which does not provide for perfection of the security interest by filing or recording in that jurisdiction, 1077 the law of the jurisdiction in the United States in which the debtor has its major executive office in the 1078 United States governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of the security interest 1079 through filing. In the alternative, if the debtor is located in a jurisdiction which is not a part of the 1080 United States or Canada and the collateral is accounts or general intangibles for money due or to 1081 become due, the security interest may be perfected by notification to the account debtor. As used in this 1082 paragraph, "United States" includes its territories and possessions and the Commonwealth of Puerto 1083 Rico.

1084 (d) A debtor shall be deemed located at his place of business if he has one, at his chief executive 1085 office if he has more than one place of business, otherwise at his residence. If, however, the debtor is a 1086 foreign air carrier under the Federal Aviation Act of 1958, as amended, it shall be deemed located at the 1087 designated office of the agent upon whom service of process may be made on behalf of the foreign air 1088 carrier.

1089 (e) A security interest perfected under the law of the jurisdiction of the location of the debtor is 1090 perfected until the expiration of four months after a change of the debtor's location to another 1091 jurisdiction, or until perfection would have ceased by the law of the first jurisdiction, whichever period 1092 first expires. Unless perfected in the new jurisdiction before the end of that period, it becomes 1093 unperfected thereafter and is deemed to have been unperfected as against a person who became a 1094 purchaser after the change.

1095 (4) Chattel paper. The rules stated for goods in subsection (1) of this section apply to a possessory 1096 security interest in chattel paper. The rules stated for accounts in subsection (3) of this section apply to 1097 a nonpossessory security interest in chattel paper, but the security interest may not be perfected by 1098 notification to the account debtor.

(5) Minerals. Perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a security interest which is 1099 1100 created by a debtor who has an interest in minerals or the like, including oil and gas, before extraction and which attaches thereto as extracted, or which attaches to an account resulting from the sale thereof 1101 1102 at the wellhead or minehead are governed by the law, including the conflict of laws rules, of the 1103 jurisdiction wherein the wellhead or minehead is located.

1104 (6) Uncertificated securities. The law, including the conflict of laws rules, of the jurisdiction of 1105 organization of the issuer governs the perfection and the effect of perfection or nonperfection of a 1106 security interest in uncertificated securities. Investment property. (a) This subsection applies to 1107 investment property.

1108 (b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f), during the time that a security certificate is 1109 located in a jurisdiction, perfection of a security interest, the effect of perfection or non-perfection, and 1110 the priority of a security interest in the certificated security represented thereby are governed by the 1111 local law of that jurisdiction.

1112 (c) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f), perfection of a security interest, the effect of 1113 perfection or non-perfection, and the priority of a security interest in an uncertificated security are 1114 governed by the local law of the issuer's jurisdiction as specified in § 8.8A-110(d).

1115 (d) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f), perfection of a security interest, the effect of 1116 perfection or non-perfection, and the priority of a security interest in a security entitlement or securities account are governed by the local law of the securities intermediary's jurisdiction as specified in 1117 1118 § 8.8A-110(e).

1119 (e) Except as otherwise provided in paragraph (f), perfection of a security interest, the effect of 1120 perfection or non-perfection, and the priority of a security interest in a commodity contract or 1121 commodity account are governed by the local law of the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction. The 1122 following rules determine a "commodity intermediary's jurisdiction" for purposes of this paragraph:

1123 (i) If an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer specifies that it is 1124 governed by the law of a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's 1125 jurisdiction.

1126 (ii) If an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer does not specify 1127 the governing law as provided in subparagraph (i), but expressly specifies that the commodity account is 1128 maintained at an office in a particular jurisdiction, that jurisdiction is the commodity intermediary's 1129 jurisdiction.

1130 (iii) If an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer does not specify 1131 a jurisdiction as provided in subparagraphs (i) or (ii), the commodity intermediary's jurisdiction is the 1132 jurisdiction in which is located the office identified in an account statement as the office serving the 1133 commodity customer's account.

