SENATE BILL NO. 635

Offered January 26, 1998

A BILL to amend and reenact §§ 59.1-207.11, 59.1-207.13, and 59.1-207.16:1 of the Code of Virginia, relating to Motor Vehicle Warranty Enforcement Act; leased vehicles, penalty.

Patron—Bolling

Referred to the Committee on Commerce and Labor

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That §§ 59.1-207.11, 59.1-207.13, and 59.1-207.16:1 of the Code of Virginia are amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 59.1-207.11. Definitions.

As used in this chapter, the following terms shall have the following meanings:

"Collateral charges" means any sales- or lease-related charges including but not limited to sales tax, license fees, registration fees, title fees, finance charges and interest, transportation charges, dealer preparation charges or any other charges for service contracts, undercoating, rust proofing or installed options, not recoverable from a third party. If a refund involves a lease, "collateral charges" means, in addition to any of the above, capitalized cost reductions, credits and allowances for any trade-in vehicles, fees to another to obtain the lease, and insurance or other costs expended by the lessor for the benefit of the lessee.

"Comparable motor vehicle" means a motor vehicle that is identical or reasonably equivalent to the motor vehicle to be replaced, as the motor vehicle to be replaced existed at the time of purchase or lease with an offset from this value for a reasonable allowance for its use.

"Consumer" means the purchaser, other than for purposes of resale, or the lessee, of a motor vehicle used in substantial part for personal, family, or household purposes, and any person to whom such motor vehicle is transferred for the same purposes during the duration of any warranty applicable to such motor vehicle, and any other person entitled by the terms of such warranty to enforce the obligations of the warranty.

"Incidental damages" shall have the same meaning as provided in § 8.2-715.

"Lemon law rights period" means the period ending eighteen months after the date of the original delivery to the consumer of a new motor vehicle. This shall be the period during which the consumer can report any nonconformity to the manufacturer and pursue any rights provided for under this chapter.

"Lien" means a security interest in a motor vehicle.

"Lienholder" means a person, partnership, association, corporation or entity with a security interest in a motor vehicle pursuant to a lien.

"Manufacturer" means a person, partnership, association, corporation or entity engaged in the business of manufacturing or assembling motor vehicles, or of distributing motor vehicles to motor vehicle dealers.

"Manufacturer's express warranty" means the written warranty, so labeled, of the manufacturer of a new automobile, including any terms or conditions precedent to the enforcement of obligations under that warranty.

"Motor vehicle" means only passenger cars, pickup or panel trucks, motorcycles, self-propelled motorized chassis of motor homes and mopeds as those terms are defined in § 46.2-100 and demonstrators or ~~lease purchase~~ leased vehicles with which a warranty was issued.

"Motor vehicle dealer" shall have the same meaning as provided in § 46.2-1500.

"Nonconformity" means a failure to conform with a warranty, a defect or a condition, including those that do not affect the driveability of the vehicle, which significantly impairs the use, market value, or safety of a motor vehicle.

"Notify" or "notification" means that the manufacturer shall be deemed to have been notified under this chapter if a written complaint of the defect or defects has been mailed to it or it has responded to the consumer in writing regarding a complaint, or a factory representative has either inspected the vehicle or met with the consumer or an authorized dealer regarding the nonconformity.

"Reasonable allowance for use" shall not exceed one-half of the amount allowed per mile by the Internal Revenue Service, as provided by regulation, revenue procedure, or revenue ruling promulgated pursuant to § 162 of the Internal Revenue Code, for use of a personal vehicle for business purposes, plus an amount to account for any loss to the fair market value of the vehicle resulting from damage beyond normal wear and tear, unless the damage resulted from nonconformity to any warranty.

"Serious safety defect" means a life-threatening malfunction or nonconformity that impedes the

60 consumer's ability to control or operate the new motor vehicle for ordinary use or reasonable intended
61 purposes or creates a risk of fire or explosion.

62 "Significant impairment" means to render the new motor vehicle unfit, unreliable or unsafe for 63 ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes.

64 "Warranty" means any implied warranty or any written warranty of the manufacturer, or any
65 affirmations of fact or promise made by the manufacturer in connection with the sale or lease of a
66 motor vehicle that become part of the basis of the bargain. The term "warranty" pertains to the 67 obligations of the manufacturer in relation to materials, workmanship, and fitness of a motor vehicle for 68 ordinary use or reasonable intended purposes throughout the duration of the lemon law rights period as 69 defined under this section.

70 § 59.1-207.13. Nonconformity of motor vehicles.

