A. All sales or leases are subject to the tax until the contrary is established. The burden of proving that a sale, distribution, lease, or storage of tangible personal property is not taxable is upon the dealer unless he takes from the taxpayer a certificate to the effect that the property is exempt under this chapter.

B. The certificate mentioned in this section shall relieve the person who takes such certificate from any liability for the payment or collection of the tax, except upon notice from the Tax Commissioner that such certificate is no longer acceptable. Such certificate shall be signed by and bear the name and address of the taxpayer; shall indicate the number of the certificate of registration, if any, issued to the taxpayer; shall indicate the general character of the tangible personal property sold, distributed, leased, or stored, or to be sold, distributed, leased, or stored under a blanket exemption certificate; and shall be substantially in such form as the Tax Commissioner may prescribe. If an exemption pertains to a nonprofit organization, other than a nonprofit church, that has qualified for a sales and use tax exemption under §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9 or 58.1-609.10, the exemption certificate shall be valid until the scheduled expiration of the applicable provision of such section, which expiration date shall be stated on the exemption certificate or certificate of registration issued to the organization.

C. If a taxpayer who gives a certificate under this section makes any use of the property other than an exempt use or retention, demonstration, or display while holding the property for resale, distribution, or lease in the regular course of business, such use shall be deemed a taxable sale by the taxpayer as of the time the property or service is first used by him, and the cost of the property to him shall be 1536 deemed the sales price of such retail sale. If the sole use of the property other than retention,

1537 demonstration, or display in the regular course of business is the rental of the property while holding it
1538 for sale, distribution, or lease, the taxpayer may elect to pay the tax on the amount of the rental charged, 1539 rather than the cost of the property to him.

1540 D. If a taxpayer gives a certificate under this section with respect to the purchase of fungible goods 1541 and thereafter commingles these goods with other fungible goods not so purchased, but of such 1542 similarity that the identity of the constituent goods in the commingled mass cannot be determined, sales 1543 or distributions from the mass of commingled goods shall be deemed to be sales or distributions of the 1544 goods so purchased until a quantity of commingled goods equal to the quantity of purchased goods so 1545 commingled has been sold or distributed.

1553 of an exemption under this section shall be guilty of a Class 1 misdemeanor.

1555 section to notify each dealer from whom purchases or leases of tangible personal property are made, of 1556 the suspension of its exemption, and of the invalidity of any exemption certificates filed with such 1557 dealers.

1558 D. To facilitate the administration of this section, notwithstanding the provisions of § 58.1-623, the 1559 Tax Commissioner is authorized to issue exemption permits to any person who is entitled to an 1560 exemption, and to require the use of such permits in making purchases. If the Tax Commissioner issues
1561 an exemption permit to a nonprofit organization other than a nonprofit church, that has qualified for a 1562 sales and use tax exemption under §§ 58.1-609.4, 58.1-609.7, 58.1-609.8, 58.1-609.9 or 58.1-609.10, the 1563 provisions of subsection F of § 30-19.05 shall apply with respect thereto.

1564 E. In lieu of the suspension of a person's exemption under subsection A of this section, the Tax
1565 Commissioner may assess a penalty of up to $1,000 for the misuse of an exemption certificate by that 1566 person or by any other person who, with the consent or knowledge of the exemption holder, has 1567 misused the certificate. The penalty shall be assessed and collected as a part of the tax, and the person 1568 so assessed may appeal the penalty pursuant to the provisions of Article 2 (§ 58.1-1820 et seq.) of 1569 Chapter 18 of this title.

1570 F. In any instance in which the Tax Commissioner determines that there has been any misuse of an 1571 exemption certificate, the person holding the exemption shall be liable for the full amount of tax, and 1572 any interest thereon, applicable to any purchase improperly made with his exemption certificate.

1573 G. The suspension of the exemption shall require that the person pay the full amount of the tax at 1574 the time of purchase and apply for a refund of the tax so paid. No interest shall be paid on any such 1575 refund. Upon application of the person whose certificate has been suspended, the Tax Commissioner, for 1576 good cause shown, may reinstate the person's certificate; however, any such suspension period shall run 1577 for at least one year.

1578 H. Notwithstanding § 58.1-3, the Tax Commissioner may report any gross misuses of exemption
1579 certificates to the Secretary of Finance and the chairmen of the money committees, for their confidential
1580 use, prior to the beginning of the following session of the General Assembly.