1134 (iv) If an agreement between the commodity intermediary and commodity customer does not specify a 1135 jurisdiction as provided in subparagraphs (i) or (ii) and an account statement does not identify an office 1136 serving the commodity customer's account as provided in subparagraph (iii), the commodity 1137 intermediary's jurisdiction is the jurisdiction in which is located the chief executive office of the 1138 commodity intermediary.

1139 (f) Perfection of a security interest by filing, automatic perfection of a security interest in investment 1140 property granted by a broker or securities intermediary, and automatic perfection of a security interest 1141 in a commodity contract or commodity account granted by a commodity intermediary are governed by the local law of the jurisdiction in which the debtor is located. 1142 1143

§ 8.9-105. Definitions and index of definitions.

(1) In this title unless the context otherwise requires:

1145 (a) "Account debtor" means the person who is obligated on an account, chattel paper or general 1146 intangible;

1147 (b) "Chattel paper" means a writing or writings which evidence both a monetary obligation and a 1148 security interest in or a lease of specific goods, but a charter or other contract involving the use or hire 1149 of a vessel is not chattel paper. When a transaction is evidenced both by such a security agreement or a 1150 lease and by an instrument or a series of instruments, the group of writings taken together constitutes 1151 chattel paper;

1152 (c) "Collateral" means the property subject to a security interest, and includes accounts and chattel 1153 paper which have been sold;

1154 (d) "Debtor" means the person who owes payment or other performance of the obligation secured, 1155 whether or not he owns or has rights in the collateral, and includes the seller of accounts or chattel 1156 paper. Where the debtor and the owner of the collateral are not the same person, the term "debtor" 1157 means the owner of the collateral in any provision of the title dealing with the collateral, the obligor in 1158 any provision dealing with the obligation, and may include both where the context so requires;

1159 (e) "Deposit account" means a demand, time, savings, passbook or like account maintained with a bank, savings and loan association, credit union or like organization, other than an account evidenced by 1160 1161 a certificate of deposit;

(f) "Document" means document of title as defined in the general definitions of Title 8.1 within 1162 1163 § 8.1-201, and a receipt of the kind described in subsection (2) of § 8.7-201;

(g) "Encumbrance" includes real estate mortgages and other liens on real estate and all other rights in 1164 1165 real estate that are not ownership interests;

1166	(h) "Goods" includes all things which are movable at the time the security interest attaches or which
1167	are fixtures as provided in § 8.9-313, but does not include money, documents, instruments, investment
1168	property, commodity contracts, accounts, chattel paper, general intangibles, or minerals or the like
1169	(including oil and gas) before extraction. "Goods" also includes standing timber which is to be cut and
1170	removed under a conveyance or contract for sale, the unborn young of animals, and growing crops;
1171	(i) "Instrument" means a negotiable instrument as defined in § 8.3-104, or a certificated security as
1172	defined in § 8.8-102 Title 8.8 or any other writing which evidences a right to the payment of money and
1173	is not itself a security agreement or lease and is of a type which is in ordinary course of business
1174	transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment, and the term does not include
1175	investment property;
1176	(j) "Mortgage" means a consensual interest created by a real estate mortgage, a trust deed on real
1177	estate, or the like;
1178	(k) An advance is made "pursuant to commitment" if the secured party has bound himself to make it,
1179	whether or not a subsequent event of default or other event not within his control has relieved or may
1180	relieve him from his obligation;
1181	(1) "Security agreement" means an agreement which creates or provides for a security interest;
1182	(m) "Secured party" means a lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest,
1183	including a person to whom accounts or chattel paper have been sold. When the holders of obligations
1184	issued under an indenture of trust, equipment trust agreement or the like are represented by a trustee or
1185	other person, either the lender, seller or other person in whose favor there is a security interest or the
1186	representative is the secured party. The person shown on a filed financing statement as the secured party
1187	shall be treated as the secured party of record.

§ 8.9-106. Definitions: "Account"; "general intangibles." 1228

1229 "Account" means any right to payment for goods sold or leased or for services rendered which is not 1230 evidenced by an instrument or chattel paper, whether or not it has been earned by performance.

