Patrons—Walker, Couric, Howell, Lambert, Miller, Y.B., Reynolds and Woods; Delegates: Behm, Brink, Diamonstein, Puller and Van Yahres

Referred to the Committee on Rehabilitation and Social Services

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 63.1-195 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 63.1-195. Definitions.

As used in this chapter:

"Adoptive home" means any family home selected and approved by a parent, local board of public welfare or social services or a licensed child-placing agency for the placement of a child with the intent of adoption.

"Adoptive placement" means arranging for the care of a child who is in the custody of a child-placing agency in an approved home for the purpose of adoption.

"Child" means any natural person under eighteen years of age.

"Child-caring institution" means any institution maintained for the purpose of receiving children for full-time care, maintenance, protection and guidance separated from their parents or guardians, except:

1. A bona fide educational institution whose pupils, in the ordinary course of events, return annually to the homes of their parents or guardians for not less than two months of summer vacation;

2. An establishment required to be licensed as a summer camp by Title 35.1; and

3. A bona fide hospital legally maintained as such.

"Child day center" means a child day program offered to (i) two or more children under the age of thirteen in a facility that is not the residence of the provider or of any of the children in care or (ii) thirteen or more children at any location.

"Child day center system" means any person who is voluntarily licensed as such who operates, manages, or accredits as members of its system, fifty or more child day center sites in the Commonwealth.

"Child day program" means a regularly operating service arrangement for children where, during the absence of a parent or guardian, a person or organization has agreed to assume responsibility for the supervision, protection, and well-being of a child under the age of thirteen for less than a twenty-four-hour period.

"Child-placing agency" means any person who places children in foster homes, adoptive homes or independent living arrangements pursuant to § 63.1-205 or a local board of public welfare or social services that places children in foster homes or adoptive homes pursuant to §§ 63.1-56, 63.1-204 and 63.1-220.2.

"Child-welfare agency" means a child day center, child day center system, child-placing agency, child-caring institution, family day home, family day system, or independent foster home.

"Family day home" means a child day program offered in the residence of the provider or the home of any of the children in care for one through twelve children under the age of thirteen, exclusive of the provider's own children and any children who reside in the home, when at least one child receives care for compensation. ~~From July 1, 1993, until July 1, 1996, family day homes serving nine through twelve children, exclusive of the provider's own children and any children who reside in the home, shall be licensed. Effective July 1, 1996, family~~ The provider of a licensed or registered family day home shall provide care to the children for a minimum of seventy-five percent of the time that the family day home is in operation on a weekly basis, except for periods of vacation or illness not to exceed four weeks annually. Family day homes serving six through twelve children, exclusive of the provider's own children and any children who reside in the home, shall be licensed. However, no family day home shall care for more than four children under the age of two, including the provider's own children and any children who reside in the home, unless the family day home is licensed or voluntarily registered. However, a family day home where the children in care are all grandchildren of the provider shall not be required to be licensed.

"Family day system" means any person who approves family day homes as members of its system; who refers children to available family day homes in that system; and who, through contractual arrangement, may provide central administrative functions including, but not limited to, training of 60 operators of member homes; technical assistance and consultation to operators of member homes;

61 inspection, supervision, monitoring, and evaluation of member homes; and referral of children to 62 available health and social services.

63 "Foster care services" means the provision of a full range of casework, treatment and community
64 services for a planned period of time to a child who is abused or neglected as defined in § 63.1-248.2 or 65 in need of services as defined in § 16.1-228 and his family when the child (i) has been identified as 66 needing services to prevent or eliminate the need for foster care placement, (ii) has been placed through 67 an agreement between the local board of social services or the public agency designated by the 68 community policy and management team and the parents or guardians, (iii) has been committed or 69 entrusted to a local board of social services or child welfare agency, or (iv) has been placed under the 70 supervisory responsibility of a local board pursuant to § 16.1-293.

71 "Foster care placement" means placement of a child through (i) an agreement between the parents or 72 guardians and the local board or the public agency designated by the community policy and 73 management team where legal custody remains with the parents or guardians, or (ii) an entrustment or 74 commitment of the child to the local board or child welfare agency.

75 "Foster home" means the place of residence of any natural person in which any child, other than a
76 child by birth or adoption of such person, resides as a member of the household.

77 "Group home" means a child-caring institution which is operated by any person at any place other
78 than in an individual's family home or residence and which does not care for more than twelve children.

79 "Independent foster home" means a private family home in which any child, other than a child by 80 birth or adoption of such person, resides as a member of the household and has been placed therein
81 independently of a child-placing agency except (i) a home in which are received only children related by 82 birth or adoption of the person who maintains such home and children of personal friends of such 83 person and (ii) a home in which is received a child or children committed under the provisions of 84 subdivision 4 of § 16.1-278.2, subdivision 6 of § 16.1-278.4, or subdivision 13 of § 16.1-278.8.

85 "Independent living placement" means placement of a child at least sixteen years of age who is in 86 the custody of a local board or licensed child-placing agency or has been placed by a local board in a
87 living arrangement in which he does not have daily substitute parental supervision.

88 "Intercountry placement" means the arrangement for the care of a child in an adoptive home or foster
89 care placement into or out of the Commonwealth by a licensed child-placing agency, court, or other 90 entity authorized to make such placements in accordance with the laws of the foreign country under 91 which it operates.

92 "Interstate placement" includes the arrangement for the care of a child in an adoptive home, foster
93 care placement or in the home of the child's parent or with a relative or nonagency guardian, into or out
94 of the Commonwealth, by a child-placing agency or court when the full legal right of the child's parent
95 or nonagency guardian to plan for the child has been voluntarily terminated or limited or severed by the 96 action of any court.

97 "Permanent foster care placement" means the place of residence in which a child resides and in
98 which he has been placed pursuant to the provisions of §§ 63.1-56 and 63.1-206.1 with the expectation
99 and agreement between the placing agency and the place of permanent foster care that the child shall 100 remain in the placement until he reaches the age of majority unless modified by court order or unless 101 removed pursuant to § 16.1-251 or § 63.1-248.9. A permanent foster care placement may be a place of 102 residence of any natural person or persons deemed appropriate to meet a child's needs on a long-term
103 basis.

104 "Person" means any natural person, or any association, partnership or corporation or other legal 105 entity.

106 "Registered family day home" means any family day home which has met the standards for 107 voluntary registration for such homes pursuant to regulations promulgated by the State Board of Social 108 Services and which has obtained a certificate of registration from the Commissioner.
