6 Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:7 1. That § 8.01-424 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

8 § 8.01-424. Approval of compromises on behalf of persons under a disability in suits or actions to 9 which they are parties.

10 A. In any action or suit wherein a person under a disability is a party, the court in which the matter 11 is pending shall have the power to approve and confirm a compromise of the matters in controversy on 12 behalf of such party, including claims under the provisions of any liability insurance policy, if such 13 compromise is deemed to be to the interest of the party. Any order or decree approving and confirming 14 the compromise shall be binding upon such party, except that the same may be set aside for fraud.

15 B. In case of damage to the person or property of a person under a disability, caused by the 16 wrongful act, neglect or default of any person, when death did not ensue therefrom, any person or 17 insurer interested in compromise of any claim for such damages, including any claim under the 18 provisions of any liability insurance policy, may, upon motion to the court in which the action is 19 pending for the recovery of damages on account of such injury, or if no such action is pending, then to 20 any circuit court, move the court to approve the compromise. The court shall require the movant to give 21 reasonable notice of such motion to all parties and to any person found by the court to be interested in 22 the compromise.

23 C. A compromise action involving a claim for wrongful death shall be in accordance with the 24 applicable provisions of § 8.01-55. Nothing in this section shall be construed to affect the provisions of 25 § 8.01-76.

26 D. In any compromise action the court shall direct the payment of the proceeds of the compromise 27 agreement, when approved, as follows:

28 1. Payment of the sum into court as provided by § 8.01-600 or to the general receiver of such court;

29 2. To a duly qualified fiduciary of the person under a disability, after due inquiry as to the adequacy 30 of the bond of such fiduciary;

31 3. As provided in § 8.01-606; or

32 4. Where the agreement of settlement provides for payments to be made over a period of time in the 33 future, whether such payments are lump sum, periodic, or a combination of both, the court shall approve 34 the settlement only if it finds that all payments which are due to be made are (i) secured by a bond
35 issued by an insurance company authorized to write such bonds in this Commonwealth or (ii) to be 36 made by an insurance company or companies authorized to do business in this Commonwealth and 37 which is rated "A plus" (A+) or better by Best's Insurance Reports. Payments made under this 38 subdivision totaling not more than $4,000 in any calendar year may be paid in accordance with 39 § 8.01-606. Payments made under this subdivision, totaling more than $4,000 in any calendar year while 40 the recipient is under a disability, shall be paid to a duly qualified fiduciary after due inquiry as to 41 adequacy of the bond of such fiduciary.

42 E. Payments made under this section, in the case of damage to the person or property of a minor, 43 may be made payable in the discretion of the court to the parent or guardian of the minor to be held in 44 trust for the benefit of the minor. Any such trust shall be subject to court approval and the court may 45 provide for the termination of such trust at any time following attainment of majority which the court 46 deems to be in the best interest of the minor.