1231 "General intangibles" means any personal property (including things in action) other than goods, 1232 accounts, chattel paper, documents, instruments, investment property, and money. All rights to payment 1233 earned or unearned under a charter or other contract involving the use or hire of a vessel and all rights 1234 incident to the charter or contract are accounts.

1235 § 8.9-115. Investment property.

1236 (1) In this title:

1237 (a) "Commodity account" means an account maintained by a commodity intermediary in which a 1238 commodity contract is carried for a commodity customer.

1239 (b) "Commodity contract" means a commodity futures contract, an option on a commodity futures 1240 contract, a commodity option, or other contract that, in each case, is:

1241 (i) traded on or subject to the rules of a board of trade that has been designated as a contract 1242 market for such a contract pursuant to the federal commodities laws; or 1243 (ii) traded on a foreign commodity board of trade, exchange, or market, and is carried on the books 1244 of a commodity intermediary for a commodity customer.

1245 (c) "Commodity customer" means a person for whom a commodity intermediary carries a commodity 1246 contract on its books.

1247 (d) "Commodity intermediary" means:

1248 (i) a person who is registered as a futures commission merchant under the federal commodities laws; 1249 or

1250 (ii) a person who in the ordinary course of its business provides clearance or settlement services for 1251 a board of trade that has been designated as a contract market pursuant to the federal commodities 1252 laws.

1253 (e) "Control" with respect to a certificated security, uncertificated security, or security entitlement 1254 has the meaning specified in § 8.8A-106. A secured party has control over a commodity contract if by 1255 agreement among the commodity customer, the commodity intermediary, and the secured party, the 1256 commodity intermediary has agreed that it will apply any value distributed on account of the commodity 1257 contract as directed by the secured party without further consent by the commodity customer. If a 1258 commodity customer grants a security interest in a commodity contract to its own commodity 1259 intermediary, the commodity intermediary as secured party has control. A secured party has control 1260 over a securities account or commodity account if the secured party has control over all security 1261 entitlements or commodity contracts carried in the securities account or commodity account.

- 1262 (f) "Investment property" means:
- 1263 (i) a security, whether certificated or uncertificated;
- 1264 (ii) a security entitlement;
- 1265 (iii) a securities account;
- 1266 (iv) a commodity contract; or

1267 (v) a commodity account.

1268 (2) Attachment or perfection of a security interest in a securities account is also attachment or 1269 perfection of a security interest in all security entitlements carried in the securities account. Attachment 1270 or perfection of a security interest in a commodity account is also attachment or perfection of a security 1271 interest in all commodity contracts carried in the commodity account.

1272 (3) A description of collateral in a security agreement or financing statement is sufficient to create 1273 or perfect a security interest in a certificated security, uncertificated security, security entitlement, 1274 securities account, commodity contract, or commodity account whether it describes the collateral by 1275 those terms, or as investment property, or by description of the underlying security, financial asset, or 1276 commodity contract. A description of investment property collateral in a security agreement or financing 1277 statement is sufficient if it identifies the collateral by specific listing, by category, by quantity, by a 1278 computational or allocational formula or procedure, or by any other method, if the identity of the 1279 collateral is objectively determinable.

1280 (4) Perfection of a security interest in investment property is governed by the following rules: 1281

(a) A security interest in investment property may be perfected by control.

1282 (b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d), a security interest in investment property 1283 may be perfected by filing.

1284 (c) If the debtor is a broker or securities intermediary, a security interest in investment property is 1285 perfected when it attaches. The filing of a financing statement with respect to a security interest in 1286 investment property granted by a broker or securities intermediary has no effect for purposes of 1287 perfection or priority with respect to that security interest.

1288 (d) If a debtor is a commodity intermediary, a security interest in a commodity contract or a

1289 commodity account is perfected when it attaches. The filing of a financing statement with respect to a 1290 security interest in a commodity contract or a commodity account granted by a commodity intermediary 1291 has no effect for purposes of perfection or priority with respect to that security interest.

1292 (5) Priority between conflicting security interests in the same investment property is governed by the 1293 following rules:

1294 (a) A security interest of a secured party who has control over investment property has priority over a security interest of a secured party who does not have control over the investment property. 1295

1296 (b) Except as otherwise provided in paragraphs (c) and (d), conflicting security interests of secured 1297 parties each of whom has control rank equally.

