SENATE BILL NO. 567

Offered January 22, 1996

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 58.1-322, 58.1-333, 58.1-430 and 63.1-320 through 63.1-324 of the Code of Virginia; to amend the Code of Virginia by adding sections numbered 63.1-323.1 and 63.1-323.2; to amend and reenact the fourth enactment of Chapter 629 of the Acts of Assembly of 1981, as last amended by Chapter 779 of the Acts of Assembly of 1995; and to amend and reenact the third enactment of Chapter 407 of the Acts of Assembly of 1986, relating to family savings accounts.

Patrons—Earley, Lambert and Stosch

Referred to the Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 58.1-322, 58.1-333, 58.1-430 and 63.1-320 through 63.1-324 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted and that the Code of Virginia is amended by adding sections numbered 63.1-323.1 and 63.1-323.2 as follows:

§ 58.1-322. Virginia taxable income of residents.

A. The Virginia taxable income of a resident individual means his federal adjusted gross income for the taxable year, which excludes combat pay for certain members of the Armed Forces of the United States as provided in § 112 of the Internal Revenue Code, as amended, and with the modifications specified in this section.

B. To the extent excluded from federal adjusted gross income, there shall be added:

1. Interest, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal income, on obligations of any state other than Virginia, or of a political subdivision of any such other state unless created by compact or agreement to which Virginia is a party;

2. Interest or dividends, less related expenses to the extent not deducted in determining federal taxable income, on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States, which the laws of the United States exempt from federal income tax but not from state income taxes;

3. Unrelated business taxable income as defined by § 512 of the Internal Revenue Code;

4. The amount of a lump sum distribution from a qualified retirement plan, less the minimum distribution allowance and any amount excludable for federal income tax purposes which is excluded from federal adjusted gross income solely by virtue of an individual's election to use the averaging provisions under § 402 of the Internal Revenue Code;

5. through 7. [Repealed.]

8. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, any amount of self-employment tax deduction under § 164 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code; and

9. The amount required to be included in income for the purpose of computing the partial tax on an accumulation distribution pursuant to § 667 of the Internal Revenue Code.

10. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, withdrawals from a family savings account, but only to the extent that: (i) such withdrawals are not used for the acquisition of long-term assets in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 19 (§§ 63.1-320 et seq.) of Title 63.1 or (ii) the cumulative nontaxable withdrawals from a family savings account by such taxpayer exceed $10,000.

C. To the extent included in federal adjusted gross income, there shall be subtracted:

1. Interest or dividends on obligations of the United States and on obligations or securities of any authority, commission or instrumentality of the United States to the extent exempt from state income taxes under the laws of the United States including, but not limited to, stocks, bonds, treasury bills, and treasury notes, but not including interest on refunds of federal taxes, interest on equipment purchase contracts, or interest on other normal business transactions.

2. Interest on obligations of this Commonwealth or of any political subdivision or instrumentality of this Commonwealth.

3. [Repealed.]

4. Benefits received under Title II of the Social Security Act and other benefits subject to federal income taxation solely pursuant to § 86 of the Internal Revenue Code.

4a. A deduction equal to the amount used in computing the federal credit allowed under § 22 of the Internal Revenue Code by a retiree under age sixty-five who qualified for such retirement on the basis of permanent and total disability and who is a qualified individual as defined in § 22 (b) (2) of the Internal Revenue Code; however, any person who claims a subtraction under subdivision 5 of subsection

INTRODUCED

SB567

60 D of this section may not also claim a deduction under this subdivision.

61 5. The amount of any refund or credit for overpayment of income taxes imposed by the 62 Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction.

63 6. The amount of wages or salaries eligible for the federal Targeted Jobs Credit which was not 64 deducted for federal purposes on account of the provisions of § 280 C (a) of the Internal Revenue Code.

65 7. Any amount included therein which is foreign source income as defined in § 58.1-302.

66 8. For taxable years beginning after December 31, 1983, the available portion of total excess cost
67 recovery as defined in former § 58.1-323 B and for taxable years beginning after December 31, 1987,
68 the excess cost recovery amount specified in § 58.1-323.1 B.

