HOUSE BILL NO. 1277

Offered January 26, 1998

A BILL to amend and reenact § 7.1-37 of the Code of Virginia, relating to the official song of the Commonwealth.

Patrons—Hargrove and Shuler

Referred to Committee on General Laws

Whereas, the Commonwealth has no effective official song because "Carry Me Back To Old Virginia," declared the State song in 1940, has become so controversial that it is no longer possible or appropriate to use the song; and

Whereas, the official song should reference the rich history and tradition of the Commonwealth and invoke images of the natural and scenic beauty its citizens celebrate; and

Whereas, the Commonwealth requires an official song that can be sung on all occasions with pride and affection; now, therefore, be it

Resolved by the House of Delegates, the Senate concurring, That "Virginia (Heaven on Earth to Me)," by Constance McGhee Cost, be designated the official song of the Commonwealth, the words of which are as follows:

Virginia (Heaven on Earth to Me)
They were visitors in a brand new land,
Lookin' for the way...
And ones like Pocahontas and Powhatan
Gave them the strength to stay.

The legends says he chopped down a cherry tree
When he was just a boy....
Then he led the fight to set our country free!
What a Virginia boy!

Chorus:

There's no finer place to hope to be...
From the Allegheny Mountains, through the valley to the sea!
The Old Dominion, full of hope and rich in history...
Virginia...Heaven on earth to me!

From the dawn of the sun until the day was done,
In the shipyards, fields and factories they'd stay...
Toilin' side by side, pressing' on with pride,
Ah! That's the Virginia way!

Chorus:

There's no finer place to hope to be...
From the Allegheny Mountains, through the valley to the sea!
The Old Dominion, full of hope and rich in history...
Virginia...She's home sweet home to me!

Now, buildin' on tradition, we'll be reachin' for the stars!
The Commonwealth has challenges to meet...
From near or far, whoever you are...
We've a legacy of excellence to keep!

Chorus:

There's no finer place to hope to be...
From the Allegheny Mountains, through the valley to the sea!
The Old Dominion, full of hope and rich in history...
Virginia...Heaven on earth to me!
Home sweet home to me!
The best is yet to be!

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Virginia:

1. That § 7.1-37 of the Code of Virginia is amended and reenacted as follows:

7/29/22 9:16