1298 (c) Except as otherwise agreed by the securities intermediary, a security interest in a security 1299 entitlement or a securities account granted to the debtor's own securities intermediary has priority over 1300 any security interest granted by the debtor to another secured party.

(d) Except as otherwise agreed by the commodity intermediary, a security interest in a commodity 1301 1302 contract or a commodity account granted to the debtor's own commodity intermediary has priority over 1303 any security interest granted by the debtor to another secured party.

1304 (e) Conflicting security interests granted by a broker, a securities intermediary, or a commodity 1305 intermediary which are perfected without control rank equally.

1306 (f) In all other cases, priority between conflicting security interests in investment property is 1307 governed by § 8.9-312(5), (6), and (7). Section 8.9-312(4) does not apply to investment property.

1308 (6) If a security certificate in registered form is delivered to a secured party pursuant to agreement, 1309 a written security agreement is not required for attachment or enforceability of the security interest, delivery suffices for perfection of the security interest, and the security interest has priority over a 1310 1311 conflicting security interest perfected by means other than control, even if a necessary indorsement is 1312 lacking. 1313

§ 8.9-116. Security interest arising in purchase or delivery of financial asset.

1314 (1) If a person buys a financial asset through a securities intermediary in a transaction in which the 1315 buyer is obligated to pay the purchase price to the securities intermediary at the time of the purchase, 1316 and the securities intermediary credits the financial asset to the buyer's securities account before the 1317 buyer pays the securities intermediary, the securities intermediary has a security interest in the buyer's 1318 security entitlement securing the buyer's obligation to pay. A security agreement is not required for 1319 attachment or enforceability of the security interest, and the security interest is automatically perfected.

1320 (2) If a certificated security, or other financial asset represented by a writing which in the ordinary 1321 course of business is transferred by delivery with any necessary indorsement or assignment is delivered 1322 pursuant to an agreement between persons in the business of dealing with such securities or financial 1323 assets and the agreement calls for delivery versus payment, the person delivering the certificate or other 1324 financial asset has a security interest in the certificated security or other financial asset securing the seller's right to receive payment. A security agreement is not required for attachment or enforceability of 1325 1326 the security interest, and the security interest is automatically perfected.

§ 8.9-203. Attachment and enforceability of security interest; proceeds, formal requisites.

1328 (1) Subject to the provisions of § 8.4-208 on the security interest of a collecting bank,  $\frac{8}{5} \cdot \frac{8}{5} \cdot \frac{3}{21} \cdot \frac{1}{5}$  on 1329 security interests in securities §§ 8.9-115 and 8.9-116 on security interests in investment property and 1330 § 8.9-113 on a security interest arising under the title on sales, a security interest is not enforceable 1331 against the debtor or third parties with respect to the collateral and does not attach unless:

1332 (a) the collateral is in the possession of the secured party pursuant to agreement, the collateral is 1333 investment property and the secured party has control pursuant to agreement, or the debtor has signed a 1334 security agreement which contains a description of the collateral and in addition, when the security interest covers crops growing or to be grown or timber to be cut, a description of the land concerned; 1335 1336

(b) value has been given; and

(c) the debtor has rights in the collateral.

1338 (2) A security interest attaches when it becomes enforceable against the debtor with respect to the 1339 collateral. Attachment occurs as soon as all of the events specified in subsection (1) of this section have 1340 taken place unless explicit agreement postpones the time of attaching.

1341 (3) Unless otherwise agreed a security agreement gives the secured party the rights to proceeds provided by § 8.9-306. 1342

1343 (4) A transaction, although subject to this title, is also subject to §§ 6.1-244 through 6.1-309 and 1344 11-4, and in the case of conflict between the provisions of this title and any such statute, the provisions 1345 of such statute control. Failure to comply with any applicable statute has only the effect which is 1346 specified therein. 1347

§ 8.9-301. Persons who take priority over unperfected security interests; rights of "lien creditor."