71 A. If the manufacturer, its agents or authorized dealers do not conform the motor vehicle to any 72 applicable warranty by repairing or correcting any defect or condition, including those that do not affect 73 the driveability of the vehicle, which significantly impairs the use, market value, or safety of the motor 74 vehicle to the consumer after a reasonable number of attempts during the lemon law rights period, the 75 manufacturer shall:

76 1. Replace the motor vehicle with a comparable motor vehicle acceptable to the consumer, or

77 2. Accept return of the motor vehicle and refund to the consumer, lessor, and any lienholder as their 78 interest may appear the full ~~purchase contract~~ price, including all collateral charges, incidental damages,
79 less a reasonable allowance for the consumer's use of the vehicle up to the date of the first notice of 80 nonconformity that is given to the manufacturer, its agents or authorized dealer. Refunds or replacements
81 shall be made to the consumer, lessor or lienholder, if any, as their interests may appear. The consumer
82 shall have the unconditional right to choose a refund rather than a replacement vehicle and to drive the 83 motor vehicle until he receives either the replacement vehicle or the refund. The subtraction of a
84 reasonable allowance for use shall apply to either a replacement or refund of the motor vehicle. Mileage,
85 expenses, and reasonable loss of use necessitated by attempts to conform such motor vehicle to the 86 express warranty may be recovered by the consumer.

87 3. In the case of a replacement of or refund for a leased vehicle, in addition to any other damages
88 provided in this chapter, the motor vehicle shall be returned to the manufacturer and the consumer's
89 written lease shall be terminated by the lessor without penalty to the consumer. The lessor shall transfer
90 title to the manufacturer as necessary to effectuate the consumer's rights pursuant to this statute,
91 whether the consumer chooses vehicle replacement or a refund.

92 B. It shall be presumed that a reasonable number of attempts have been undertaken to conform a
93 motor vehicle to any warranty and that the motor vehicle is significantly impaired if during the period
94 of eighteen months following the date of original delivery of the motor vehicle to the consumer either:

95 1. The same nonconformity has been subject to repair three or more times by the manufacturer, its 96 agents or its authorized dealers and the same nonconformity continues to exist;

97 2. The nonconformity is a serious safety defect and has been subject to repair one or more times by
98 the manufacturer, its agent or its authorized dealer and the same nonconformity continues to exist; or

99 3. The motor vehicle is out of service due to repair for a cumulative total of thirty calendar days, 100 unless such repairs could not be performed because of conditions beyond the control of the 101 manufacturer, its agents or authorized dealers, including war, invasion, strike, fire, flood or other natural 102 disasters.

103 C. The lemon law rights period shall be extended if the manufacturer has been notified but the 104 nonconformity has not been effectively repaired by the manufacturer, or its agent, by the expiration of 105 the lemon law rights period.

106 D. The manufacturer shall clearly and conspicuously disclose to the consumer, in the warranty or 107 owner's manual, that written notification of the nonconformity to the manufacturer is required before the 108 consumer may be eligible for a refund or replacement of the vehicle under this chapter. The 109 manufacturer shall include with the warranty or owner's manual the name and address to which the 110 consumer shall send such written notification.

111 E. It shall be the responsibility of the consumer, or his representative, prior to availing himself of the 112 provisions of this section, to notify the manufacturer of the need for the correction or repair of the 113 nonconformity, unless the manufacturer has been notified as defined in § 59.1-207.11. If the 114 manufacturer or factory representative has not been notified of the conditions set forth in subsection B
115 of this section and any of the conditions set forth in subsection B of this section already exists, the 116 manufacturer shall be given an additional opportunity, not to exceed fifteen days, to correct or repair the 117 nonconformity. If notification shall be mailed to an authorized dealer, the authorized dealer shall upon 118 receipt forward such notification to the manufacturer.

119 F. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed to limit or impair the rights and remedies of a consumer
120 under any other law.

121 G. It is an affirmative defense to any claim under this chapter that:

122 1. An alleged nonconformity does not significantly impair the use, market value, or safety of the 123 motor vehicle; or

124 2. A nonconformity is the result of abuse, neglect or unauthorized modification or alteration of a
125 motor vehicle by a consumer.

126 § 59.1-207.16:1. Disclosure of returned vehicles; penalty.

127 A. If a motor vehicle that is returned to the manufacturer or distributor either under this chapter or 128 by judgment, decree, or arbitration award in this or any other state and is then transferred by a
129 manufacturer or distributor to a dealer, licensed under Chapter 15 (§ 46.2-1500 et seq.) of Title 46.2, in 130 Virginia, the manufacturer or distributor shall disclose this information to the Virginia dealer.

131 B. If the returned vehicle is then made available for resale or for another lease, the manufacturer
132 shall, prior to sale or lease, disclose in writing in a clear and conspicuous manner, on a separate piece
133 of paper in ten-point capital type, to the Virginia dealer that this motor vehicle was returned to the 134 manufacturer, distributor or factory branch, the nature of the defect which resulted in the return, and the 135 condition of the motor vehicle at the time of transfer to the Virginia dealer. It shall be the responsibility 136 of the dealer that receives this disclosure to give notice of its contents to any prospective purchaser or
137 lessee prior to sale, and to transfer the disclosure, or a copy thereof, to the next purchaser or lessee. A 138 dealer's responsibility under this section shall cease upon the sale or lease of the affected motor vehicle
139 to the first purchaser or lessee not for resale or lease.

140 C. Any manufacturer or distributor who violates this section of the Motor Vehicle Warranty
141 Enforcement Act shall be guilty of a Class 3 misdemeanor.