69 9. [Expired.]

70 10. Any amount included therein less than $600 from a prize awarded by the State Lottery
71 Department.

72 11. The wages or salaries received by any person for active and inactive service in the National 73 Guard of the Commonwealth of Virginia, not to exceed the amount of income derived from thirty-nine 74 calendar days of such service or $3,000, whichever amount is less; however, only those persons in the 75 ranks of O3 and below shall be entitled to the deductions specified herein.

76 12. Amounts received by an individual, not to exceed $1,000 in any taxable year, as a reward for 77 information provided to a law-enforcement official or agency, or to a nonprofit corporation created
78 exclusively to assist such law-enforcement official or agency, in the apprehension and conviction of 79 perpetrators of crimes. This provision shall not apply to the following: an individual who is an employee
80 of, or under contract with, a law-enforcement agency, a victim or the perpetrator of the crime for which 81 the reward was paid, or any person who is compensated for the investigation of crimes or accidents.

82 13. [Repealed.]

83 14. (Expires for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1999.) The amount of any qualified
84 agricultural contribution as determined in § 58.1-322.2.

85 15. [Repealed.]

86 16. The amounts of self-employment tax required to be added in computing Virginia taxable income
87 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, but before January 1, 1994, pursuant to 88 subdivision B 8 of this section, as follows:

89 a. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1994, and before January 1, 1995, the amount
90 of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after
91 January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1991;

92 b. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1995, and before January 1, 1996, the amount
93 of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after
94 January 1, 1991, and before January 1, 1992;

95 c. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1996, and before January 1, 1997, the amount
96 of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after
97 January 1, 1992, and before January 1, 1993;

98 d. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1997, and before January 1, 1998, the amount
99 of self-employment tax added to federal adjusted gross income in taxable years beginning on and after 100 January 1, 1993, and before January 1, 1994, and any amount of self-employment tax required to be
101 added back for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, and before January 1, 1994, which 102 was not subtracted in those taxable years.

103 17. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1995, the amount of "qualified research
104 expenses" or "basic research expenses" eligible for deduction for federal purposes, but which were not 105 deducted, on account of the provisions of § 280 C (c) of the Internal Revenue Code and which shall be 106 available to partners, shareholders of S corporations, and members of limited liability companies to the 107 extent and in the same manner as other deductions may pass through to such partners, shareholders, and 108 members.

109 18. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, interest earned by a qualified
110 low-income person on the balance of a Family Savings Account, but only to the extent that the balance
111 of such account does not exceed $10,000, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 19 (§§ 63.1-320 112 et seq.) of Title 63.1.

113 19. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, contributions received in accordance 114 with the provisions of Chapter 19 (§§ 63.1-320 et seq.) of Title 63.1 for the purpose of matching 115 deposits by a taxpayer on behalf of qualified low-income persons to family savings accounts, but only to
116 the extent that: (i) such matching contribution does not exceed the lesser of fifty percent of the deposits
117 made by the qualified low-income persons for such year, or $600 and (ii) the total balance of the family
118 savings account does not exceed $10,000.

119 D. In computing Virginia taxable income there shall be deducted from federal adjusted gross income:

120 1. a. The amount allowable for itemized deductions for federal income tax purposes where the 121 taxpayer has elected for the taxable year to itemize deductions on his federal return, but reduced by the amount of income taxes imposed by the Commonwealth or any other taxing jurisdiction and deducted on such federal return and increased by an amount which, when added to the amount deducted under § 170 of the Internal Revenue Code for mileage, results in a mileage deduction at the state level for such purposes at a rate of eighteen cents per mile; or

b. Two thousand dollars for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987; $2,700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1988, through December 31, 1988; and $5,000 for married persons (one-half of such amounts in the case of a married individual filing a separate return); and $3,000 for single individuals for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1989; provided that the taxpayer has not itemized deductions for the taxable year on his federal income tax return. For purposes of this section, any person who may be claimed as a dependent on another taxpayer's return for the taxable year may compute the deduction only with respect to earned income.