1348 (1) Except as otherwise provided in subsection (2), an unperfected security interest is subordinate to 1349 the rights of 1350 (a) persons entitled to priority under § 8.9-312;

1351 (b) a person who becomes a lien creditor before the security interest is perfected;

1352 (c) in the case of goods, instruments, documents, and chattel paper, a person who is not a secured 1353 party and who is a transferee in bulk or other buyer not in ordinary course of business, or is a buyer of 1354 farm products in ordinary course of business, to the extent that he gives value and receives delivery of 1355 the collateral without knowledge of the security interest and before it is perfected;

1356 (d) in the case of accounts and, general intangibles and investment property, a person who is not a 1357 secured party and who is a transferee to the extent that he gives value without knowledge of the security 1358 interest and before it is perfected.

1359 (2) If the secured party files with respect to a purchase money security interest before or within 1360 twenty days after the debtor receives possession of the collateral, he takes priority over the rights of a 1361 transferee in bulk or of a lien creditor which arise between the time the security interest attaches and the 1362 time of filing.

1363 (3) A "lien creditor" means a creditor who has acquired a lien on the property involved by attachment, levy or the like and includes an assignee for benefit of creditors from the time of 1364 1365 assignment, and a trustee in bankruptcy from the date of the filing of the petition or a receiver in equity 1366 from the time of appointment.

1367 (4) A person who becomes a lien creditor while a security interest is perfected takes subject to the 1368 security interest only to the extent that it secures advances made before he becomes a lien creditor or 1369 within forty-five days thereafter or made without knowledge of the lien or pursuant to a commitment 1370 entered into without knowledge of the lien.

1371 § 8.9-302. When filing is required to perfect security interest; security interests to which filing 1372 provisions of this title do not apply. 1373

(1) A financing statement shall be filed to perfect all security interests except the following:

(a) a security interest in collateral in possession of the secured party under § 8.9-305;

1375 (b) a security interest temporarily perfected in instruments, certificated securities or documents 1376 without delivery under § 8.9-304 or in proceeds for a twentyten-day period under § 8.9-306;

1377 (c) a security interest created by an assignment of a beneficial interest in a trust or a decedent's 1378 estate;

1379 (d) a purchase money security interest in consumer goods; but notation on the certificate of title is 1380 required for a motor vehicle or watercraft required to be titled; and fixture filing is required for priority 1381 over conflicting interests in fixtures to the extent provided in § 8.9-313;

1382 (e) an assignment of accounts which does not alone or in conjunction with other assignments to the 1383 same assignee transfer a significant part of the outstanding accounts of the assignor;

1384 (f) a security interest of a collecting bank as provided under § 8.4-208 or in securities as provided in 1385 § 8.8 321, or arising under Title 8.2 to the extent provided under § 8.9-113 or covered in subsection (3) 1386 of this section;

1387 (g) an assignment for the benefit of all the creditors of the transferor, and subsequent transfers by the 1388 assignee thereunder.;

1389 (h) a security interest in investment property which is perfected without filing under § 8.9-115 or 1390 § 8.9-116.

1391 (2) If the secured party assigns a perfected security interest, no filing under this title is required in 1392 order to continue the perfected status of the security interest against creditors of and transferees from the 1393 original debtor.

1394 (3) The filing of a financing statement otherwise required by this title is not necessary or effective to 1395 perfect a security interest in property subject to:

1396 (a) a statute or treaty of the United States which provides for a national or international registration 1397 or a national or international certificate of title or which specifies a place of filing different from that 1398 specified in this title for filing of the security interest; or

1399 (b) sections 46.2-603 through 46.2-635 and §§ 62.1-186.1 through 62.1-186.24 but during any period 1400 in which collateral is inventory held for sale by a person who is in the business of selling goods of that 1401 kind, the filing provisions of Part 4 (§ 8.9-401 et seq.) of this title apply to a security interest in that collateral created by him as debtor; or 1402

1403 (c) a certificate of title statute of another jurisdiction under the law of which indication of a security 1404 interest on the certificate is required as a condition of perfection as provided in subsection (2) of 1405 § 8.9-103.

