

VIRGINIA ACTS OF ASSEMBLY -- 1999 SESSION

CHAPTER 150

An Act to amend and reenact § 52-14 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the operation of the Virginia Criminal Information Network.

[S 917]

Approved March 17, 1999

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 52-14 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

§ 52-14. Availability of system.

The basic system herein provided for may be made available for use by any department or division of the State government and by any county, city, town, railroad or other special police department lawfully maintained by any corporation in this Commonwealth as well as agencies of the federal government, subject to the following terms and conditions:

(1) 1. Application for permission to connect with the basic system shall be made to the Superintendent of State Police on forms to be provided by him;

(2) 2. Such application may be approved by the Superintendent if, as and when in his discretion such connection is requisite and necessary for the best interests of the entire system;

(3) 3. Upon approval of such application and before the applicant shall be connected with the basic system, such applicant must agree to assume and pay all rentals for sending and receiving stations, or receiving stations only, as may be authorized by the Superintendent for installation within the jurisdiction of the applicant, and any and all costs of installation and operation of such stations;

(4) 4. a. The Commonwealth shall pay all rental for necessary wire or circuit mileage required to connect such stations operated by criminal justice agencies of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions, or the Federal Bureau of Investigation, with the basic system.

b. All other agencies shall agree, as a condition of connection or continued service, to assume and pay all rental for necessary wire or circuit mileage required to connect such stations with the basic system.

2. That the provisions of this act which add subdivision 4 b to § 52-14 shall become effective on October 1, 1999.