2. a. A deduction in the amount of $700 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987, through December 31, 1987, and $800 for taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1988, for each personal exemption allowable to the taxpayer for federal income tax purposes. For taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1987, each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code shall be entitled to an additional personal exemption.

b. An additional deduction of $200 for taxable years beginning January 1, 1987 through December 31, 1987, for each blind or aged taxpayer as defined under § 63 (f) of the Internal Revenue Code. The additional deduction for blind or aged taxpayers allowed under this subdivision and the additional personal exemption allowed to blind or aged taxpayers under subdivision 2 a of this subsection shall be allowable regardless of whether the taxpayer itemizes deductions for the taxable year for federal income tax purposes.

3. A deduction equal to the amount of employment-related expenses upon which the federal credit is based under § 21 of the Internal Revenue Code for expenses for household and dependent care services necessary for gainful employment.

4. An additional $1,000 deduction for each child residing for the entire taxable year in a home under permanent foster care placement as defined in Chapter 10 (§ 63.1-195 et seq.) of Title 63.1, provided the taxpayer can also claim the child as a personal exemption under § 151 of the Internal Revenue Code.

5. Effective for all taxable years beginning on and after January 1, 1990, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four, less any amount received pursuant to the (i) Social Security Act or (ii) Railroad Retirement Act and treated for federal income tax purposes as equivalent to social security. Beginning in taxable year 1992 through taxable year 1993, the $12,000 and $6,000 deduction amounts shall be indexed annually in each such taxable year by an amount equivalent to the most recent percentage increase in the social security wage base.

Effective for the taxable year beginning January 1, 1994, a deduction in the amount of $12,944 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,472 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four. Effective for the taxable year beginning January 1, 1995, a deduction in the amount of $10,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $5,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four. Effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, a deduction in the amount of $12,000 for taxpayers age sixty-five or older, or $6,000 for taxpayers age sixty-two through sixty-four.

Beginning in taxable year 1995, the deduction under this subdivision shall not be reduced by any amount received pursuant to the (i) Social Security Act or (ii) Railroad Retirement Act and treated for federal income tax purposes as equivalent to social security.

6. For taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1996, deposits made by a qualified low-income person to a family savings account, up to a maximum deduction of $1,200 per taxpayer, per taxable year, in accordance with the provisions of Chapter 19 (§§ 63.1-320 et seq.) of Title 63.1 but only to the extent that the balance of such family savings account does not exceed $10,000.

E. There shall be added to or subtracted from federal adjusted gross income (as the case may be) the individual's share, as beneficiary of an estate or trust, of the Virginia fiduciary adjustment determined under § 58.1-361.

F. There shall be added or subtracted, as the case may be, the amounts provided in § 58.1-315 as transitional modifications.

§ 58.1-333. Tax credit for investments under the "Neighborhood Assistance and Family Savings Act of 1996."

~~Any~~ Under the Neighborhood Assistance and Family Savings Act of 1996 (§ 63.1-320 et seq.), any business firm or individual taxpayer, as defined in § 63.1-321, shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by § 58.1-320 or Chapter 12 of this title, §§ 58.1-2501 and 58.1-2626 of an amount equal to fifty percent of the total sum (i) invested under the Neighborhood Assistance Act of 1981 (§ 63.1-320 et seq.) during the taxable year, by such taxpayer or business firm during its taxable year in programs approved pursuant to § 63.1-323; or (ii) made in matching contributions to family savings accounts on

183 behalf of low-income persons by the taxpayer or business firm during its taxable year in accordance 184 with § 63.1-323.1; such credit shall not exceed $175,000 annually. No tax credit of less than fifty 185 dollars shall be granted, nor shall a tax credit be granted to any business firm or individual taxpayer for 186 investments if such activity is part of its normal course of business as defined in § 63.1-321. Any tax
 187 credit not usable for the taxable year the investment was made may be carried over to the extent usable
 188 for the next five succeeding taxable years or until the full credit is utilized, whichever is sooner. Credits
 189 granted to a partnership or S corporation shall be passed through to the partners or shareholders, 190 respectively.

191 § 58.1-430. Tax credit for investments under the "Neighborhood Assistance and Family Savings Act 192 of 1996."