1406 (4) Compliance with a statute or treaty described in subsection (3) of this section is equivalent to the 1407 filing of a financing statement under this title, and a security interest in property subject to the statute or treaty can be perfected only by compliance therewith except as provided in § 8.9-103 on multiple-state 1408 1409 transactions. Duration and renewal of perfection of a security interest perfected by compliance with the statute or treaty are governed by the provisions of the statute or treaty; in other respects the security 1410 1411 interest is subject to this title.

1412 (5) The filing provisions of this title do not apply to a security interest in property of any description 1413 or any interest therein created by a deed of trust or mortgage made by a public service corporation as 1414 defined in § 56-1, but the deed of trust or mortgage shall be recorded and filed in the county or 1415 corporation in which such deed of trust or mortgage is required by § 55-96 to be recorded. A secured party may perfect its security interest in property of a public service corporation by filing under 1416 1417 §§ 8.9-401 through 8.9-406, in which case no compliance with § 55-96 shall be required, and such 1418 security interest shall be perfected as to property otherwise subject to this title.

1419 (6) The filing provisions of this title do not apply to any security interest created in connection with 1420 the issuance of any bond, note or other evidence of indebtedness for borrowed money by this 1421 Commonwealth or any political subdivision or agency thereof.

1422 § 8.9-304. Perfection of security interest in instruments, documents, and goods covered by 1423 documents; perfection by permissive filing; temporary perfection without filing or transfer of possession.

1424 (1) A security interest in chattel paper or negotiable documents may be perfected by filing. A security interest in money or instruments, other than certificated securities or instruments which 1425 1426 constitute part of chattel paper, can be perfected only by the secured party's taking possession, except as 1427 provided in subsections (4) and (5) of this section and subsections (2) and (3) of § 8.9-306 on proceeds.

1428 (2) During the period that goods are in the possession of the issuer of a negotiable document 1429 therefor, a security interest in the goods is perfected by perfecting a security interest in the document, 1430 and any security interest in the goods otherwise perfected during such period is subject thereto.

1431 (3) A security interest in goods in the possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable document therefor is perfected by issuance of a document in the name of the secured party or 1432 1433 by the bailee's receipt of notification of the secured party's interest or by filing as to the goods.

1434 (4) A security interest in instruments (other than, certificated securities) or negotiable documents is 1435 perfected without filing or the taking of possession for a period of twenty-one days from the time it 1436 attaches to the extent that it arises for new value given under a written security agreement.

1437 (5) A security interest remains perfected for a period of twenty-one days without filing where a 1438 secured party having a perfected security interest in an instrument (other than, a certificated security), a 1439 negotiable document or goods in possession of a bailee other than one who has issued a negotiable 1440 document therefor:

1441 (a) makes available to the debtor the goods or documents representing the goods for the purpose of 1442 ultimate sale or exchange or for the purpose of loading, unloading, storing, shipping, transshipping, 1443 manufacturing, processing or otherwise dealing with them in a manner preliminary to their sale or 1444 exchange, but priority between conflicting security interests in the goods is subject to subsection (3) of 1445 § 8.9-312; or 1446 (b) delivers the instrument or certificated security to the debtor for the purpose of ultimate sale or 1447 exchange or of presentation, collection, renewal or registration of transfer.

(6) After the twenty-one-day period in subsections (4) and (5) of this section perfection depends 1448 1449 upon compliance with applicable provisions of this title. 1450

§ 8.9-305. When possession by secured party perfects security interest without filing.

1451 A security interest in letters of credit and advices of credit as provided in paragraph (a) of subsection 1452 (2) of § 8.5-116, goods, instruments (other than certificated securities), money, negotiable documents or 1453 chattel paper may be perfected by the secured party's taking possession of the collateral. If such 1454 collateral other than goods covered by a negotiable document is held by a bailee, the secured party is 1455 deemed to have possession from the time the bailee receives notification of the secured party's interest. A security interest is perfected by possession from the time possession is taken without relation back 1456 1457 and continues only so long as possession is retained, unless otherwise specified in this title. The security 1458 interest may be otherwise perfected as provided in this title before or after the period of possession by 1459 the secured party. 1460

§ 8.9-306. "Proceeds"; secured party's rights on disposition of collateral.

1461 (1) "Proceeds" includes whatever is received upon the sale, exchange, collection or other disposition 1462 of collateral or proceeds. Insurance payable by reason of loss or damage to the collateral is proceeds, 1463 except to the extent that it is payable to a person other than a party to the security agreement. Any payments or distributions made with respect to investment property collateral are proceeds. Money, 1464 1465 checks, deposit accounts, and the like are "cash proceeds." All other proceeds are "non-cash proceeds."

1466 (2) Except where this title otherwise provides, a security interest continues in collateral 1467 notwithstanding sale, exchange, or other disposition thereof unless the disposition was authorized by the 1468 secured party in the security agreement or otherwise, and also continues in any identifiable proceeds 1469 including collections received by the debtor.

1470 (3) The security interest in proceeds is a continuously perfected security interest if the interest in the 1471 original collateral was perfected but it ceases to be a perfected security interest and becomes unperfected 1472 twenty days after receipt of the proceeds by the debtor unless

1473 (a) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are collateral in which a

1474 security interest may be perfected by filing in the office or offices where the financing statement has 1475 been filed and, if the proceeds are acquired with cash proceeds, the description of collateral in the 1476 financing statement indicates the types of property constituting the proceeds; or

1477 (b) a filed financing statement covers the original collateral and the proceeds are identifiable cash 1478 proceeds; or

1479 (c) the original collateral was investment property and the proceeds are identifiable cash proceeds; 1480 or

(d) the security interest in the proceeds is perfected before the expiration of the twentyten-day period. 1482 Except as provided in this section, a security interest in proceeds can be perfected only by the 1483 methods or under the circumstances permitted in this title for original collateral of the same type.

1484 (4) In the event of insolvency proceedings instituted by or against a debtor, a secured party with a 1485 perfected security interest in proceeds has a perfected security interest only in the following proceeds: 1486

(a) in identifiable noncash proceeds and in separate deposit accounts containing only proceeds;

1487 (b) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of money which is neither commingled with other 1488 money nor deposited in a deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings;

1489 (c) in identifiable cash proceeds in the form of checks and the like which are not deposited in a 1490 deposit account prior to the insolvency proceedings; and

1491 (d) in all cash and deposit accounts of the debtor, in which proceeds have been commingled with 1492 other funds, but the perfected security interest under this paragraph (d) is

1493 (i) subject to any right of setoff; and

1494 (ii) limited to an amount not greater than the amount of any cash proceeds received by the debtor 1495 within twenty days before the institution of the insolvency proceedings less the sum of (I) the payments 1496 to the secured party on account of cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period and (II) the 1497 cash proceeds received by the debtor during such period to which the secured party is entitled under 1498 paragraphs (a) through (c) of this subsection (4).

1499 (5) If a sale of goods results in an account or chattel paper which is transferred by the seller to a 1500 secured party, and if the goods are returned to or are repossessed by the seller or the secured party, the 1501 following rules determine priorities:

1502 (a) If the goods were collateral at the time of sale for an indebtedness of the seller which is still 1503 unpaid, the original security interest attaches again to the goods and continues as a perfected security 1504 interest if it was perfected at the time when the goods were sold. If the security interest was originally 1505 perfected by a filing which is still effective, nothing further is required to continue the perfected status; 1506 in any other case, the secured party must take possession of the returned or repossessed goods or must 1507 file.

1508 (b) An unpaid transferee of the chattel paper has a security interest in the goods against the 1509 transferor. Such security interest is prior to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a) to the extent 1510 that the transferee of the chattel paper was entitled to priority under § 8.9-308.

1511 (c) An unpaid transferee of the account has a security interest in the goods against the transferor. 1512 Such security interest is subordinate to a security interest asserted under paragraph (a).

(d) A security interest of an unpaid transferee asserted under paragraph (b) or (c) must be perfected 1513 1514 for protection against creditors of the transferor and purchasers of the returned or repossessed goods.