193 Any Under the Neighborhood Assistance and Family Savings Act of 1996, any business firm, as 194 defined in § 63.1-321, shall be allowed a credit against the tax imposed by § 58.1-400 or Chapter 12 of 195 this title, §§ 58.1-2501 and 58.1-2626 of an amount equal to fifty percent of the total sum invested
 196 under the Neighborhood Assistance Act of 1981 (§ 63.1-320 et seq.) during the taxable year, : (i)
 197 invested by a business firm during its taxable year in programs approved pursuant to §63.1-323; and
 198 (ii) of matching contributions made to family savings accounts on behalf of low-income persons by a
 199 business firm during its taxable year in accordance with § 63.1-323.1; such credit shall not exceed 200 $175,000 annually. No tax credit of less than fifty dollars shall be granted, nor shall a tax credit be 201 granted to any business firm for investments if such activity is a part of its normal course of business as 202 defined in § 63.1-321. Any tax credit not usable for the taxable year the investment was made may be 203 carried over to the extent usable for the next five succeeding taxable years or until the full credit is 204 utilized, whichever is sooner. Credits granted to a partnership or Subchapter S corporation shall be 205 passed through to the partners or shareholders, respectively.

206 CHAPTER 19.

207 NEIGHBORHOOD ASSISTANCE AND FAMILY SAVINGS ACT.

208 § 63.1-320. Short title.

209 This chapter shall be known and may be cited as the "Neighborhood Assistance and Family Savings

§ 63.1-322. Public policy, business firms, investment.

It is hereby declared to be public policy of the Commonwealth of Virginia to encourage direct investment participation by business firms and individuals in programs and activities offering neighborhood assistance and providing job training, education, crime prevention, and community services to neighborhood organizations to benefit low-income individuals living in impoverished areas or impoverished people and to encourage the acquisition of long-term assets among low-income Virginia families through tax-advantaged family savings accounts.

§ 63.1-323. Tax credit authorized; proposals; regulations; amount for programs.

Any individual taxpayer or business firm that engages engaging in the activities of providing neighborhood assistance, job training or education for individuals not employed by the business firm, community services or crime prevention services in an impoverished area or for impoverished people low-income persons shall receive a tax credit as provided in § 63.1-324, if the Commissioner of the Department of Social Services or his designee approves the proposal of such business firm or of a neighborhood organization. The proposal shall set forth the program to be conducted, the impoverished area or impoverished people low-income persons selected, the estimated amount to be invested in the program and the plans for implementing the program. A copy of the proposal shall be submitted by the Commissioner of Social Services or his designee to all planning district commissions within whose boundaries the proposal will operate. The planning district commissions shall thereafter notify their respective local units of government of the contents of the proposal. Such commission or the governing body of each governmental subdivision may thereafter comment in writing on the proposal to the Commissioner or his designee. If, in the opinion of the Commissioner or his designee, a business firm's investment can more consistently meet with the purposes of this chapter if made through contributions to a nonprofit neighborhood organization, a tax credit may similarly be allowed as provided in § 63.1-324. The Commissioner of Social Services or his designee is hereby authorized to promulgate regulations guidelines for the approval or disapproval of such proposals by business firms or neighborhood organizations. The Commissioner shall designate the Director of the Department of Housing and Community Development to promulgate guidelines and perform all functions necessary for the administration of family savings accounts for low-income Virginians. Such regulations guidelines shall contain a requirement that an annual audit be provided by the business firm or neighborhood organization as a prerequisite for approval. The guidelines shall also contain requirements and procedures for the treatment of a premature distribution resulting from the death or divorce of the account holder, or other circumstances. Through June 30, 1996, the total amount of tax credit granted for programs approved under this chapter for each fiscal year shall not exceed $5,250,000. From July 1, 1996, through June 30, 1998 2000, the total amount of tax credit granted for programs approved under this chapter for each fiscal year shall not exceed eight million dollars. The tax credits made available by this chapter to qualifying taxpayers for programs serving impoverished areas or low-income persons shall be supplemented by an additional one million dollars in tax credits reserved for use by taxpayers providing matching contributions to qualified family savings accounts. Tax credits shall not be authorized after fiscal year 19982000.