1515 § 8.9-309. Protection of purchasers of instruments and documents.

1516 Nothing in this title limits the rights of a holder in due course of a negotiable instrument as defined 1517 in § 8.3-302 or a holder to whom a negotiable document of title has been duly negotiated as provided in 1518 § 8.7-501 or a bona fide protected purchaser of a security as defined in § 8.8-302 8.8A-303 and such 1519 holders or purchasers take priority over an earlier security interest even though perfected. Filing under 1520 this title does not constitute notice of the security interest to such holders or purchasers.

§ 8.9-312. Priorities among conflicting security interests in the same collateral.

1522 (1) The rules of priority stated in other sections of this part and in the following sections shall 1523 govern when applicable: § 8.4-208 8.4A-210 with respect to the security interests of collecting banks in 1524 items being collected, accompanying documents and proceeds; § 8.9-103 on security interests related to 1525 other jurisdictions; § 8.9-114 on consignments; § 8.9-115 on security interests in investment property.

1526 (2) A perfected security interest in crops for new value given to enable the debtor to produce the 1527 crops during the production season and given not more than three months before the crops become 1528 growing crops by planting or otherwise takes priority over an earlier perfected security interest to the 1529 extent that such earlier interest secures obligations due more than six months before the crops become 1530 growing crops by planting or otherwise, even though the person giving new value had knowledge of the 1531 earlier security interest.

1532 (3) A perfected purchase money security interest in inventory has priority over a conflicting security 1533 interest in the same inventory and also has priority in identifiable cash proceeds received on or before 1534 the delivery of the inventory to a buyer if

1535 (a) the purchase money security is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the 1536 inventory; and

(b) the purchase money secured party gives notification in writing to the holder of the conflicting 1537 1538 security interest if the holder had filed a financing statement covering the same types of inventory (i) 1539 before the date of the filing made by the purchase money secured party, or (ii) before the beginning of 1540 the twenty-one-day period where the purchase money security interest is temporarily perfected without 1541 filing or possession as provided in subsection (5) of § 8.9-304; and

1542 (c) the holder of the conflicting security interest receives the notification within five years before the 1543 debtor receives possession of the inventory; and

1544 (d) the notification states that the person giving the notice has or expects to acquire a purchase 1545 money security interest in inventory of the debtor, describing such inventory by item or type.

(4) A purchase money security interest in collateral other than inventory has priority over a 1546 1547 conflicting security interest in the same collateral or its proceeds if the purchase money security interest 1548 is perfected at the time the debtor receives possession of the collateral or within twenty days thereafter.

(5) In all cases not governed by other rules stated in this section, including cases of purchase money 1549 1550 security interests which do not qualify for the special priorities set forth in subsections (3) and (4) of 1551 this section, priority between conflicting security interests in the same collateral shall be determined 1552 according to the following rules:

1553 (a) Conflicting security interests rank according to priority in time of filing or perfection. Priority 1554 dates from the time a filing is first made covering the collateral or the time the security interest is first 1555 perfected, whichever is earlier, provided that there is no period thereafter when there is neither filing nor 1556 perfection. 1557

(b) So long as conflicting security interests are unperfected, the first to attach has priority.

1558 (6) For the purposes of subsection (5) a date of filing or perfection as to collateral is also a date of filing or perfection as to proceeds. 1559

1560 (7) If future advances are made while a security interest is perfected by filing, the taking of possession, or under § 8.8-321 on securities or under § 8.9-115 or § 8.9-116 on investment property, the 1561 1562 security interest has the same priority for the purposes of subsection (5) of this section with respect to 1563 the future advances as it does with respect to the first advance. If a commitment is made before or 1564 while the security interest is so perfected, the security interest has the same priority with respect to 1565 advances made pursuant thereto. In other cases a perfected security interest has priority from the date 1566 the advance is made.

1567 2. That Title 8.8 (§§ 8.8-101 through 8.8-408) of the Code of Virginia is repealed.

1568 3. That Chapter 4.1 (§§ 13.1-424 through 13.1-433) of Title 13.1 is repealed.

1569 4. That the provisions of this act shall become effective on January 1, 1997.