§ 63.1-323.1. Tax credit authorized for contributions to family savings accounts of low-income persons; annual savings cap; liability for taxation; number of accounts authorized.

Any individual taxpayer or business firm making a matching contribution to a family savings account established in accordance with this Act and guidelines promulgated by the designee of the Commissioner of the Department of Social Services shall receive a tax credit as provided in § 63.1-324. Qualified low-income persons may contribute up to $1,200 annually to an account established in accordance with the guidelines. Excess savings, excess matching contributions, or distributions in amounts exceeding $10,000 or which are not used for authorized purposes shall be liable for applicable income taxes. In any one year, matching contributions equal to up to fifty percent of the deposits made by a low-income person to a family savings account shall be permitted. In no event may aggregate matching contributions to the family savings account of a single low-income person exceed $600. A maximum of 10,000 individual accounts may be authorized through June 30, 2000.

§ 63.1-323.2. Prohibition on attachments.

Neither the amounts (i) saved by individual low-income account holders, (ii) made in matching contributions, nor (iii) earned from interest on such accounts shall be subject to a lien of any attachment, garnishment proceeding, writ of fieri facias, or to a levy or distress in any manner for any debt due by the account holder.

§ 63.1-324. Tax credit, amount, limitation, carry over.

The Commissioner of the Department of Social Services or his designee shall certify to the Commissioner of the Department of Taxation, or in the case of public service corporations subject to a license tax imposed by Chapter 26 (§ 58.1-2600 et seq.) of Title 58.1, to the Director of Public Service Taxation for the State Corporation Commission, the applicability of the tax credit provided herein for an individual taxpayer against any tax due under Article 2 (§ 58.1-320 et seq.) of Chapter 3 of Title 58.1 or for a business firm against any tax due under Article 10 (§ 58.1-400 et seq.) of Chapter 3 of Title 58.1 or against any income tax, franchise tax, gross receipts tax or premium tax due from a public service company, bank, bank and trust company, trust company, insurance company, other than a foreign fire or casualty insurance company, national bank, mutual savings bank, savings and loan association, partnership, S corporation, or sole proprietorship, in an amount equaling fifty percent of the total amount invested by the business firm during its taxable year in programs approved pursuant to § 63.1-323 (i) invested by an individual taxpayer or business firm during its taxable year in programs approved pursuant to § 63.1-323; and (ii) made in matching contributions to a family savings account on behalf of low-income persons by an individual taxpayer or business firm during its taxable year in accordance with § 63.1-323.1. Notwithstanding the provisions of § 63.1-325, credits granted to a clinic organized in whole or in part for the delivery of health care services without charge may be assigned by the clinic to physicians and dentists who are licensed pursuant to Title 54.1 and who provide health care services without charge within the scope of their licensure at the clinic. No tax credit of less than $50 shall be granted for any individual proposal, and a business firm shall not be allowed a tax credit in excess of $175,000 per taxable year. No tax credit shall be granted to any business firm for activities that are a part of its normal course of business. Any tax credit not usable for the period the investment was made may be carried over to the extent usable for the next five succeeding taxable years or until the full credit has been utilized, whichever is sooner.

2. That the fourth enactment of Chapter 629 of the Acts of Assembly of 1981, as last amended by Chapter 779 of the Acts of Assembly of 1995, is amended and reenacted as follows:

4. That this act shall expire on July 1, 1998 2000, and be of no further force or effect; however, a business firm which received or individual taxpayer receiving the tax credit provided by this act while it was in effect shall be entitled to carry over that credit for the next five succeeding taxable years whether or not this act shall expire on July 1, 19982000.

3. That the third enactment of Chapter 407 of the Acts of Assembly of 1986 is amended and reenacted as follows:

3. That the provisions of § 63.1-324 shall be effective for all taxable years beginning on or after January 1, 1986, except that credits for matching contributions to family savings accounts shall not be authorized for taxable years beginning prior to January 1, 1996.

4. That the Commissioner of the Department of Social Services or his designee shall promulgate such emergency guidelines as may be required to implement the provisions of this act.
